Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, 9th Episcopal Diocese of Alabama 4 Chair Discipling Dann Spader, 2014-08-01

Dann Spader is a disciple maker who has spent his adult life exploring what it means to take someone from being a seeker to making disciples themselves. Over 750,000 people in 80 countries have been trained to make disciples through organizations he has led. Through studying the life of Christ and His disciple making methods, Dann developed 4 Chair Discipling, a simple picture for others to follow. Jesus' last words on earth had a few very specific instructions: Go, make disciples, baptize, and teach. But what does that mean for us today? Well, it's not easy. But it is simple. Teacher and leader Dann Spader explains disciple making as a process of moving people through four chairs from someone seeking to know more about Christ to someone who makes disciples themselves. Chair 1: Come and See (John 1:39). Chair 2: Follow Me (John 1:43). Chair 3: Become a Fisher of Men (Matthew 4:19). Chair 4: Go and Bear Fruit (John 15:16). In the process of His four-year ministry, Jesus realized that different people are at different stages of growth and development, and He works to challenge each of them to the next level. In 4 Chair Discipling, you'll get a clear and simple picture of how to follow in Jesus' footsteps and do the same thing. Discipling as

The Church of the Perfect Storm Leonard Sweet, 2010-09-01 The church is heading into a perfect storm of cultural forces Will you sink beneath the waves or ride the winds of the Spirit An array of cultural forces is coming together to present the church with unprecedented challenge and unequalled opportunity Such category 5 realities as postmodernism postChristendom attacks on belief in God and the threat of global warming have coalesced to make a perfect storm that will leave people uncertain of their place in the world and all they have previously believed in Like the disciples when Jesus calmed the storm the church can cower and cry out for relief Or when everything is spinning and whirling in the wind the church can go out to meet the storm embrace the gale and pass out kites From the Circuit Rider review Like other books Sweet has written and compiled The Church of the Perfect Storm is thought provoking and compelling The material flows in such a way that allows readers to grasp the gravity of the situation However as with most futuristic material there is also a sense in which readers may want to know Okay now what Where do we need to steer this ship Are mainline and evangelical churches so off course as to fail to weather the rising tides that are here and soon coming Readers of this volume may enjoy the description of a post Christendom world but they may also want to know more about the prescription for the days ahead Click here to read the entire review

Death by Baptism Frank G. Honeycutt, 2021-08-24 Our days are filled with a variety of known and lurking fears Christians who name Jesus as Lord on Sundays are inundated with stories real and imagined inducing fear and caution throughout the week random violence health concerns the perceived threat of people different from us and economic worries to name a few News sources and national political leaders manipulate these fears in a fashion that threatens and sometimes usurps the church s ultimate trust in Christ A pastoral assumption at the core of this national anxiety is the looming fear of death spawning various supplemental protections that have little to do with the promises of Christ This fear of death and the false promises claiming to shield us from such may prompt us to nudge the One we call Lord to the margins of daily life or even solely to the afterlife a savior we ll all meet in heaven one day but whose quaint teachings have little to do with problems we re now facing In this book gifted storyteller Frank G Honeycutt calls on his many years of pastoral experience to examine one of the most stunning and overlooked theological claims of the New Testament how baptism radically unites followers of Christ in his death and resurrection In baptism we have already died Romans 6 Disciples commence life in the kingdom on this side of the grave Believing this with theological rigor and trust relieves personal and corporate anxiety about any day in the future when a believer stops breathing
