Plott,1989-01-01 The fourth and fifth volumes of the Global History of Philosophy are designated The Period of Scholasticism in order to stress that the scholastic method with its emphasis on thesis antithesis and attempts at synthesis became universal throughout Eurasia Scholasticism should not be taken in the pejorative sense as the juggling of arguments by straw men but in the sense of a challenge even in our own era to work for consistent and comprehensive systematic synthesis All the older traditions need to be reinterpreted in terms of modern conditions which after all is what the Eurasian scholastics of these centuries were doing for their own time The major developments of this period are Monism in Many Moods during the ninth century through

Exfoliation and Elaboration of those seminal systems in the tenth and eleventh centuries until the time of the Great Summas in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries It was during this time that philosophy and theology developed a very highly sophisticated technique of balancing arguments and refutations and counter arguments and counter refutations As is true of the whole series these volumes are a new way of exploring the accumulative wisdom of mankind and in the process explode many of the ethnocentric stereotypes which still hinder intercultural communications and world peace through intercultural understanding

The Compassion Quest Trystan Owain Hughes,2013-02-21 In this follow up to his much praised Finding Hope and Meaning in Suffering Trystan Owain Hughes encourages us to develop an approach to life that looks beyond our own concerns Using illustrations from poetry literature and film and drawing on contemporary scientific thought the author makes plain that our natural state is an interconnected harmony with God with each other and with the world around us Gradually we come to realize that loving others and desiring the best for them is worthwhile even when there seems to be little in it for us Just as Christ chose to humble himself and become God with us so we too will bring light to the lives of those around us by transcending our self centredness and becoming fully present to those in need And as we begin to attune ourselves to love s frequency our inner being will instinctively embrace all creation as sacred and deserving of our care and attention

A Question of Choice Pamela McGrath,2018-10-26 First published in 1997 this book contributes to our understanding of the way our society responds to issues of death and dying The trans disciplinary research which informs this discussion is situated in the disciplines of bioethics and palliative care Postmodern notions of discourse and power are used to explore the organizational approach of one hospice Karuna Hospice Service to working with the dying In modern Western technological societies biomedicine is the dominant discourse which underpins our care of the terminally ill Bioethics has recently emerged as a discipline concerned with resolving the many ethical dilemmas arising from
