Through a Speculum That Shines Elliot R. Wolfson,2020-06-30 A comprehensive treatment of visionary experience in some of the main texts of Jewish mysticism this book reveals the overwhelmingly visual nature of religious experience in Jewish spirituality from antiquity through the late Middle Ages Using phenomenological and critical historical tools Wolfson examines Jewish mystical texts from late antiquity pre kabbalistic sources from the tenth to the twelfth centuries and twelfth and thirteenth century kabbalistic literature His work demonstrates that the sense of sight assumes an epistemic priority in these writings reflecting and building upon those scriptural passages that affirm the visual nature of revelatory experience Moreover the author reveals an androcentric eroticism in the scopic mentality of Jewish mystics which placed the externalized and representable form the phallus at the center of the visual encounter In the visionary experience as Wolfson describes it imagination serves a primary function transmuting sensory data and rational concepts into symbols of those things beyond sense and reason In this view the experience of a vision is inseparable from the process of interpretation Fundamentally challenging the conventional distinction between experience and exegesis revelation and interpretation Wolfson argues that for the mystics themselves the study of texts occasioned a visual experience of the divine located in the imagination of the mystical interpreter Thus he shows how Jewish mystics preserved the invisible transcendence of God without doing away with the visual dimension of belief      Sepher Rezial Hemelach Steve Savedow,2025-09-12 Sepher Rezial Hemelach is the longawaited first English translation of this famous magical text a translation from the ancient Hebrew in the rare and complete 1701 Amsterdam edition According to Hebrew legend the Sepher Rezial was presented to Adam in the Garden of Eden given by the hand of God and delivered by the angel Rezial The myth thus suggests that this is the first book ever written and of direct divine provenance A diverse compendium of ancient Hebrew magical lore this book was quite possibly the original source for later traditional literature on angelic hierarchy astrology Qabalah and Gematria Moses Gaster mentions this in his introduction to The Sword of Moses 1896 suggesting that the Sepher Rezial could be a primary source for many magic and qabalistic books of the Middle Ages Sepher Rezial Hemelach is a compilation of five books The Book of the Vestment The Book of the Great Rezial The Holy Names The Book of the Mysteries and The Book of the Signs of the Zodiac It includes extensive explanatory text on the holy names of God the divisions of Heaven and Hell the
