A Sense of Place Robin Laurence, 2015-09-19 A spectacular overview of one of the most highly acclaimed art collections on the West Coast which greets travelers at Vancouver International Airport YVR as they journey between land sea and sky The airport which is known for its modern design and expansive topography offers an impressive visual display of award winning art and architecture Each terminal building represents the culture heritage natural beauty and iconic experiences that embody British Columbia and the artwork exhibited throughout plays an integral role in telling those stories Revered in particular for its focus on Pacific Coast Native art the collection is presented in the thematic groupings of land sea and sky three realms that intersect at YVR In A Sense of Place art historian and critic Robin Laurence will examine the commissioning of dozens of striking artworks as a response to the airport s overall architectural and design plan and particularly as a reflection of the cultural heritage and natural environment identified with the province of British Columbia Among the highlights of the collection are monumental sculptures by leading Northwest Coast First Nations artists including Susan A Point Coast Salish Robert Davidson Haida Dempsey Bob Tahltan Tlingit Richard Hunt Kwakwaka wakw Lyle Wilson Haisla Joe David Nuuchah nulth Connie Watts Nuuchah nulth Kwakwaka wakw and Gitksan and the late Bill Reid famed for The Spirit of Haida Gwaii The Jade Canoe Their art both welcomes and bids farewell to the millions of travellers who make their way through YVR each year

Bill Reid Maria Tippet, 2003 Part biography part art history a thoroughly engaging look at one man s life and his phenomenal influence on the world of contemporary art Bill Reid was at the forefront of the modern day renaissance of Northwest Coast Native art but his art and his life was not without controversy Like the raven the trickster and principal figure in countless Haida myths Bill Reid reinvented himself several times over Born to a partly Haida mother and a father of German and Scottish descent his public persona as a Haida Indian seems to have been as much a product of journalists art patrons museum curators and others in the non Native establishment as of Bill Reid himself It is clear that Reid s art arose from the tension that existed between his Native and white artistic perceptions Award winning biographer and cultural historian Maria Tippet became intrigued by this enigmatic figure who referred to his own early works as artefakes yet to this day continues to inspire new generations of Northwest Coast artists including Robert Davidson and Jim Hart But she questions whether Reid s status as the architect of contemporary Native art is fair and accurate given that artists such as Mungo Martin had been keeping the tradition alive since the beginning of the twentieth century Most controversially she explores how Reid brought a sensibility formed through his white heritage to the reinvention of Native art By asking difficult questions about Reid s life and work and by analyzing the works of other Native artists since the beginning of the twentieth century Tippet gives the reader the defining portrait of Bill Reid one of Canada s most enigmatic and beloved artists Bill Reid's work can be found in private and public art galleries and museums all over the world. The Museum of Anthropology at the University of British Columbia houses the famous The Raven and The First Men and many smaller masterworks. The Spirit of Haida Gwaii, a monumental bronze sculpture over four metres high, is on display at the Canadian Embassy in Washington D.C. The British Museum, the Musée de l'Homme in Paris, and the Canadian Museum of Civilization in Ottawa also hold impressive examples of the work of this extraordinary and imaginative artist.

Eco-Deconstruction Philippe Lynes, David Wood, 2018-03-27 Eco-Deconstruction marks a new approach to the degradation of the natural environment including habitat loss, species extinction, and climate change. While the work of French philosopher Jacques Derrida (1930-2004) with its relentless interrogation of the anthropocentric metaphysics of presence has already proven highly influential in posthumanism and animal studies, the present volume drawing on published and unpublished work by Derrida and others builds on these insights to address the most pressing environmental issues of our time. The volume brings together fifteen prominent scholars from a wide variety of related fields including eco-phenomenology, eco-hermeneutics, new materialism, posthumanism, animal studies, vegetal philosophy, science and technology studies, environmental humanities, eco-criticism, earth art and aesthetics, and analytic environmental ethics. Overall, eco-deconstruction offers an account of differential relationality explored in a non-totalizable ecological context that addresses our times in both an ontological and a normative register. The book is divided into four sections. Diagnosing the Present suggests that our times are marked by a facile, flattened-out understanding of time and thus in need of deconstructive dispositions. Ecologies mobilizes the spectral ontology of deconstruction to argue for an originary environmentality, the constitutive ecological embeddedness of mortal life. Nuclear and Other Biodegradabilities examines remains including such by-products and disintegrations of human culture as nuclear waste, environmental destruction, and species extinctions. Environmental Ethics seeks to uncover a demand for justice including human responsibility for suffering beings that emerges precisely as a response to original differentiation and the mortality and unmasterable alterity it installs in living beings. As such, the book will resonate with readers not only of philosophy but across the humanities and the social and natural sciences.

Bill Reid and Beyond Karen Duffek, Charlotte Townsend-Gault, 2008-09-01 A fresh perspective from Haida leaders, art and cultural historians, anthropologists, and artists on the lasting legacy of the famed Haida artist Bill Reid.

James Tully
Alexander Livingston, 2022-05-30
James Tully's scholarship has profoundly transformed the study of political thought by reconstructing the practice of political theory as a democratising and diversifying dialogue between scholars and citizens
Across his writings on topics ranging from the historical origins of property constitutionalism in diverse societies imperialism and globalisation and global citizenship in an era of climate crisis Tully has developed a participatory mode of political theorising and political change called public philosophy
This practice oriented approach to political thought and its active role in the struggles of citizens has posed fundamental challenges to modern political thought and launched new lines of inquiry in the study of constitutionalism democracy and citizenship settler colonialism comparative political theory nonviolence and ecological sustainability
James Tully
To Think and Act Differently collects classic contemporary and previously unpublished writings from across Tully's four decades of scholarship to shed new light on these dialogues of reciprocal elucidation with citizens scholars and the history of political thought and the ways Tully has enlarged our understanding of democracy diversity and the task of political theory

The Tapestry of Culture
Maxine

Weisgrau, Abraham Rosman, Paula G. Rubel, 2023-07-10
When we think about society and culture often we think of our own culture the culture in which we were raised or currently live as the default
The eleventh edition of The Tapestry of Culture uses anthropological tools to translate the concepts ideas and behaviors of other cultures into language recognizable by today's students
The book's comparative approach balances the history of ethnography fieldwork and anthropological with today's globalized world including the impact of climate change social movements social media and technology global health issues and shifting political landscapes
New to the Eleventh Edition
New Chapter 12 Global Health and Wellness examines the historical political and cultural issues that shape disease and health including inequalities in access to physical and mental health services the delivery of health care services and health intervention strategies
New Chapter 11 Spaces and Places of Creative Expression explores how social media and internet technologies play a major role in how contemporary audiences view and understand creativity including music dance theater film painting and other performance styles
Expanded discussion of the cultural construction of gender and sexuality as well as LGBTQ issues in activism explores gender and sexuality through queer studies and in postcolonial settings
Chapter 7 New discussion of critical race theory highlights its contributions to analyzing multiple forms of racism and discrimination while providing an exploration of the challenges of multiculturalism in contexts of nationality ethnicity and political representation Chapter 14 New discussions of environmental anthropology political ecology climate change inequality social movements globalization and transnationalism highlight these contemporary issues as subjects of anthropological inquiry Chapter 1 The Great Canadian Bucket List — Ontario Robin Esrock, 2014-03-27 On his personal quest to check off the best of his home country travel writer and host Robin Esrock catalogues must sees including nature food culture history adrenaline rushes and quirky Canadiana After spending years crafting the definitive Canadian Bucket List he's packed in enough for a lifetime at least In this special excerpt Esrock takes us to the great variety of Ontario from Canada's largest city to the nation's capital to the beauty of the province's vast wilderness in search of great experiences such as leaning off the CN Tower skywalk getting sprayed in Niagara Falls visiting the great museums of Ottawa and motorbiking around Lake Superior Bill Reid Doris Shadbolt, 1998 When Bill Reid one of North America's great artists died on March 13 1998 he left behind a legacy of magnificent art that drew deeply on that of his Haida ancestors His work continues to be exhibited internationally and is in many private and public collections around the world This book celebrating the artist and his work was first published in 1986 For the updated edition Doris Shadbolt has written a new chapter covering Reid's last years from 1987 to 1998 including his masterwork the great bronze sculpture titled The Spirit of Haida Gwaii as well as the moving details of his ceremonial Haida burial on Haida Gwaii In a long career Reid embraced many art forms driven always by a passion for the well made well crafted object This impulse combined with his gradual rediscovery and rekindling of a rich Haida cultural heritage informed and inspired his development as a visual artist of tremendous power and brilliant accomplishment The Great Central Canada Bucket List Robin Esrock, 2015-02-21 Most Canadians think of travel as a way to escape the snow cold and dreary winter skies But Robin Esrock loves all that the provinces of Ontario and Quebec have to offer visitors and so will you The Great Central Canada Bucket List highlights the best travel experiences to be had in the heart of Canada Renowned travel writer and TV host Robin Esrock explored every inch of central Canada to craft the definitive Bucket List for the region Running the gamut of nature food culture history adrenaline rushes and quirky Canadiana Robin's personal quest to tick off the very best of Ontario and Quebec packs in enough for a lifetime The Great Central Canada Bucket List provides a first hand perspective on Riding a motorcycle around Lake Superior Drinking caribou with Bonhomme Unravelling a mystery in Algonquin Park Spending the night at an ice hotel Scaling the via ferrata at Mont Tremblant Exploring the great museums Cave swimming in the Magdalen Islands Wittgenstein and the Study of Politics Michael Temelini, 2015-03-27 In Wittgenstein and the Study of Politics Michael Temelini outlines an innovative new approach to understanding the political implications of Wittgenstein's philosophy Most political philosophers who have approached Wittgenstein have done so through the idea of therapeutic skepticism implying politics that privilege conservatism or non interference Temelini interprets Wittgenstein differently emphasizing his view that we come to understand the meanings of words and actions through a dialogue of comparison with other cases Examining the work of Charles Taylor Quentin Skinner and James Tully Temelini highlights the ways in which all three despite their differences share a common debt to that dialogical approach A cogent explanation of how Wittgenstein s epistemology and ontology can shed light on political issues and offer a solution to political challenges Wittgenstein and the Study of Politics highlights the importance of Wittgensteinian thinking in contemporary political science political theory and political philosophy Solitary Raven William Reid,Robert Bringhurst,2000 In this book are thirty pieces of Reid s writing spanning forty years of active life The contents include his lyrical masterpiece Out of Silence his early accounts of expeditions to salvage precious artworks from empty Haida villages a lecture demonstration on the grammar of classical Haida painting and sculpture revealing accounts of his own development his playful Killer Whale Poem meditations on the masterworks of his predecessors and passionate statements from his late years on art and social issues Jacket Vancouver Constance Brissenden,2006 Vancouver is Canada s gateway to the Pacific and it attracts millions of visitors each year See what draws them in with this insider s look at the city s most awe inspiring sights and fascinating history Written by an award winning author and journalist who specializes in the Pacific Northwest and lushly illustrated with Elan Penn s gorgeous photos it showcases both well preserved Victorian landmarks and modern views Visit the welcoming vistas and parks including the grand 1 000 acre Stanley Park the galleries and museums such as the Museum of Anthropology with more than 6 000 First Nation objects on display and dazzling architectural and natural wonders including the old growth forests that surround the city Every page reveals a new and spectacular treasure The Christie Harris Papers University of Calgary.
