Spiritfilled Christian:

Introduction to Biblical Interpretation (Foundations for Spirit-Filled Christianity) Jacqueline Grey, Paul W.

Lewis, 2024-09-24 This introduction to biblical interpretation expands the interpretive task to encompass both comprehension of the Bible's content and active participation in God's redemptive plan. The authors help readers engage with the beauty of God's Word and read it holistically for their intellectual and spiritual growth. They address the nature of interpretation, emphasize the Holy Spirit's role in the production, interpretation, and application of the Bible as a communication of the triune God, and explore the Bible's genres and historical contexts through the lens of God's redemptive story. They also provide principles and accessible guidelines for biblical interpretation in global contexts, including a simple outline for beginning students to follow as they start interpreting and applying Scripture. Above all, the authors emphasize the transformative nature of reading Scripture. This series reflects the changing face of global Christianity. Series volumes highlight themes of interest to Pentecostal Charismatic students; however, the books are respectful and inclusive of a variety of church traditions. Series editors are Jerry Ireland, Paul W. Lewis, and Frank D. Macchia.

Introduction to Theology (Foundations for Spirit-Filled Christianity) Frank D. Macchia, 2023-06-20 This systematic theology textbook introduces students to the complexity and beauty of theology as a pursuit of the global church today. It views theology as an ongoing conversation with many voices about the wonders of God that is faithful to Scripture but is also attentive to the wisdom of tradition and the relevance of context. The book first summarizes the nature and necessity of theological thinking and discusses theological method. Chapters then unfold in creedal order through the various regions of Christian teaching with units on revelation, God, creation, and providence; Christology; pneumatology; ecclesiology; anthropology; soteriology; and eschatology. This book is part of a new series that reflects the changing face of global Christianity. Series volumes are written by leading Pentecostal Charismatic scholars who highlight themes of interest to Pentecostal Charismatic students; however, the books are respectful, appreciative, and inclusive of a variety of church families and traditions. Series editors are Jerry Ireland, Paul W. Lewis, and Frank D. Macchia.

In The Heavenlies H.A. Ironside, 2014-09-05 There is nothing redundant in God's Word. Men write books and very frequently pad them in order to give quantity as well as quality, but there is nothing like that in the Bible. God's words are tried as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times; and therefore we may well give our most careful attention to every item and every expression used. What is the outstanding theme of the Epistle to the Ephesians? It opens up the truth of the privileges and responsibilities of the church as the body and bride of Christ. It brings before us our position as believers who have been quickened, raised, and seated in Christ in heavenly places There are very remarkable similarities between certain Old Testament books and New Testament Epistles The Epistle to the Romans for instance corresponds to the book of Exodus the letter to the Hebrews is the counterpart of Leviticus and the Epistle to the Ephesians is the New Testament book of Joshua In Joshua we have the people of Israel entering the possession of their inheritance In Ephesians believers are called to enter now by faith into the possession of that inheritance which eventually we shall enjoy in all its fullness We are far richer than we realize All things are ours and yet how little we appropriate It is said in the prophecy of Obadiah that when the Lord returns and His kingdom is established the people of Israel shall possess their possessions This is a challenge to us Do you possess your possessions Or are your heavenly estates like castles in Spain about which you dream but never really possess I trust the Spirit of God may lead us into the present enjoyment of our inheritance in Christ For our purpose the Epistle may be divided very simply without breaking it up into many portions that would be difficult to carry in our memories We shall divide it into two parts the first three chapters giving us the doctrine and the last three the practical outcome the first division gives us our inheritance and the last the behavior that should characterize those who are so richly blessed Often that is the divine order of Scripture instruction in the truth first practice in accordance with the truth afterwards

H A I Christian Theology Adam Harwood, 2022-10-19 The church has been entrusted with God's revelation and to steward the word of truth we must confess the Bible's teaching with clarity and conviction Adam Harwood's Christian Theology is both biblically faithful and historically informed providing a fresh synthesis of the essential doctrines of the faith Writing from a Baptist perspective Harwood brings fresh insights that many systematic theologies lack With readable prose suggestions for further study and discussion questions Christian Theology will equip students and pastors to clarify and articulate what they believe and why

Spirit-empowered Christianity in the Twenty-first Century Vinson Synan, 2011 What does a re vision of the Charismatic Pentecostal Spirit empowered movement look like in the coming years of this millennium The first century of this revival seems to attest that the Lord raised up the holiness and Pentecostal movements not only to be custodians of these distinctive truths but the perpetuators of them as well If any generation ceases to accentuate this emphasis the movement likely will forfeit the right to be recognized as such When the Pentecostal message is preached published and proclaimed through triumphant song an atmosphere is sustained for people to experience anew and again the reality of salvation holiness charismata wholeness and hope Such a revival will be biblically based rationally sound traditionally accurate and experientially real Spirit Empowered Christianity in the 21st Century is an authoritative compilation of the presentations from thirty leaders in the Charismatic Pentecostal movement given at the Empowered 21 Conference in Tulsa OK in April 2010 These chapters share emerging insights on how the next generation will handle the profound issues facing Christians within the Charismatic Pentecostal movement in the 21st century For example one portion covers the topic of the 21st century renewal while another discusses how we can protect our Charismatic distinctive Another portion will highlight Charismatic adaptations for reaching this present age discussing issues of social and economic justice prosperity and suffering challenges to urban ministry the future of the next generation Oneness Pentecostalism and missiological aims in North America
