United Asia ,1948 Monthly List ,1934 Afro-Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean Debbie Lee-DiStefano,Luisa Marcela Ossa,2018-11-27 Afro Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean explores the connections between people of Asian and African descent in Latin America and the Caribbean Although their journeys started from different points of origin spanning two separate oceans their point of contact in this hemisphere brought them together under a hegemonic system that would treat these seemingly disparate continental ancestries as one Historically an overwhelming majority of people of African and Asian descent were brought to the Americas as sources of labor to uphold the plantation agrarian economies leading to complex relationships and interactions The contributions to this collection examine various aspects of these connections The authors bring to the forefront perspectives regarding history literature art and religion and engage how they are manifested in these Afro Asian relationships and interactions They investigate what has received little academic engagement outside the acknowledgement that there are groups who are of African and Asian descent In regard to their relationships with the dominant Europeanized center references to both groups typically only view them as singular entities What this interdisciplinary collection presents is a more cohesive approach that strives to place them at the center together and view their relationships in their historical contexts The Forms of Cathay Josephine Nock-Hee Park,2003 The Asian review ,1920 Routledge Handbook of Asian Theatre Siyuan Liu,2016-02-05

The Creation of Wing Chun Benjamin N. Judkins,Jon Nielson,2015-07-16 This book explores the social history of southern Chinese martial arts and their contemporary importance to local identity and narratives of resistance Hong Kong s Bruce Lee ushered the Chinese martial arts onto an international stage in the 1970s Lee s teacher Ip Man master of Wing Chun Kung Fu has recently emerged as a highly visible symbol of southern Chinese identity and pride Benjamin N Judkins and Jon Nielson examine the emergence of Wing Chun to reveal how this body of social practices developed and why individuals continue to turn to the martial arts as they navigate the challenges of a rapidly evolving environment After surveying the development of hand combat traditions in Guangdong Province from roughly the start of the nineteenth century until 1949 the authors turn to Wing Chun noting its development the changing social attitudes towards this practice over time and its ultimate emergence as a global art form Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven,2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910 40 in Cuba 1959 89 and in Nicaragua 1979 90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement s artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution s attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System).
