Spirit Of Australia Religion In Citizenship And National Life:

Spirit of Australia II Philip J. Hughes, Brian Howe, Philip Hughes, 2003 The second volume of essays to mark the centenary of federation in Australia and examines the issue of religion in society and culture Spirit of Australia Brian Howe, Alan Nichols, 2001 At the time of Federation Australia was seen as a country of some substance despite all the contradictions reflected in its history It was country that was willing to experiment with innovative legislation and social programs and to promote egalitarian values It was a country that embraced liberal values but they were not lacking in social content While the influence of religion may have been subtle it was nevertheless real As Australia celebrates its Centennial this book reflects on the role of religion in Australian national life and citizenship while documenting that history and looking to the future International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world Australian Citizenship Brian Galligan, Winsome Roberts, 2004 Australians have much to celebrate in the hundred years of their citizenship but also a good deal to be ashamed of The authors argue that good citizenship depends on moral citizens able to discern between what is worthy of respect and pride and what is shameful in national life Galligan and Roberts from Uni of Melbourne The Bible and the Business of Life Simon Carey Holt, Gordon R. Preece, 2004 The Bible and the Business of Life is an anthology of essays by a variety of authors celebrating the 65th birthday of Robert Banks Robert Banks was an Baptist who worked and taught in the USA in Pasadena and in Melbourne Charting the Faith of Australians Philip Hughes, 2016-05 The last 50 years have seen more rapid change than at any time in human history Changes in technology have changed every aspect of life from contraception to computation from communication to community formation These changes have affected the ways in which Australians have sought meaning in their lives from the fulfilment of duty to the maximisation of subjective wellbeing They have affected deeply the role that religion has played in life with the focus moving from the preservation of tradition to personal spirituality Over the past 30 years the Christian

Research Association has charted these changes It has done so through the examination of census and survey data and through interviews with thousands of individuals It has examined these changes in youth culture and rural culture and has explored the impact of migration and the rise of the Pentecostal and charismatic movements It has suggested ways in which churches and schools might respond to these changes Part 1 of this book tells the story of these changes and how the Christian Research Association has charted them Part 2 contains contributions from various researchers discussing how the Christian Research Association has served the churches Part 3 explores some extensions of and parallels to the work of the Christian Research Association in relation to religious institutions migration and other research The story told in this book is a personal story for Dr Philip Hughes the senior research officer of the Christian Research Association from 1985 to 2016 But it is also a story of global significance as Christian and other religious institutions grapple with changes to their place in society and their roles in changing perceptions of life

Wisdom for Life Michael Andrew Kelly, Mark A. O'Brien, 2005 This volume draws on scholars from a variety of theological disciplines scripture history systematic theology The essays are designed to encourage readers to become more critically reflective as they engage with biblical texts and contemporary concerns

Hate Speech and Freedom of Speech in Australia Katharine Gelber, Adrienne Sarah Ackary Stone, 2007 Hate speech laws have existed in various forms in Australia for well over a decade Unlike other countries such as the United States and Canada they have not faced constitutional hurdles to their existence The general acceptance of hate speech laws in Australia opens intellectual space for the exploration of a range of interesting questions regarding the laws operation the underlying values they pursue and the context within which hate speech is occurring How should the regulation of hate speech be balanced against Australia's political and cultural commitment to freedom of speech Who are the hate speakers and how does their speech manifest What types of hate speech are targeted by existing laws How are these laws enforced How can the laws be changed to improve governments response to hate speech How does the emergence of bills of rights affect the regulation of hate speech Drawing on a broad range of academic and practical experts this book addresses these questions The essays in first part of this book outline the landscape within which hate speech regulation occurs They include consideration of the legal policy and historical context for vilification the ways in which the language of hatred is changing and a new look at the longstanding debate about the tension between freedom of speech and hate speech as a conflict between liberty and equality In part two the book considers the practice of hate speech regulation in a variety of Australian institutions and includes practical perspectives from the legal profession In the final part the essays consider hate speech regulation within a broader human rights framework taking into account the emergence of bills of rights in Australian states

Christianity, Modernity and Culture John Stenhouse, G. A. Wood, 2005 For much of the twentieth century New Zealand historians like most Western scholars largely took it for granted that as modernity waxed religion would wane Secularization the fading into insignificance of religion would distinguish the modern era from previous ages Until the 1980s only a handful of scholars around the world raised serious empirical and theoretical questions about a Grand Theory that had become central to the self understanding of the social sciences and of the modern world Heated debates since then and the unmistakable resurgence of world religions have raised fundamental questions about the empirical and theoretical adequacy of secularization theory and especially about how far it applies outside Europe This volume revisits New Zealand history when secularization is no longer taken for granted as the Only Big Story that illuminates the country s social and cultural history Contributors explore how New Zealanders diverse religious and spiritual traditions have shaped practical everyday concerns in politics racial and ethnic relations science the environment family life gender relations and other domains

Faith and Freedom David Neville, Philip Matthews, 2003 Australian Christians like Christians in many societies live in a pluralistic culture This makes the issues of faith freedom and their interrelationship all the more critical In a pluralist context Christian faith and freedom must be expressed and embodied in a coherent rather than discordant way The authors of these reflections on key ethical concerns represent the Anabaptist Anglican Baptist Lutheran Methodist Presbyterian Roman Catholic and Uniting Church traditions yet there is a harmony within this plurality of theological and ecclesiological voices Contributors include John Howard Yoder Charles Birch Stanley Hauerwas and Thorwald Lorenzen Church and Civil Society Sue Leppert, Francis Sullivan, 2004 This collection of essays examines the relationship between theology church state politics and civil society Australia's Secular Foundations Malcolm Wood, 2016-09-23 Explaining how Australia s secular society derives from its colonial past this book examines the environmental and social context that encouraged godlessness including the convict system the bush materialism and cultural development religious practice and sectarianism the state s policy of denominational even handedness to ensure social harmony the challenges to faith that science and critical biblical scholarship posed and churchmen s attempts to foist a moral code on society and their ambivalent attitudes to society s poor and distressed The Future of Christianity John Stenhouse, Brett Knowles, Antony Wood, 2004 This book written by a group of New Zealand scholars theologians historians and lawyers examines the question of New Zealand s Western culture and Christianity The contributors explore recent debates over secularisation exploring its merits and explanatory power while also showing its limitations Social Justice and the Churches John D'Arcy May, 2014-12-31 Social justice is not just a matter of applying well known first principles shared by all Christian traditions As these papers by representatives of seven Australian Churches show Christian approaches to social justice are strikingly distinctive both in their starting points and in the positions arrived at on urgent matters of human rights sexual ethics and economic justice Led off by the well known Jesuit human rights advocate Professor Frank Brennan the book includes contributions by Fr Max Vodola Roman Catholic Revd Gerard Rose Churches of Christ Revd Geoff Pound Baptist Revd Raymond Cleary Anglican Mark Zirnsak Uniting Church Major Jenny Begent Salvation Army and Fr Shenouda Boutros Coptic Orthodox Church with concluding reflections by Margaret Coffey ABC Radio National This book is the work of the Yarra Institute for Religion and Social Policy an independent ecumenical organisation promoting scholarship and research on Christian social traditions as they bear on current concerns Launched in 2009 by Professor Brian Howe the Yarra Institute is committed to engaging with our broader culture collaboratively to promote human wellbeing The authors of these chapters come from seven of the Christian traditions which have theological Colleges comprising the University of Divinity in Melbourne From Woolloomooloo to 'Eternity': A History of Australian Baptists Ken R. Manley, 2006-06-01 This pioneering study describes the quest of Baptists in the different colonies later states to develop their identity as Australians and Baptists The first comprehensive history of Baptists in Australia with a national focus the Baptist story is traced from their beginnings in 1831 with the first baptisms in Woolloomooloo Bay Sydney in 1832 down to modern times Changes and continuities achievements and failures are carefully analyzed and related to the wider social political and cultural context The first volume covers the period from 1831 until the outbreak of the First World War in 1914 and shows how a strong sense of becoming an Australian Church shaped much of their development from the various types of British Baptists who began the movement in the new nation What it meant to be an Australian Baptist is described using denominational newspapers church records and personal memoirs God Down Under Winifred Wing Han Lamb, 2003 The papers in this volume of essays arose out of a lively conversation involving theologians religious leaders biblical scholars historians philosophers ethicists youth workers poets and welfare activists in Canberra in 2000 Church and State Thomas R. Frame, 2006 Few Australians realise that the Constitution does not formally separate Church and State Tom Frame argues that some contact between organised religion and government is both inevitable and in some circumstances highly desirable But there are continuing and unnecessary tensions for which Christians are largely responsible This book explores the nature of the tensions and how to deal with them Prophecy and Passion David Neville, 2002 Essays in honour of a baptist activities who lived in the USA and Australia Contributors include biblical scholars theologians and activists Hope Christiaan Mostert, 2004 Our age is not one of great hope war and terror continue unabated Despair lies hidden just below the preoccupations of daily life and is starkly visible at many points in today's world Directly or indirectly the contributors to this volume seek to challenge the culture of despair These authors theologians and leaders write about hope its ground its shape in the Bible and its expression in Christian life and worship mission and ministry The book challenges the church as much as the culture Do Christians know the ground of their hope Is the church the bearer of hope Does its worship sustain hope The contributors include biblical scholars historians systematic and pastoral theologians International Handbook of Protestant Education William Jeynes, David W. Robinson, 2012-01-11 Since their earliest days institutions providing a Protestant education have always been respected and sought after for their rigor and relative freedom from dogma and despite today's secularism and plurality they remain so This international handbook is the ultimate companion to protestant schooling worldwide Its 39 chapters form the most comprehensive and wide ranging treatment of the subject yet available addressing Protestant education on all six inhabited continents and featuring the perspectives of leading authorities and public figures The contributions cover in detail not only the facts and features of Protestant schooling in sundry nations but also integrate a range of themes common to them all themes so vital that they are of central concern to Christians around the world and of whatever denomination Some of these topics are school choice globalization Bible pedagogy and character education the fine arts parental involvement and the rise of Christianity in previously inaccessible locations such as China The handbook s stellar list of authors is a Who s Who of authorities on the subject and includes a renowned American evangelical a former historian of the US House of Representatives and White House consultants responsible for framing legislation The many contributors from outside the USA are leading academics conducting seminal research on numerous topics in the field Both exhaustive and authoritative The International Handbook of Protestant Education will be an invaluable asset to educators ministers parents policy makers political leaders of any denomination or none
