Spirit of Place John Arthur, 1989-01-01 Over 80 artists are represented including Wolf Kahn Expressions of Place John R. Kemp, 2016-09-27 Expressions of Place embarks on a journey across the rural and urban landscapes of Louisiana via the talents of thirty seven artists located all around the state Many are acclaimed professionals whose paintings are included in major private and public collections regionally and nationally Others have found their followings closer to home All however strive to express impressions of the land with artistic styles that range from traditional to the symbolic and almost totally abstract Such a variety of interpretation becomes possible in a landscape that changes from dark cypress shrouded bayous trembling earth grassy prairies the gritty streets of inner city New Orleans to vast wind swept coastal marshes and the piney hills of north and central Louisiana Rather than stand as an encyclopedia catalog or history of the visual arts in Louisiana Kemp s book is instead a celebration of the state s evocative landscape in the work of accomplished contemporary artists It includes an introductory essay which places these creators and their works in historical context Expressions of Place provides readers with individual essays and biographical sketches in which the artists in their own words give insight as to what they paint how they paint where they paint and why they are drawn to the Louisiana landscape Particularly inspiring the artists discuss their interpretations of that landscape directly with the viewing audience Expressions of Place remains as much about the landscape of the artists imaginations as it is about the land itself With each painting they have created visual poetry of a land and environment that has become a defining part of their lives Joseph E. Yoakum Mark Pascale, Esther Adler (Curator), Édouard Kopp, 2021-01-01 The extraordinary life of a captivating American artist beautifully illustrated with his dreamlike drawings Much of Joseph Elmer Yoakum s story comes from the artist himself and is almost too fantastic to believe At a young age Yoakum 1891 1972 traveled the globe with numerous circuses he later served in a segregated noncombat regiment during World War I before settling in Chicago There inspired by a dream he began his artistic career at age seventy one producing some two thousand drawings over a decade How did Yoakum gain representation in major museum collections in Chicago and New York What fueled his process which he described as a spiritual unfoldment This volume delves into the friendships Yoakum forged with the Chicago Imagists that secured his place in art history explores the religious outlook that may have helped him cope with a racially fractured city and examines his complicated relationship to African American and Native American identities With hundreds of beautiful color reproductions of his dreamlike drawings it offers the most comprehensive study of the artist s work illuminating his vivid and imaginative creativity and giving definition and dimension to his remarkable biography Edwin Dickinson Douglas Dreishpoon, Edwin Walter Dickinson, Francis V. O'Connor, Mary Ellen Abell, 2002 This work surveys Edwin Dickinson s life and career both of which revolved around Cape Cod Buffalo and New York s Finger Lakes region It covers the artist s influential career as a teacher and analyzes Dickinson s self portraits and major symbolic paintings Shaped by the West Wind Claire Elizabeth

Campbell,2005 Claire Campbell draws from recent work in cultural history landscape studies in geography and art history and environmental history to explore what happens when external agendas confront local realities a story central to the Canadian experience Explorers fishers artists and park planners all were forced to respond to the unique contours of this inland sea their encounters defined a regional identity even as they constructed a popular image for the Bay in the national imagination Jacket Nell Blaine Martica Sawin,1998 This volume presents the art and life of Nell Blaine a member of the second generation of the New York School Her work represents a dialogue between abstract principles and her sensory responses to the visible world Her oils and watercolours of gardens landscapes and flower still lifes display her commitment to the pleasure principle her delight in vision combined with a gift for improvisation and rhythm learned from the jazz greats of the 1940s Traveling the Rainbow Derrel B. the newly organized Denver Artists Guild held its inaugural exhibition in downtown Denver Little did the participants realize that their initial effort would survive the Great Depression and World War II and then outlive all of the group's fifty-two charter members The guild's founders worked in many media and pursued a variety of styles In addition to the oils and watercolors one would expect were masterful pastels by Elsie Haddon Haynes photographs by Laura Gilpin sculpture by Gladys Caldwell Fisher and Arnold R. Rnebeck ceramics by Anne Van Briggie Ritter and Paul St. Gaudens and collages by Pansy Stockton Styles included realism impressionism regionalism surrealism and abstraction Murals by Allen True Vance Kirkland John E. Thompson Louise Ronnebeck and others graced public and private buildings secular and religious in Colorado and throughout the United States The guild's artists didn't just contribute to the fine and decorative arts of Colorado they enhanced the national reputation of the state Then in 1948 the Denver Artists Guild became the stage for a great public debate pitting traditional against modern The twenty-year-old guild split apart as modernists bolted to form their own group the Fifteen Colorado Artists It was a seminal moment some of guild's artists became great modernists while others remained great traditionalists Enhanced by period photographs and reproductions of the founding members' works The Denver Artists Guild chronicles a vibrant yet overlooked chapter of Colorado's cultural history The book includes a walking tour of guild members' paintings and sculptures viewable in Denver and elsewhere in Colorado by Leah Naess and author Stan Cuba The Majesty of the Grand Canyon Joni Kinsey, 2004 Little was known about America's most famous natural wonder until 1869 when John Wesley Powell traveled the full length of the Grand Canyon by boat He returned each year in 1873 he introduced it to artist Thomas Moran whose brazenly colored grand-scale portrayals of the canyon stunned the public In 1908 Moran's work prompted President Theodore Roosevelt to declare the Grand Canyon a national monument by 1919 Congress had established Grand Canyon National Park As the Santa Fe Railway opened up the Southwest in 1892 the company began hiring artists to paint scenes of the Grand Canyon including Moran W. R. Leigh and Louis Akin Today artists are still capturing the splendor of the Grand Canyon Ed Mell Clark Hulings Wilson Hurley Frank Mason P. A. Nisbet Bruce Aiken and Earl Carpenter are among the contemporary artists represented in The Majesty of the Grand Canyon
