Spirituality In An Age Of Change Rediscovering The Spirit Of The Reformers:

Spirituality in an Age of Change Alister E. McGrath, 1994 McGrath shows that we look to the Reformers for our theology but fail to grasp the profound spirituality that stands at the heart of that theology It is that spirituality which evangelicalism must recover if it is to replace shallowness with depth and staying power The Merging of Theology and Spirituality

Larry S. McDonald, 2006-07-29 While acknowledging the inherent tension between evangelicals who emphasize theological propositions and those who emphasize personal experience Alister McGrath believes that spirituality represents the interface between ideas and life between Christian theology and human existence The book explores the centrality of McGrath's theology in the development of his views on spirituality McGrath does not approach spirituality from a theological void but instead uses his theological perspective as the foundation Through detailed examination of McGrath's previous work and the writing of other evangelicals The Merging of Theology and Spirituality offers an overview of a unique thinker's contributions and a guide for future theological and spiritual exploration Transforming Spirituality F. LeRon Shults, Steven J.

Sandage, 2006-06 Explores the concept of spiritual transformation through the lenses of theology and psychology

Spiritual Theology Simon Chan, 2025-10-14 Academy of Parish Clergy Top Ten Book Theology is the doctrine of living unto God wrote the Puritan theologian William Ames Unfortunately post Enlightenment theology has tended to divorce doctrine from living unto God And to the degree that this split has been deepened and perpetuated both theology and spirituality have been impoverished Spiritual Theology is a rare book In it Simon Chan surveys the little explored landscape where systematic theology and godly praxis meet highlighting the connections between Christian doctrine and Christian living and drawing out the spiritual implications of particular aspects of systematic theology Allowing rational formulations to drop into the background he brings the mystery of the faith to the fore Chan begins with the principal doctrines of God sin salvation and the church He then progresses to a reflective consideration of the practice of the spiritual life from prayer to spiritual direction Unabashedly evangelical and truly ecumenical Chan grounds his exploration in the sources of the Protestant Catholic and Orthodox traditions His work is well abreast of contemporary theological currents and crossculturally conversant from an Asian perspective Spiritual Theology is a book for those who care deeply about theology and spirituality and strive to integrate the two It is well worth careful reflection and prayerful reading

A Redemptive Theology of Art David A. Covington, 2018-05-01 A Redemptive Theology of Art develops a biblical systematic and practical theology of aesthetics It begins with the roots and ontology of aesthetics vs art and the architecture and narrative of affection and passion their woes and their glory Those who would search the Bible find little support for art as commonly conceived in the West The language of aesthetics applied to the maker s intentions the qualities of the work and the responses of the audience better addresses the questions of beauty and better suits the discussion of human actions beliefs and culture than the language of art does The Bible yields more consistent and helpful answers to questions about the broader category of aesthetics than it does to questions about art leading in turn to better questions and a more practical and theological appreciation of human affections beauty and delight and the many paths by which people including Christians pursue them Using the categories and definitions from Scripture Covington gives hope and help not only for those who labor in the arts but for everyone who cares about the passions that motivate us We were made for God s delight and though sin and bondage plague our passions God can shape our fun feelings desires affections and aversions Feelings are neither objective nor subjective they are redeemable Borrowing key ideas from other Christian writers on the arts or aesthetics Covington explores the connection between orthodox Protestant theology and a responsible respectful treatment of arts artists and all aesthetic fields of human work and speech
