Whitney,1996-09-10 You re worth it You deserve a break today Do something nice for yourself Commonly heard phrases in this society committed to self gratification and individual rights Doing things for other people is a waste of precious time and asking for help weak So how do we build the church described in the Scriptures In this day and age how can we be a genuine community based on self sacrifice and mutual commitment In Spiritual Disciplines Within the Church seminary professor author and former pastor Don Whitney shows us how to build a sense of community and be active participants instead of passive attendees Whitney looks at such frequently asked questions as Why can t I get by on my own Why should I go to church Why should I give of myself to the church Why do I need to worship in church Couldn t I just worship in nature Why does it matter whether I become a member of the church Committed love must mark the local expression of the body of Christ By putting spiritual disciplines into practice in the church congregations can return to the depth of community present in the New Testament church where they devoted themselves to the apostles teaching and to the fellowship to the breaking of bread and to prayer Marriage Spirituality R. classic spiritual disciplines that makes them relevant doable and meaningful for everyday Christians Bennett shows how the disciplines are remedial practices that correct the malformed ways we do everyday things such as think eat talk own work and rest Through personal anecdotes engagement with Scripture and vivid cultural references he invites us to practice the spiritual disciplines wholesale and shows how changing the way we do basic human activities can bring healing renewal and transformation to our day to day lives and the world around us Spiritual Disciplines Handbook Adele Ahlberg Calhoun, 2015-11-19 Adele Calhoun s Spiritual Disciplines Handbook has become a standard for those who want to expand their knowledge of spiritual practices Now this beloved resource has been revised throughout and expanded to include thirteen new disciplines along with a new preface by the author giving us practical guidance in our continuing journey toward intimacy with Christ Spiritual Disciplines for the Christian Life Study Guide Donald S. asserting Yes spirit is everything However spirit and the spiritual realm have largely been dropped from mainstream psychoanalytic theory and practice This book seeks to help revitalize a culturally aging psychoanalysis that is in conceptual and clinical disarray in the marketplace of ideas and is viewed as a theory in crisis no longer regarded as the primary therapy for those who are suffering The author argues that psychoanalysis and psychoanalytic psychotherapy can be reinvigorated as a discipline if it is animated by the powerfully evocative spiritual moral and ethical insights of two dialogical personalist religious philosophers Martin Buber a Jew and Gabriel Marcel a Catholic who both initiated a Copernican revolution in human thought In chapters that focus on love work faith suffering and clinical practice Paul Marcus shows how the spiritual optic of Buber and Marcel can help revive and refresh psychoanalysis and bring it back into the light by communicating its inherent vitality power and relevance to the mental health community and to those who seek psychoanalytic treatment
