The Making of an African King Anthony Ephirim-Donkor, 2019-01-04 In this edition of The Making of an African King Patrilineal and Matrilineal Struggle Among the wutu Effutu of Ghana Revised Updated every chapter is updated taking into account the 2015 Ghana Supreme Court ruling on the internecine kingship struggle among the wutu Effutu of Simpa Winneba The patrilineal Otuano Royal Family sued the Acquah faction and proponents of matrilineal succession in 1976 seeking confirmation of their inalienable right as the sole kingmakers of Simpa and also for the court to place perpetual injunction on the Acquahs never to interfere in the royal affairs of Simpa During the intervening decades from 1976 2015 Simpa witnessed a spate of intermittent political violence especially the months leading to their annual Nyant r aboakyir Festival all aimed at preventing the king from propitiating the ancestors and deities of Simpa led by P nkyae Otu With the Supreme Court ruling people now have the opportunity to read the judgment in its entirety and make up their own minds What is actually fascinating about the whole internecine royal struggle is that we have a situation whereby a matrilineal political system practiced by the Akan is displacing a long established patrilineal system of descent traditionally practiced by the Guan speaking people of Simpa Such an idea would be unheard of in the West but this is what is happening among the wutu Effutu of Simpa Winneba socio culturally and politically Indeed it shows how unique and transformative the Akan abusua a mother and her children system is all about

Religion, Law, Politics and the State in Africa Seth Tweneboah, 2019-09-25 Applying a legal pluralist framework this study examines the complex interrelationships between religion law and politics in contemporary Ghana a professedly secular State characterised by high levels of religiosity It aims to explore legal cultural and moral tensions created by overlapping loci of authority state actors traditional leaders and religious functionaries It contends that religion can function as an impediment to Ghana's secularity and also serve as an integral tool for realising the State's legal ideals and meeting international human rights standards Using three case studies legal tensions child witchcraft accusations and same sex partnerships the study illustrates the ways that the entangled and complicated connections between religion and law compound Ghana's secular orientation It suggests that legal pluralism is not a mere analytical framework for describing tensions but ought to be seen as part of the solution The study contributes to advancing knowledge in the area of the interrelationships between religion and law in contemporary African public domain This book will be a valuable resource for those working in the areas of Law and Religion Religious Studies African Studies Political Science Legal Anthropology and Socio legal Studies

Mobile Africa Rijk van Dijk, Dick Foeken, Mirjam de Bruijn, 2021-07-26 This anthology deals with the complexity variety and experience of all the forms of mobility we witness today in Sub Saharan Africa Three sets of issues are being discussed First the concept of mobility itself is considered and how it is conceived of in distinction from sedentarity Second which forms of mobility can be distinguished not only from the perspective of Western social sciences but also from the perspective of people s own experiences ideas notions etc Social science in Africa has particularly focused on rural urban migration but it is clear that there are many other forms as well Third the concept of mobility concerns not only geographical space but there are other spaces to consider as well In addition to forms of mobility there is a mobility of forms in which the perception of those other spaces plays a crucial role In short the book intends to turn the whole notion of mobility as a supposedly rupturing phenomenon on its head emphasizing that rather through travelling connections are established and continuity is experienced We are challenged to delve into the traveller s mind to think and follow their multi spatial livelihoods and to explore what it means to people if they move in a variety of spaces

Hindu Gods in West Africa Albert Wuaku, 2013-07-11 In Hindu Gods in West Africa Wuaku offers an account of the histories beliefs and practices of the Hindu Monastery of Africa and the Radha Govinda Temple two Hindu Temples in Ghana Using historical material and data from his field work in southern Ghana Wuaku shows how these two Hindu Temples build their traditions on popular Ghanaian religious notions about the powerful magicality of India s Hindu gods He explores how Ghanaian soldiers who served in the colonial armies in India Sri Lanka and Burma during World War II Bollywood films and local magicians have contributed to the production and the spreading of these cultural ideas He argues that while Ghanaian worshippers appropriated and deployed the alien Hindu religious world through their own cultural ideas as they engage Hindu beliefs and rituals in negotiating challenges their own worldviews would change considerably
