Spirit Falls Logging Boom Town:

Spirit Falls Carl Henry Rhody, 1991 Ghost Towns of Muskoka Andrew Hind, Maria Da Silva, 2008-06-16 Ghost Towns of Muskoka explores the tragic history of a collection of communities from across Muskoka whose stars have long since faded Today these ghost towns are merely a shadow or spectre of what they once were Some have disappeared entirely having been swallowed by regenerating forests while others have been reduced to foundations forlorn buildings and silent ruins A few support a handful of inhabitants but even these towns are wrapped in a ghostly shroud But this book isn't only about communities that have died Rather it is about communities that lived vibrantly at that if only for a brief time It's about the people whose dreams for a better life these villages represented the people who lived loved laboured and ultimately died in these small wilderness settlements And it's about an era in history those early heady days of Muskoka settlement when the forests were flooded with loggers and land hungry settlers Ghost Towns & Mining Camps of the Boundary Country Garnet Basque, 1999 Annotation The lost communities that stretch from the Okanagan to West Kootenay come to life with 150 photographs a dozen maps and entertaining text American Lumberman, 1902 Russell Lee: A Photographer's Life and Legacy Mary Jane Appel, 2020-11-17 Russell Lee a contemporary of Walker Evans and Dorothea Lange now emerges from the shadows as one of the most influential documentary photographers in American history The most prolific photographer of the Great Depression Russell Lee has never been canonized for his iconic images With this compulsively readable and definitive biography historian and archivist Mary Jane Appel finally uncovers Lee's rebellious life tracing his journey from blue blood beginnings to intrepid years of activism and pioneering creativity through the incredible body of work he left behind Born in the quintessential turn of the century small town of Ottawa Illinois in 1903 Lee grew up in a wealthy family riddled with tragedy He trained in college to become a chemical engineer but was quickly drawn to Greenwich Village where he developed an interest in social change and the arts In 1935 the charismatic bohemian picked up a camera and a year later walked into the office of Roy Stryker head of the Historical Section of the Resettlement Administration later renamed the Farm Security Administration FSA setting in motion a new life trajectory The Historical Section aimed to capture rural poverty and the New Deal programs designed to abolish it But Stryker imagined a much broader pictorial sourcebook for America and no one on his legendary team including Dorothea Lange Walker Evans and Gordon Parks among others would be more dedicated to reaching this goal than Russell Lee As Appel demonstrates Stryker and Lee developed a fascinating symbiotic relationship that resulted in a massive and complex breadth of work Living out of his car from the fall of 1936 to mid 1942 Lee crisscrossed America's back roads more than any photographer of his era During this time he shot 19 000 negatives that were captioned and printed more than twice that of any other FSA photographer He captured arresting images of sweeping dust storms and devastating floods and chronicled the World War II home front and the last gasp of a small town America that was inexorably vanishing all the while focusing prophetically on issues like segregation and climate change decades before they became national concerns Meticulously weaving previously unseen letters and diaries Appel brilliantly reveals why Lee s profile has remained obscured while his contemporaries became broadly celebrated With more than 100 images spread throughout Russell Lee speaks not only to the complexity of a pioneering documentary photographer s work but to a seminal American moment captured viscerally like never before human ingenuity environmental transformation and the enduring power of nature It is a must read for anyone interested in American history environmental studies or the captivating tales of those who shaped the nation s landscape If you like this book write a review Whole Earth John Markoff,2022-03-22 Told by one of our greatest chroniclers of technology and society the definitive biography of iconic serial visionary Stewart Brand from the Merry Pranksters and the generation defining Whole Earth Catalog to the marriage of environmental consciousness and hacker capitalism and the rise of a new planetary culture the story behind so many other stories Stewart Brand has long been famous if you know who he is but for many people outside the counterculture early computing or the environmental movement he is perhaps best known for his famous mantra Stay Hungry Stay Foolish Steve Jobs s endorsement of these words as his code to live by is fitting Brand has played many roles but one of the most important is as a model for how to live The contradictions are striking A blond haired WASP with a modest family inheritance Brand went to Exeter and Stanford and was an army veteran but in California in the 1960s he became an artist and a photographer in the thick of the LSD revolution While tripping on acid on the roof of his building he envisioned how valuable it would be for humans to see a photograph of the planet they shared from space an image that in the end landed on the cover of his Whole Earth Catalog the defining publication of the counterculture He married a Native American woman and was committed to protecting indigenous culture which connected to a broader environmentalist mission that has been a through line of his life At the same time he has outraged purists because of his pragmatic embrace of useful technologies including nuclear power in the fight against climate change The famous tagline promise of his catalog was Access to Tools with rare exceptions he rejected politics for a focus on direct power It was no wonder then that he was early to the promise of the computer revolution and helped define it for the wider world Brand s life can be hard to fit onto one screen John Markoff also a great chronicler of tech culture has done something extraordinary in unfolding the rich twisting story of Brand s life against its proper landscape As Markoff makes marvelously clear the streams of individualism respect for science environmentalism and Eastern and indigenous thought that flow through Brand s entire life form a powerful gestalt a California state of mind that has a hegemonic power to this day His way of thinking embraces a true planetary consciousness that may be the best hope we humans collectively have

Other Voices, Other Towns Caleb Pirtle

III, 2012-07-10 Other Voices Other Towns has in reality taken Caleb Pirtle III a lifetime to write During the thirty years he has been writing about travel across this great land he spent much of his time listening to those whose paths he crossed Pirtle collects people He collects their stories He is firmly convinced that everyone who has ever walked across the street has a great story to tell if only someone will take the time to listen Pirtle has recorded many of them in Other Voices Other Towns The sketches the anecdotes the tales they tell the memories they have stored their lessons of life make you feel better or make you want to cry Their stories are filled with disappointments and with inspiration The blind man who tends his beehives in the Smoky Mountains and knows that someday I m going to where the mountains are higher and prettier and you don t get bee stung The rancher who bought a whole town because it had a beer joint and he could get a drink any time he was thirsty The woman who built a major university on the strength of a dime The grieving father searching for the best little girl in the world The vagabond who became a great writer because he flunked grammar and could not enroll in college The last man on the mountain the last survivor on an island the last woman strong enough to tame though not civilize the Okefenokee Swamp The teacher who taught history in school by singing the lessons he had written as songs The men who created Lum and Abner The scientist digging for clues to prove a space ship had crashed in the backyard of Aurora Texas The performer who rescued the abandoned remains of a crumbling theater The actor who figured out that a theater ticket was worth a mess of greens or a gallon milk during the Great Depression The old con artist and wildcatter who defied the odds and discovered a great oilfield The politician who had one cause passed it in the legislature and went home because there were no other bills that concerned him The fishermen who stumbled across pearls in a landlocked lake The girl singer who rode in a small RV behind the star until she became the star The sad journey down the trail of broken promises And the greatest worm fiddler of them all For Pirtle other voices in other towns have all been joined together to form the traveler s story
