

A cinematic photograph of two soldiers in full combat gear, including helmets and rifles, moving through a dense jungle. The scene is backlit by sunlight filtering through the trees, creating a hazy, atmospheric effect. The soldiers are positioned in the upper half of the frame, with one slightly ahead of the other.

Development of Biomedical Engineering in Vietnam Vo Van Toi, Truong Quang Dang Khoa, 2010-04-03 Vietnam is a rapidly developing socially dynamic country where interest in biomedical engineering activities has grown considerably in recent years The leadership of the Vietnamese government and of research and educational institutions are well aware of the importance of this field for the development of the country and have instituted policies to promote its development The political economic and social environment within the country offers unique opportunities for the international community and this conference was intended to provide a vehicle for the sharing of experiences development of support and collaboration networks for research and exchange of ideas on how to improve the educational and entrepreneurial environment to better address the urgent needs of Vietnam In January 2004 under the sponsorship of the U S National Science Foundation a U S delegation that consisted of Biomedical Engineering professors from different universities in the United States visited several universities and research institutions in Vietnam to assess the state of development of this field This delegation proposed a five year plan that was enthusiastically embraced by the international scientific communities to actively develop collaborations with Vietnam Within this framework in July 2005 the First International Conference on the Development of Biomedical Engineering in Vietnam was held in Ho Chi Minh City From that conference a Consortium of Vietnam International Universities was created to advise and assist the development of Biomedical Engineering in Vietnamese universities Losing Vietnam Ira A. Hunt, 2013-07-16 An intelligence officer stationed in Southeast Asia offers a detailed insightful documented and authentic account of US policy failure in the region Lewis Sorley author of Westmoreland In the early 1970s the United States began to withdraw combat forces from Southeast Asia Though the American government promised to support the South Vietnamese and Cambodian forces in their continued fight against the Viet Cong the funding was drastically reduced over time The strain on America s allies in the region was immense as Major General Ira Hunt demonstrates in Losing Vietnam As deputy commander of the United States Support Activities Group Headquarters USAAG in Nakhon Phanom Thailand Hunt received all Southeast Asia operational reports reconnaissance information and electronic intercepts placing him at the forefront of military intelligence and analysis in the area He also met frequently with senior military leaders of Cambodia and South Vietnam contacts who shared their insights and gave him personal accounts of the ground wars raging in the region In Losing Vietnam Major Hunt details the catastrophic effects of reduced funding and of conducting wars by budget This detailed and fascinating work highlights how analytical studies provided to commanders and staff agencies improved decision making in military operations By assessing allied capabilities and the strength of enemy operations Hunt effectively demonstrates that America's lack of financial support and resolve doomed Cambodia and South Vietnam to defeat

Uncommon Valor Stephen Moore, 2018-10-01 Uncommon Valor is a look into the formation and operation of an advanced Special Forces recon company during the Vietnam War Code named the Studies and Observations Group SOG was the most covert U S military unit in its time and contained only volunteers from such elite units as the Army's Green Berets Navy SEALs and Air Force Air Commandos SOG warriors operated in small teams going behind enemy lines in Laos and Cambodia and along the Ho Chi Minh Trail tasked with performing special reconnaissance sabotaging North Vietnamese Army ammunition attempting to rescue downed U S pilots and other black ops missions During that time Forward Operating Base 2's FOB 2's recon company became the most highly decorated unit of the Vietnam War with five of its men earning the Medal of Honor and eight earning the Distinguished Service Cross America's second highest military award for valor Purple Hearts were earned by SOG veterans at a pace unparalleled in American wars of the twentieth century with casualties at times exceeding 100 percent One Bob Howard was wounded on fourteen different occasions received eight Purple Hearts was written up after three different missions for the Medal of Honor and emerged from Vietnam as the most highly decorated soldier since World War II's Audie Murphy

Sierra Hotel : flying Air Force fighters in the decade after Vietnam , 2001 In February 1999 only a few weeks before the U S Air Force spearheaded NATO's Allied Force air campaign against Serbia Col C R Anderegg USAF Ret visited the commander of the U S Air Forces in Europe Colonel Anderegg had known Gen John Jumper since they had served together as jet forward air controllers in Southeast Asia nearly thirty years earlier From the vantage point of 1999 they looked back to the day in February 1970 when they first controlled a laser guided bomb strike In this book Anderegg takes us from glimmers of hope like that one through other major improvements in the Air Force that came between the Vietnam War and the Gulf War Always central in Anderegg's account of those changes are the people who made them This is a very personal book by an officer who participated in the transformation he describes so vividly Much of his story revolves around the Fighter Weapons School at Nellis Air Force Base AFB Nevada where he served two tours as an instructor pilot specializing in guided munitions
