Spoilt Boy A Memoir Of Childhood:

A Spoilt Boy Frederic Raphael, 2003-01-01 Autobiography The Un-Making of Them Nick Duffell, 2025-04-24 Ex boarders can be among the most challenging clients for therapists with many clinicians struggling to address their unique needs This book presents a groundbreaking collection of chapters sharing insights and reflections on clinical work with ex boarders in different settings and circumstances with the aim of expanding the body of knowledge for therapeutic work with such clients The contributors reveal that the fall out from boarding is much wider than previously thought and also report on innovative treatment methods that may help therapists address these consequences with ex boarders in treatment Featuring the experience and insights of some 16 different clinicians many of whom are ex boarders themselves this new collection offers contributions from a wide range of theoretical backgrounds including psychodynamic Jungian transactional analysis and energy psychology It tells how the understanding of the boarding school syndrome has been enlarged by recent advances in attachment therapy trauma studies neuroscience including pastoral and safeguarding awareness within education Topics covered include the effects of boarding on girls on both intimate and sibling relationships on military family boarders and on ex boarder therapists as well as how both careful patient attention and dynamic EMDR may be used to alleviate boarding school trauma The reader will gain a wider understanding about how individuals and society are impacted by this way of raising children and what evidence based pathways to recovery are being evolved This book is written in an accessible jargon free style and will appeal to psychotherapists psychologists psychoanalysts and counsellors as well as ex boarders and parents interested in the impact of boarding schools from a professional or personal perspective Trauma, Abandonment and Privilege Nick Duffell, Thurstine Basset, 2016-04-14 Trauma Abandonment and Privilege discusses how ex boarders can be amongst the most challenging clients for therapists even experienced therapists may unwittingly struggle to skilfully address the needs of this client group It looks at the effect on adults of being sent away to board in childhood and the problems associated with boarding which have only recently been acknowledged by mainstream mental health professionals This practice based book is illustrated by case studies diagrams and exercises and is divided into three parts Recognition Acceptance Change It aims to help readers understand the emotional processes of boarding and the psychological aspects of survival outlining the steps toward recovery and the repercussions of survival The book also explores how ex boarders frequently struggle with intimate relationships with spouses and partners and offers interventions and strategies for those working with ex boarder clients Trauma Abandonment and Privilege will be of interest to therapists counsellors and mental health workers across the UK It will also be relevant to those who are well acquainted with boarding schools based on the UK model for example in Canada Australia New Zealand and India A Companion to Catullus Marilyn B. Skinner, 2010-12-23 In this companion international scholars provide a comprehensive overview that reflects the most recent trends in Catullan studies Explores the work of Catullus one of the best Roman lyric poets Provides discussions about production genre style and reception as well as interpretive essays on key poems and groups of poems Grounds Catullus in the socio historical world around him Chapters challenge received wisdom present original readings and suggest new interpretations of biographical evidence A Jew Among Romans Frederic Raphael,2013-10-08 From the acclaimed biographer screenwriter and novelist Frederic Raphael here is an audacious history of Josephus 37 c 100 the Jewish general turned Roman historian whose emblematic betrayal is a touchstone for the Jew alone in the Gentile world Joseph ben Mattathias s transformation into Titus Flavius Josephus historian to the Roman emperor Vespasian is a gripping and dramatic story His life in the hands of Frederic Raphael becomes a point of departure for an appraisal of Diasporan Jews seeking a place in the dominant cultures they inhabit Raphael brings a scholar s rigor a historian s perspective and a novelist s imagination to this project He goes beyond the fascinating details of Josephus s life and his singular literary achievements to examine how Josephus has been viewed by posterity finding in him the prototype for the un Jewish Jew the assimilated intellectual and the abiding apostate the recurrent figures in the long centuries of the Diaspora Raphael s insightful portraits of Yehuda Halevi Baruch Spinoza Karl Kraus Benjamin Disraeli Ludwig Wittgenstein and Hannah Arendt extend and illuminate the Josephean worldview Raphael so eloquently lays out The Palgrave Dictionary of Anglo-Jewish History W. Rubinstein,2011-01-27 This authoritative and comprehensive guide to key people and events in Anglo Jewish history stretches from Cromwell s re admittance of the Jews in 1656 to the present day and contains nearly 3000 entries the vast majority of which are not featured in any other sources Title The Works of Douglas Jerrold ; With an Introductory Memoir by His Son Douglas William Jerrold,1863 Encyclopedia of Modern Jewish Culture Glenda Abramson,2004-03-01 The Encyclopedia of Modern Jewish Culture is an extensively updated revision of the very successful Companion to Jewish Culture published in 1989 and has now been updated throughout Experts from all over the world contribute entries ranging from 200 to 1000 words broadly covering the humanities arts social sciences sport and popular culture and 5000 word essays contextualize the shorter entries and provide overviews to aspects of culture in the Jewish world Ideal for student and general readers the articles and biographies have been written by scholars and academics musicians artists and writers and the book now contains up to date bibliographies suggestions for further reading comprehensive cross referencing and a full index This is a resource no student of Jewish history will want to go without "J" Sir Arthur Everett Shipley,1913 Memoir of Joshua Watson Edward Churton,1861 Ruined by the Reich Christel Weiss Brandenburg,Daniel R. Laing,2015-08-31 Decades have passed since World War II yet the myth that all Germans were Nazi sympathizers still persists This book follows the story of the Weiss family in East Prussia from World War I to the end of World War II It is told from the point of view not of the victors but of the vanquished Beginning with the good citizenship trap Hitler set for law abiding German families the book describes how Germany first prospered and then fell to ruin with the Third Reich The people traded their freedoms for a national security which quickly turned to tyranny with swift consequences for disobedience Like Christel's brothers soldiers and members of Hitler's Youth propaganda fed children all over the Reich believed the highly idealized depiction of their roles and of their nation's victims This fascinating and richly detailed memoir is told through the intimate narration of a woman who grew up in the midst of turmoil experienced poverty and prejudice witnessed the deaths of many loved ones and was driven from her home by the Soviet Army The combination of domestic details and vivid historical descriptions creates an unusual book as absorbing as it is educational Boarding School

Syndrome Joy Schaverien, 2015-06-05 Boarding School Syndrome is an analysis of the trauma of the privileged child sent to boarding school at a young age Innovative and challenging Joy Schaverien offers a psychological analysis of the long established British and colonial preparatory and public boarding school tradition Richly illustrated with pictures and the narratives of adult ex boarders in psychotherapy the book demonstrates how some forms of enduring distress in adult life may be traced back to the early losses of home and family Developed from clinical research and informed by attachment and child development theories Boarding School Syndrome is a new term that offers a theoretical framework on which the psychotherapeutic treatment of ex boarders may build Divided into four parts History In the Name of Privilege Exile and Healing Broken Attachments A Hidden Trauma and The Boarding School Body the book includes vivid case studies of ex boarders in psychotherapy Their accounts reveal details of the suffering endured loss bereavement and captivity are sometimes compounded by physical sexual and psychological abuse Here Joy Schaverien shows how many boarders adopt unconscious coping strategies including dissociative amnesia resulting in a psychological split between the home self and the boarding school self This pattern may continue into adult life causing difficulties in intimate relationships generalized depression and separation anxiety amongst other forms of psychological distress Boarding School Syndrome demonstrates how boarding school may damage those it is meant to be a reward and discusses the wider implications of this tradition It will be essential reading for psychoanalysts Jungian analysts psychotherapists art psychotherapists counsellors and others interested in the psychological cultural and international legacy of this tradition including ex boarders and their partners

The Memoirs of Ceija Stojka, Child Survivor of the Romani Holocaust Ceija Stojka, 2022 First English translation of the memoirs of Austrian Romani Holocaust survivor writer visual artist musician and activist Ceija Stojka 1933-2013 along with poems an interview historical photos and reproductions of her artworks Is this the whole world This question begins the first of three memoirs by Austrian Romani writer visual artist musician and activist Ceija Stojka 1933-2013 told from her perspective as a child interned in three Nazi concentration camps from age nine to twelve Written by a child survivor much later in life the memoirs offer insights into the nexus of narrative and extreme trauma expressing the full spectrum of human emotions fear and sorrow at losing loved ones joy and relief when reconnecting with family and friends desire to preserve some memories while attempting to erase others horror at acts of genocide and hope arising from dreams of survival In addition to annotated translations of the three memoirs the book includes two of Stojka's poems and an interview by Karin Berger editor of the original editions of Stojka's memoirs as well as color reproductions of several of her artworks and historical photographs. An introduction contextualizes her works within Romani history and culture and a glossary informs the reader about the concentrationary universe. Because the memoirs show how Stojka navigated male-dominated postwar Austrian culture generally discriminatory to Roma and the patriarchal aspects of Romani culture itself, the book is a contribution not only to Holocaust Studies but also to Austrian Studies, Romani Studies, and Women's and Gender Studies.

Narcissus or Machiavelli? Nishant Uppal, 2021-07-22 This book is about leadership and its strategies. Drawing on Indian prime ministers since Independence, it traces personality traits and leadership skills that have shaped many futures. It examines a range of leadership profiles to study dominant traits in one of the most demanding leadership roles in the world. The volume focuses on Machiavellianism and narcissism as a framework to policy, personality connections, and demagogic tendencies in leaders in politics and in everyday life. Accessible, engaging, and provocative, this book will be essential reading for professionals across industries and corporations. The general reader interested in leadership studies and Indian politics will also find this book useful.

The Way It Turned Out Herant Katchadourian, 2012-09-05 Spanning seven decades, this memoir is an account of the life of Herant Katchadourian on three continents: The Middle East, Europe, and the United States. While the memoir is highly distinctive, the issues the author focuses on have many features that are common with other people's lives, such as the role of chance and the reconstruction of past events in the light of the present. The book is the account of a fascinating life that is not only interesting to read but instructive by placing the various stages and facets of life in their historical and cultural contexts.
