Reinaldo L. Román, 2009-11-30 Freedom of religion did not come easily to Cuba or Puerto Rico Only after the arrival of American troops during the Spanish American War were non Catholics permitted to practice their religions openly and to proselytize When government efforts to ensure freedom of worship began reformers on both islands rejoiced believing that an era of regeneration and modernization was upon them But as new laws went into effect critics voiced their dismay at the rise of popular religions Reinaldo L Roman explores the changing relationship between regulators and practitioners in neocolonial Cuba and Puerto Rico Spiritism Santería and other African derived traditions were typically characterized in sensational fashion by the popular press as a plague of superstition Examining seven episodes between 1898 and the Cuban Revolution when the public demanded official actions against misbelief Roman finds that when outbreaks of superstition were debated matters of citizenship were usually at stake He links the circulation of spectacular charges of witchcraft and miracle making to anxieties surrounding newly expanded citizenries that included people of color Governing Spirits also contributes to the understanding of vernacular religions by moving beyond questions of national or traditional origins to illuminate how boundaries among hybrid practices evolved in a process of historical contingencies The Cuban

Filmography Alfonso J. García Osuna, 2015-08-01 On January 24 1897 an event took place that would change Cuban culture forever the first moving pictures were shown in Havana A couple of weeks later on February 7 the first movie was filmed on the island Since then cinematography and Cuba have shared peculiar and innate connections as their beginnings roughly coincide and Cubans are living in both the age of independence and revolution and the age of film This work is a filmography of every Cuban film including documentaries shorts and cartoons released from 1897 the first year films were shown and made in Cuba through 2001 Each entry gives the original title of the film the English translation of it director production company or companies year of release black and white or color total running time writing credits if the film is based on a story or novel animation credits if the film is a cartoon music credits if music has been written specifically for the film cast credits and a synopsis and short critical evaluation The work also provides comments on the relationship between Cuban film and history and the changes that have taken place over the years in themes topics methods and other aspects of filmmaking in Cuba

Making Spirits Diana Espirito Santo,Nico Tassi,2013-07-15 The analysis of religion has often placed an emphasis on beliefs and ideologies prioritizing these elements over those of the material world Through the ethnographic analysis of a variety of contemporary religious practices Making Spirits questions the presumed separation of spirit and matter and sheds light on the dynamics between spiritual and material domains By examining the cultural contexts in which material culture is central to the creation and experience of religion and belief this volume analyses the different ways in which the concepts of the material and spiritual worlds intersect interact and inform each other in the reproduction of religious rites Using examples such as spirit mediums fetishes and ritual objects across a variety of cultures such as Latin America Japan and Central Africa Nico Tassi and Diana Espirito Santo offer insights that challenge accepted categories in the study of religion making this book important for scholars of comparative religion anthropology and sociology The Oxford Companion to Spirits and Cocktails David Wondrich,Noah Rothbaum,2021-10-20 The Oxford Companion to Spirits and Cocktails presents an in depth exploration of the world of spirits and cocktails in a ground breaking synthesis The Companion covers drinks processes and techniques around the world as well as those in the US and Europe It provides clear explanations of the different ways that spirits are produced including fermentation distillation and ageing alongside a wealth of new detail on the emergence of cocktails and cocktail bars including entries on key cocktails and influential mixologists and cocktail bars contributors of this book uncover a livelier more diverse environment of entities with their own histories motivations and social interactions providing a new understanding of spirits not as symbols but as agents The contributors tour the spiritual globe the globe of nonthings in essays on topics ranging from the Holy Ghost in southern Africa to spirits of the people of the streets in Rio de Janeiro to dragons and magic in Britain Avoiding a reliance on religion and belief systems to explain the significance of spirits they reimagine spirits in a rich network of social trajectories ultimately arguing for a new ontological ground upon which to examine the intangible world and its interactions with the tangible one Puerto Paz Jefferey J.
