Mean Streets and Raging Bulls Richard Martin,2000-01-01 Classic film noir was Hollywood s dark cinema of crime and corruption a genre underpinned by a tone of existential cynicism which stripped bare the myth of the American Dream and offered a bleak nightmarish vision of a fragmented society that rhymed with many of the social realities of forties and fifties America Mean Streets and Raging Bulls explores how since its apparent demise in the late fifties the noir genre has been revitalized during the post studio era The book is divided into two sections In the first the evolution of film noir is contextualized in relation to both American cinema s industrial transformation and the post Depression history of the United States In the second the evolution of neo noir and its relation to classic film noir is illustrated by detailed reference to representative texts including Chinatown Roman Polanski 1974 Night Moves Arthur Penn 1975 Taxi Driver Martin Scorsese 1976 Blood Simple Joel and Ethan Coen 1984 After Hours Martin Scorsese 1985 Sea of Love Harold Becker 1989 Reservoir Dogs Quentin Tarantino 1992 and Romeo is Bleeding Peter Medak 1994

The Lost Decade Chris Horn,2023-10-19 Provides an analysis of Hollywood from a fresh viewpoint that shows the careers of Robert Altman Francis Coppola William Friedkin and others in the 1980s as far from conforming to a monolithic pattern of decline but rather as diverse and complex responses to political and industrial changes The 1980s are routinely seen as the era of the blockbuster and of Reaganite entertainment whereas the dominant view of late 1960s and early 1970s American film history is that of a Hollywood Renaissance a relatively brief window of artistry based around a select group of directors Yet key directors associated with the Renaissance period remained active throughout the 1980s and their work has been obscured or dismissed by a narrow singular model of American film history This book deals with industrial contexts that conditioned these directors ability to work creatively but it is also very much about the analysis of individual films bringing to light a range of unheralded work from the visual experimentation of One from the Heart Coppola 1981 to the experimental production contexts of Secret Honor Altman 1984 and the stylistic lan of To Live and Die in
