Spirit Of Jewish Thought:

The Spirit of Jewish Thought Bernard Evslin, 1969 The Spirit of God in Jewish Thought Norman Henry SNAITH, 1937

The Holy Spirit in Thought and Experience Thomas Rees, 1915 Heidegger with Derrida Dror Pimentel, 2019-01-09

Heidegger with Derrida Being Written attempts for the first time to think Heidegger's philosophy through the lens of Derrida's logocentric thesis according to which speech has throughout the history of metaphysics been given primacy over writing. The book offers a detailed account of Derrida's arguments about the debasement of writing an account that leads to a new definition of writing conceiving it epistemically rather than linguistically. Heidegger's analysis of the gaze and critique of the modern subject are shown to have logocentric features. This surprising conclusion entails that Heidegger is well within the metaphysical tradition which he labored so intently to overcome. The book sheds new light on the philosophical roots of Heidegger's involvement with Nazism arguing that his hierarchical thinking the hallmark of logocentrism and metaphysics condones violent differentiation between the proper race and the Other.

To Live in the Spirit Nélide Naveros Córdova, CDP, 2018-11-29. To Live in the Spirit Paul and the Spirit of God brings to light a fresh understanding of the Greek concept spirit in Paul's ethical teaching. Placing Paul and his mixed audience within the Hellenistic Jewish and Greek philosophical traditions of the ancient world, this book examines his new message concerning its primary function in the acquisition of virtues and avoidance of vices. Looking in detail at the various ways in which Paul views in his seven undisputed letters, Naveros Córdova explores its development from Paul's initial ethical reflections in his early letters to a more mature view in his later letters. Naveros Córdova argues that it is within these traditions represented by major Hellenistic Jewish and Greco-Roman writers that Paul construes the framework of his ethical teaching. Paul finds in the power of God's a new ethical alternative for his mixed audience to living lives pleasing to God outside the observance of the Mosaic Law. Naveros Córdova demonstrates how Paul draws upon Platonic immaterial and Stoic material language that would have been familiar to his hearers in the early Christian communities to create a persuasive understanding of ethical performance and to show that the moral life of the believers springs from that received from God In his efforts to highlight s central role in his ethics Paul moves beyond both traditions by describing the Christification of not only in Stoic terms but also in Middle Platonic categories of the first century CE
