Splitting Up Larry Frolick,1998-10-01 A guide to the new social landscape and a serious search for personal meaning in an age of rapidly shifting cultural values Splitting Up Larry Frolick,2014-06-09 A guide to the new social landscape and a serious search for personal meaning in an age of rapidly shifting cultural values Adult Children of Divorce Geraldine K. Piorkowski,2008-10-30 Romantic love is often an elusive fragile and tenuous state difficult to maintain across time The rates of divorce re divorce relationship violence and abuse today attest to the fact we are failing at romantic love And for teen aged and adult children of divorce romantic love can be especially elusive Because they have no roadmap for a satisfying stable romantic relationship derived from their own parents they are confused by what love is and tend to make poor partner choices Borrowing heavily from popular culture for unrealistic standards regarding love they become disillusioned when their all too ordinary lovers don't measure up Especially vulnerable to the problems their parents had they tend to overreact in a similar negative fashion and are all too ready to consider divorce when unhappiness strikes In attempting to halt intergenerational transmission of divorce Psychologist Piorkowski points to how we can recognize that American popular culture presents an overly sexualized explosive and superficial version of love that can't last With this book adult children of divorce can begin to see how they have been affected by familial experiences and develop a new realistic map to find more fulfilling and enduring romantic relationships Piorkowski in an extensive review of literature also looks at cultural factors and how they impact romantic love and marriage In contrast to American popular culture's shallow rendition of romantic love many cultures elsewhere in the world emphasize compatibility religion and family allegiance As a result says the author such marriages appear more stable than American unions built upon the shifting sands of emotion The Dundurn Group The Dundurn Group, Out of the Darkness Marion Crook,2003 Based on interviews with survivors parents and professionals this is a sensitive exploration of teen suicide in particular the reasons why certain young people are driven to it and an examination of the history of teen suicide in Western and other cultures as well as what roles parents and schools can play in suicide prevention A book for both teens and adults that breaks the silence surrounding this often taboo subject and offers hope for those who think there is none Quill & Quire ,1998 Family Advocate ,2004 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 The Routledge Companion to Children's Literature and Culture Claudia Nelson,Elisabeth Wesseling,Andrea Mei-Ying Wu,2023-11-30 Focusing on significant and cutting edge preoccupations within children's literature scholarship The Routledge Companion to Children's Literature and Culture presents a comprehensive overview of print digital and electronic texts for children aged zero to thirteen as forms of world literature participating in a panoply of identity formations Offering five distinct sections this volume Familiarizes students and beginning scholars with key concepts and methodological resources guiding contemporary inquiry into children's literature Describes the major media formats and genres for texts expressly addressing children

Considers the production distribution and valuing of children's books from an assortment of historical and contemporary perspectives highlighting context as a driver of content Maps how children's texts have historically presumed and prescribed certain identities on the part of their readers sometimes addressing readers who share some part of the author's identity sometimes seeking to educate the reader about a presumed other and in recent decades increasingly foregrounding identities once lacking visibility and voice Explores the historical evolutions and trans regional contacts and inter connections in the long process of the formation of global children's literature highlighting issues such as retranslation transnationalism transculturality and new digital formats for considering cultural crossings and renegotiations in the production of children's literature Methodically presented and contextualized this volume is an engaging introduction to this expanding and multifaceted field
