Hazlitt The Spirit of the Age full title The Spirit of the Age Or Contemporary Portraits is a collection of character sketches by the early 19th century English essayist literary critic and social commentator William Hazlitt portraying 25 men mostly British whom he believed to represent significant trends in the thought literature and politics of his time The subjects include thinkers social reformers politicians poets essayists and novelists many of whom Hazlitt was personally acquainted with or had encountered Originally appearing in English periodicals mostly The New Monthly Magazine in 1824 the essays were collected with several others written for the purpose and published in book form in 1825 The Spirit of the Age was one of Hazlitt's most successful books It is frequently judged to be his masterpiece even the crowning ornament of Hazlitt's career and one of the lasting glories of nineteenth century criticism Hazlitt was also a painter and an art critic yet no artists number among the subjects of these essays His artistic and critical sensibility however infused his prose style Hazlitt was later judged to be one of the greatest of English prose stylists as well enabling his appreciation of portrait painting to help him bring his subjects to life His experience as a literary political and social critic contributed to Hazlitt's solid understanding of his subjects achievements and his judgements of his contemporaries were later often deemed to have held good after nearly two centuries The Spirit of the Age despite its essays uneven quality has been generally agreed to provide a vivid panorama of the age Yet missing an introductory or concluding chapter and with few explicit references to any themes it was for long also judged as lacking in coherence and hastily thrown together More recently critics have found in it a unity of design with the themes emerging gradually by implication in the course of the essays and even supported by their grouping and presentation

The Spirit of the Age William Hazlitt, 2015-07-10 Excerpt from The Spirit of the Age Or Contemporary Portraits Mr Bentham is one of those persons who verify the old adage that A prophet has most honour out of his own country His reputation lies at the circumference and the lights of his understanding are reflected with increasing lustre on the other side of the globe His name is little known in England better in Europe best of all in the plains of Chili and the mines of Mexico He has offered constitutions for the New World and legislated for future times The people of Westminster where he lives hardly dream of such a person but the Siberian savage has received cold comfort from his lunar aspect and may say to him with Caliban I know thee and thy dog and thy bush The tawny Indian may hold out the hand of fellowship to him across the Great Pacific We believe that the Empress Catherine corresponded with him and we know that the Emperor Alexander called upon him and presented him with his miniature in a gold snuff box which the philosopher to his eternal honour returned Mr Hobhouse is a greater man at the hustings Lord Rolle at Plymouth Dock but Mr Bentham would carry it hollow on the score of popularity at Paris or Pegu The reason is that our author's influence is purely intellectual About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
