Spirit And Struggle In Southern Asia:

Spirit and Struggle in Southern Asia Barbara H. Chase, Martha L. Man, 1986 Each of the five countries in this study Bangladesh India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka has been profoundly affected by the cultures of its indigenous peoples as well as by a history of interventions from countries outside the region This study is arranged in such a way that North American readers will be able to examine the same subject from different southern Asian perspectives. The areas covered are history religion the role of women culture peace justice and militarization Preface South Asian Folklore Peter Claus, Sarah Diamond, Margaret Mills, 2020-10-28 With 600 signed alphabetically organized articles covering the entirety of folklore in South Asia this new resource includes countries and regions ethnic groups religious concepts and practices artistic genres holidays and traditions and many other concepts A preface introduces the material while a comprehensive index cross references and black and white illustrations round out the work The focus on south Asia includes Afghanistan Bangladesh India Pakistan and Sri Lanka with short survey articles on Tibet Bhutan Sikkim and various diaspora communities This unique reference will be invaluable for collections serving students scholars and the general public Spirit and Struggle in Southern Asia Rachael McGuire, 1986 Mythologizing in South Asian Traditions Diana Dimitrova, 2025-04-11 This book deals with the issue of mythologizing in South Asian traditions It brings together a number of essays dealing with the interface between mythology gender politics and nationalism The common thread that links the chapters is the appropriation and reinterpretation of myth and its weaponizing for the purpose of power or political gain All chapters explore the various aspects of the ongoing process of re mythologizing of the present as revealed in South Asian traditions The essays in this collection respond to the same question how to interpret the present What is the meaning of ancient and venerated myths today What are the ideological implications of the interpretation of myths and how do they reflect and influence the power structures of contemporary societies in South Asia Asian American Psychology Nita Tewari, Alvin Alvarez, 2009 First Published in 2009 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company South Asian Sufis Clinton Bennett, Charles M. Ramsey, 2012-03-01 In depth ethnographical study of contemporary Sufi orders in Iran Pakistan India and Bangladesh as well as in the UK and US The Modern Spirit of Asia Peter van der Veer, 2013-10-27 A comparative look at religion and spirituality in postcolonial China and India The Modern Spirit of Asia challenges the notion that modernity in China and India are derivative imitations of the West arguing that these societies have transformed their ancient traditions in unique and distinctive ways Peter van der Veer begins with nineteenth century imperial history exploring how Western concepts of spirituality secularity religion and magic were used to translate the traditions of India and China He traces how modern Western notions of religion and magic were incorporated into the respective nation building projects of Chinese and Indian nationalist intellectuals yet how modernity in China and India is by no means uniform While religion is a centerpiece of Indian nationalism it is viewed in China as an obstacle to progress that must be marginalized and controlled The Modern Spirit of Asia moves deftly from Kandinsky's understanding of spirituality in art to Indian yoga and Chinese qi gong from modern theories of secularism to histories of Christian conversion from Orientalist constructions of religion to Chinese campaigns against magic and superstition and from Muslim Kashmir to Muslim Xinjiang Van der Veer an outspoken proponent of the importance of comparative studies of religion and society eloquently makes his case in this groundbreaking examination of the spiritual and the secular in China and India

Lukose, 2012-03-05 This collection intervenes in key areas of feminist scholarship and activism in contemporary South Asia particularly India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka while asking how this investigation might enrich feminist theorizing and practice globally Terrorism and Low Intensity Conflict in South Asian Region Omprakash Mishra, Sucheta Ghosh, 2003 Terrorism and low intensity conflicts are not new in South Asia but the September 11 2001 terror attacks on the United States suddenly gave the events a new dimension From regional considerations terrorism acquired global connotation and in this changed perspective South Asian terrorism and low intensity conflicts needed to be explored afresh The geographical region covered by the book includes predominantly the member countries of SAARC Afghanistan and Myanmar as also specific case studies including a few instances of terrorist activities from beyond the region The papers analyse the societal political and economic factors responsible for the rise and salience of terrorism the challenges posed by terrorism and low intensity conflict on peace stability and security of the nation states and people the international regional and national regime against terrorism and perpetrators of mass violence the motives ideologies strategies and activities of various non state armed groups in South Asia and thereby contribute toward meaningful policy options in tackling terrorism and activities of armed groups Counseling Asian Indian Immigrant Families Varughese Jacob, 2017-11-01 This book provides insight into the unique challenges facing Indian and South Asian immigrants in the West particularly in the United States It explores the baggage they carry their expectations versus the realities of negotiating a new cultural social religious and economic milieu nostalgia and idealization of the past and the hybridity of existence Within this context the author discusses factors which often contribute to intergenerational family conflict among this population Jacob asserts that this conflict is largely a product of differences in cultural values and identity acculturation stress and the experience of marginality After analyzing and interpreting empirical data collected from two hundred families he proposes the Praxis Reflection Action PRA Model a five stage therapeutic model and the first pastoral psychotherapeutic model developed for the Asian Indians living in the West Nationbuilding, Gender and War Crimes in South Asia Bina D'Costa, 2012-07-26 This book gives a detailed political analysis of nation building processes and how these are closely linked to statebuilding and to issues of war crime gender and sexuality and marginalization of minority groups With a focus on the Indian subcontinent the author demonstrates how the state itself is involved in the construction of a gendered identity and how control of women and their sexuality is central to the nationbuilding project She applies a critical feminist approach to two major conflicts in the Indian subcontinent the Partition of India in 1947 and the Liberation War of Bangladesh in 1971 and offers suggestions for addressing historical injustices and war crimes in the context of modern Bangladesh Addressing how the social and political elites were able to construct and legitimize a history of the state that ignored these issues the author suggests a critical re examination of the national narrative of the creation of Bangladesh which takes into account the rise of Islamic rights and their alleged involvement in war crimes Looking at the impact that notions of nation state and nationalism have on women from a critical feminist perspective the book will be an important addition to the literature on gender studies international relations and South Asian politics Why Religion and Spirituality Matter for Public Health Doug Oman, 2018-05-08 This volume reviews the exploding religion spirituality R S and health literature from a population health perspective It emphasizes the distinctive Public Health concern for promoting health and preventing disease in societies nations and communities as well as individuals Part I offers a rigorous review of mainstream biomedical and social scientific theory and evidence on R S health relations Addressing key gaps in previous literature it reviews evidence from a population health viewpoint surveying pertinent findings and theories from the perspective of Public Health subfields that range from Environmental Health Sciences to Public Health Nutrition to Health Policy Management and Public Health Education In Part II practitioners describe in detail how attending to R S factors enhances the work of clinicians and community health practitioners R S provides an additional set of concepts and tools to address opportunities and challenges ranging from behavior and institutional change to education policy and advocacy Part III empowers educators analyzing pedagogical needs and offering diverse short chapters by faculty who teach R S health connections in many nationally top ranked Schools of Public Health International and global perspectives are highlighted in a concluding chapter and many places throughout the volume This book addresses a pressing need for Public Health research practice and teaching A substantial evidence base now links religious and spiritual R S factors to health In the past 20 years over 100 systematic reviews and 30 meta analyses on R S health were published in refereed journals But despite this explosion of interest R S factors remain neglected in Public Health teaching and research Public Health lags behind related fields such as medicine psychology and nursing where R S factors receive more attention This book can help Public Health catch up It offers abundant key resources to empower public health professionals instructors and students to address R S serving at once as a course text a field manual and a research handbook South Asia Defence And Strategic Year Book - 2009 General Deepak Kapoor, AVSM PVSM, SM VSM Chief of Army Staff (India), 2009 The third edition of the South Asia Defence and Strategic Year Book offers an analysis of defence economic and social issues that impact regional security in South Asia The wide ranging perspectives give a deep insight into the factors and linkages that impact the emerging international relations of the region with particular emphasis on India which is an economic military and political powerhouse with an expanding footprint in the World South Asia is a region that is rife with geopolitics By virtue of its population and location it is a reflection of the challenges of the interconnected integrated and interdependent world Its security environment is relatively unsettled and is a reason for both hope and despair Its issues which have international as well as regional relevance have their own dynamics and trends that need a deeper understanding The Year Book aims to provide a comprehensive overview of the security environment in the region by focusing on an in depth analysis of military capabilities and strategic imperatives obtaining in the region Apart from outlining the general security environment detailed military balance trends in weapon systems and technology defence industry missile and nuclear capabilities and terrorism issues have been highlighted Growing strategic linkages and independence of nation states make it imperative to consider the region as a whole to incorporate a holistic approach The Year Book also contains studies on China and other Southeast Asian nations to that effect Thus the underlying theme of this publication is to enable understanding through information While the threat of terrorism remains at the forefront of most analyses the move towards popular and democratically elected governments in South Asia has not eclipsed the existing challenges to governance in all the countries of the region Poverty and economic disparities coupled with ethic and social divisions have created political and social fault lines that have been exploited by non state actors with their own agendas Thus we hope to promote peace through understanding by delineating the issues of Time, History and the Religious Imaginary in South Asia Anne Murphy, 2012-03-12 Religious concern in the region imaginary is a way of conceiving and structuring the world within the conceptual and imaginative traditions of the religious Using religious imaginary as a reference this book analyses temporal ideologies and expressions of historicity in South Asia in the early modern pre colonial and early colonial period Chapters explore the multiple understandings of time and the past that informed the historical imagination in various kinds of literary representations including historiographical and literary texts hagiography and religious canonical literature The book addresses the contributing forces and comparative implications of the formation of religious and communitarian sensibilities as expressed through the imagination of the past and suggests how these relate to each other within and across traditions in South Asia By bringing diverse materials together this book presents new commonalities and distinctions that inform a larger understanding of how religion and other cultural formations impinge on the concept of temporality and the representation of it as history Reliving Karbala: Martyrdom in South Asian Memory Syed Akbar Hyder Assistant Professor of Asian Studies and Islamic Studies University of Texas at Austin N.U.S., 2006-03-23 In 680 C E a small band of the Prophet Muhammads family and their followers led by his grandson Husain rose up in a rebellion against the ruling caliph Yazid The family and its supporters hopelessly outnumbered were massacred at Karbala in modern day Iraq The story of Karbala is the cornerstone of institutionalized devotion and mourning for millions of Shii Muslims Apart from its appeal to the Shii community invocations of Karbala have also come to govern mystical and reformist discourses in the larger Muslim world Indeed Karbala even serves as the archetypal resistance and devotional symbol for many non Muslims Until now though little scholarly attention has been given to the widespread and varied employment of the Karbala event In Reliving Karbala Syed Akbar Hyder examines the myriad ways that the Karbala symbol has provided inspiration in South Asia home to the worlds largest Muslim population Rather than a unified reading of Islam Hyder reveals multiple sometimes conflicting understandings of the meaning of Islamic religious symbols like Karbala He ventures beyond traditional scriptural interpretations to discuss the ways in which millions of very human adherents express and practice their beliefs By using a panoramic array of sources including musical performances interviews nationalist drama and other literary forms Hyder traces the evolution of this story from its earliest historical origins to the beginning of the twenty first century Today Karbala serves as a celebration of martyrdom a source of personal and communal identity and even a tool for political protest and struggle Hyder explores how issues related to gender genre popular culture class and migrancy bear on the cultivation of religious symbols He assesses the manner in which religious language and identities are negotiated across contexts and continents At a time when words like martyrdom jihad and Shiism are being used and misused for political reasons this book provides much needed scholarly redress Through his multifaceted examination of this seminal event in Islamic history Hyder offers an original complex and nuanced view of religious symbols

Sanga, 2003-03-30 With the publication of Salman Rushdie's Booker Prize winning novel IMidnight's Children R in 1981 followed by the unprecedented popularity of his subsequent works the cinematic adaptation of Michael Ondaatje's IThe English Patient R many other best sellers written by South Asian novelists writing in English have gained a tremendous following This reference is a guide to their lives and writings The volume focuses on novelists born in South Asia who have written and continue to write about issues concerning that region Some of the novelists have published widely while others are only beginning their literary careers The volume includes alphabetically arranged entries on more than 50 South Asian novelists Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the novelist's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Since many of the contributors are personally acquainted with the novelists they are able to offer significant insights The volume closes with a selected bibliography of studies of the South Asian novel in English along with a list of anthologies and periodicals

Spirit And Struggle In Southern Asia: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of topselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read: Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best: Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic: Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
