Hansson,2007-11-15 This book describes an emotional territory which forms the individual's own sphere of action and experience. This develops in the course of evolution in pace with the individual's conditions of life brought about by challenges in the natural and social environment. Fenwick on Civil Liberties & Human Rights Helen Fenwick, Richard Edwards, 2016-11-25 More than merely describing the evolution of human rights and civil liberties law, this classic textbook provides students with detailed and thought-provoking coverage of the most crucial developments in the field, clearly explaining the law in context and practice. Updated throughout for this new edition, Fenwick on Civil Liberties and Human Rights considers a number of recent major changes in the law, in particular proposals to replace the Human Rights Act with a British Bill of Rights and the Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015, whilst also contextualising the impact of reforms on hate speech and contempt due to advances in new media. Comprehensive and authoritative, this textbook offers an essential resource for students on human rights or civil liberties courses, as well as a useful reference for students and scholars of UK Public Law. Beyond Loving Amy C. Steinbugler, 2012-09-06 In this book, Amy Steinbugler challenges the widespread assumption that interracial intimacy represents the ultimate erasure of racial differences. She finds that while interracial partners may be more racially progressive, they are not necessarily enlightened subjects who have managed to get beyond race. Beyond Loving adeptly examines how interracial couples experience race in their everyday lives and how they engage one another to address fundamental questions about the significance of race in contemporary life. Scrolls of Love Peter S. Hawkins, Lesleigh Cushing Stahlberg, 2006 Respectful of traditional biblical scholarship, this collection of essays aims to move beyond it. It brings together two communities that have read their Bibles in isolation from one another in ignorance of the richness of the other's traditions. Gender, Family and Sexuality: The Private Sphere in Italy, 1860-1945 P. Willson, 2004-06-30 This lively collection of essays presents a range of innovative research on the history of the private sphere in Liberal and Fascist Italy, with a particular focus on sexuality, gender, and race, all aspects which have received scarce attention in much of the existing historiography. It includes articles on foundlings and their mothers, the role of midwives, changing attitudes to sexuality, adultery trials, the Fascist persecution of homosexuals, debates about divorce, and going beyond Italy to its empire, the treatment of mixed-race children and their mothers in Eritrea. Key themes of this collection include the contrasting attitudes of the Liberal and Fascist governments to the role of the state in the private sphere, the influence of the Church, and the impact of new scientific and medical approaches to maternity, sexuality, and demography. Fundamentals of Business Communication P. Between Care and Criminality Helena Zewer, 2023-12-15 Between Care and Criminality examines Australian social welfare's encounter with migration and marriage in an era of intensified border control. It offers an in-depth ethnographic account of how social welfare practitioners carry out a migrant targeted social policy designed to prevent forced marriage in the aftermath of a 2013 law which criminalized the practice.

Life-Study of Exodus Witness Lee, 1998-07

Transnational Citizenship Rainer Bauböck, 1994-01-01 Regional integration, mass migration and the development of transnational organizations are just some of the factors challenging the traditional definitions of citizenship. In this important new book, Rainer Bauböck argues that citizenship rights will have to extend beyond nationality and state territory if liberal democracies are to remain true to their own principles of inclusive membership and equal basic rights.

Memos from Midlife Franklin E. Zimring, 2015-04-19 It's the most entertaining book I've read this year. Steve Chapman, Columnist and Editorial Writer, The Chicago Tribune. There are no pretentious pronouncements about public policy or dry conclusions from social science in these pages because it is a report from what Frank Zimring calls my second career and everybody else's second career: the hard work of becoming an adult in the modern world. Why is a piranha swimming in your pool a better illustration of how people get over committed than a giant man eating shark? Consult chapter 3. What should you say when your eight-year-old asks whether you would save him or his sister if the lifeboat only had room for one? See chapter 5. Why are professors who hate to teach at their home campus positively lustful when invited to lecture somewhere else? Chapter 11 explains. When you finally succeed in giving up cigarettes, how should you feel about those who still smoke? See chapter 2. Why do so many of the people lined up to visit world famous landmarks look so unhappy to be there? Chapter 20 reveals the secret. Frank Zimring has gained renown as a penetrating thinker and a tireless scholar, but Memos from Midlife reveals what his friends have always known: He is also a charming and thought provoking companion with a devilish sense of humor. Addressing a range of unconventional topics from the arrogance of nostalgia to Portnoy's real complaint, he provides both illumination and fun as well as guidance on living wisely and well. It's the most entertaining book I've read this year. Steve Chapman, Columnist and Editorial Writer, The Chicago Tribune. A new collection of compelling and humorous essays in the Journeys Memoirs Series from Quid Pro Books.

Universal (In the Realm of the Sensible) Dorothea

Olkowski, 2007-03-02 The Universal In the realm of the sensible. Beyond Continental Philosophy proposes a radical new philosophical system that moves from ontology to ethics. Dorothea Olkowski develops the concept of an ontological unconscious, a connection arising from our sensible relation to the world that conditions encounters with the environment and with others. This fundamental ontology rethinks the space-time relations opened by Irigaray's notion of the interval, Bergson's recollection, Merleau-Ponty's idea of the flesh and Deleuze's plane of immanence. Writing in an original style inspired by literature and the arts, Olkowski locates a realm of the senses, a field of vulnerability felt as pleasures and pains.

This presents an aesthetic sense of something universal to all human kind as well as to the organic and inorganic world In addition to this proposal for a wider ontology the relation between traditional ontologies and politics is examined as a means of opening politics beyond a no exit or limit cycle Instead a multiplicity of self organized emergent perspectives emerges eliminating the need for the connections conjunctions and disjunctions of the Kantian paradigm at work in contemporary continental philosophy This is a timely controversial and important book that will contribute enormously to the study of Deleuze and Continental Philosophy The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology Bonnie J.
