Spion Kop:

The Battle of Spion Kop Oliver Ransford,1969 Report of His Majesty's Commissioners Appointed to Inquire Into the Military Preparations and Other Matters Connected with the War in South Africa ,1903 Hill of Squandered Valour Ron Lock,2020-01-10 Good focused context pinpoints the historical significance of the single bloodiest episode in the Second Boer War from a Zulu warfare expert FGS Forum Spion Kop just northeast of Ladysmith South Africa was the largest hill in the region being over 1 400 feet high and it lay almost exactly at the center of the Boer line If the British could capture this position and bring artillery to the hill they would then command the flanks of the surrounding Boer positions On the night of January 23 1900 a large British force under Maj Gen Edward Woodgate was dispatched to secure the height with Lt Col Alexander Thorneycroft selected to lead the initial assault However the Boers refused to give up the position and a bitter two days of fighting ensued Ron Lock esteemed author of many Zulu warfare histories brings to life this bitter and previously overlooked campaign in vivid and complete detail with supporting sources including then journalist Winston Churchill s battle report as well as many previously unpublished illustrations and six newly commissioned maps His account will be valuable to both historians and strategists wanting to better understand this difficult and devastating conflict An excellent read well researched and incisive in his handling of the various protagonists involved He succeeds in offering a fresh perspective Al Venter author of Barrel of a Gun The Sphere ,1900 History of the War in South Africa, 1899-1902 Great Britain. War Office,John Frederick Maurice,Maurice Harold Grant,1907 Spion Kop Harold George Castle,Edward Mortelmans,1976-01-01 Minutes of Evidence Taken Before the Royal Commission on the War in South Africa Great Britain. Royal Commission on the South African War, 1899-1900,1903 American Hereford Record and Hereford Herd Book American Hereford Cattle Breeders' Association,1924 The Boer War Denis Judd,Keith Surridge,2013-03-15 The Boer War of 1899 1902 was an epic of heroism and bungling cunning and barbarism with an extraordinary cast of characters including Churchill Rhodes Conan Doyle Smuts Kipling Gandhi Kruger and Kitchener The war revealed the ineptitude of the British military and unexpectedly exposed the corrupt underside of imperialism in the establishment of the first concentration camps the shooting of Boer prisoners of war and the embezzlement of military supplies by British officers This acclaimed book provides a complete history of the Boer War from the first signs of unrest to the eventual peace In the process it debunks several of the myths which have grown up around the conflict and explores the deadly legacy it left for southern Africa Charles Warren Kevin Shillington,2021-08-08 The life of Charles Warren Royal Engineer is a compelling story full of action conflict triumph and disaster with reputations gained and lost All set against the background of an expanding British Empire It is a tale of secrecy Freemasonry and pioneering archaeology as the young Lt Warren still only in his twenties tunnelled under the Holy City of Jerusalem in search of evidence of the Temple of Solomon and Herod the Great A man of high principle and dogged determination Warren thrived on a challenge searching for lost

British spies in the desert of the Exodus or publically calling out the rapacious colonialism of Cecil Rhodes Later in different circumstances he ordered the arrest of Winston Churchill Although thrice knighted for his many achievements Warren is most widely remembered as the controversial Metropolitan Police Commissioner who failed to catch Jack the Ripper In the end he faced the supreme challenge in the Anglo Boer War becoming the scapegoat for one of Britain s greatest military disasters the Battle of Spion Kop In this new biography the first for 80 years historian and biographer Kevin Shillington delves into the records and presents a reassessment of Warren s reputation Black & White Budget ,1900 The King's Royal Rifle Corps Chronicle ,1909 Journal of the Royal United Service Institution Royal United Services Institute for Defence Studies,1903 Our Fighting Services and how They Made the Empire Sir Evelyn Wood,1916 Two Generals Roy Digby Thomas,2012-10-12 The Boer Wars that occurred at the end of the nineteenth century involved nearly 450 000 British troops and over 60 000 Boers They were the largest wars Britain had ever waged before the two World Wars They have been extensively covered by writers in Britain and South Africa Almost all of the writers addressed the conflict from the viewpoint of either the Boers or the British Two Generals tells how the commanders of the two armies confronted each other on the battlefield It seeks to describe the action from both viewpoints In this way it is unique Recent developments in South Africa have put the events at the turn of the last century in a new perspective The imperial attitude of the British rulers in South Africa and the stubbornness and conservative attitudes of the Boers can be seen to have contributed to the problems that persisted there throughout the twentieth century The author has taken a fresh approach to the conflict presenting it in an even handed way and setting the outcome in the context of developments during the last hundred years in South Africa Victoria's Generals Steven J. Corvi,Ian F. W. Beckett,2020-01-31 The senior British generals of the Victorian era men like Wolseley Roberts Gordon and Kitchener were heroes of their time As soldiers administrators and battlefield commanders they represented the empire at the height of its power But they were a disparate sometimes fractious group of men They exhibited many of the failings as well as the strengths of the British army of the late nineteenth century And now when the Victorian period is being looked at more critically than before the moment is right to reassess them as individuals and as soldiers This balanced and perceptive study of these eminent military men gives a fascinating insight into their careers into the British army of their day and into a now remote period when Britain was a world power The King's Royal Rifle Corps Chronicle Great Britain. Army. King's Royal Rifle Corps Regiment, 1881-1958,1909 A Military History of Africa Timothy J. Stapleton,2013-10-21 A detailed and thorough chronological overview of the history of warfare and military structures in Africa covering ancient times to the present day A Military History of Africa achieves a daunting task it synthesizes decades of specialized academic research and literature including the most recent material to offer an accessible survey of Africa s military history from the earliest times to the present day The first volume examines the precolonial period beginning with warfare in ancient North Africa including ancient Egypt and

Carthage and continues through the cavalry based Muslim empires of the trans Sahara trade and the wars of the slave trade in West and East Africa The second volume focuses on the wars of European colonial conquest and African resistance during the late 19th century African participation in both world wars and the early violent struggles for independence from the 1950s and early 1960s The third volume explores warfare in postcolonial Africa including coverage of the impact of the global Cold War conflicts in Southern Africa from the 1960s to 1980s the development of postcolonial African armed forces and civil wars sparked by the discovery of precious resources such as diamonds in Sierra Leone Readers of this three volume work will understand how warfare and military structures have been consistently central to the development of African societies Journal of the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall Yard ,1903 Fighting Techniques of the Colonial Age Robert B. Bruce,2009-11-24 Contains 20 full color tactical maps and accounts of key battles including the Siege of Yorktown 1781 the amphibious assault on Valdivia 1820 the battle of Isly 1844 the defense of the Alamo 1836 the retreat from Kabul 1842 Little Big Horn 1876 Omdurman 1898 and many more Back jacket
