Applicative Constructions in the World's Languages Fernando Zuniga, Denis Creissels, 2024-01-29 This book presents a state of the art cross linguistic survey of applicative constructions in the functional typological tradition An introductory section sets the terminological and analytical stage presents the methodology used by the different chapters and provides a typological outlook The individual contributions address the morphological syntactic and semantic variation of applicatives as well as their discourse pragmatic function They cover all major language families and some isolates that feature some illuminating version of the phenomenon paying special attention to language internal variation and unity The phenomena surveyed range from those instances usually considered canonical valency increasing syntactically and semantically predictable productive dedicated and optional to those occasionally understudied in descriptive works and frequently neglected in comparative studies valency neutral rather unpredictable lexicalized syncretic and or obligatory

Forbearance Deborah Menard, 2012-06-29 From a very early age Emilys father has mentored her in criminology and she has a promising career as a detective in the city of Manchester New Hampshire Now a two year veteran of the police force she is gifted in her investigative skills but empathy for innocent victims causes her insomnia guilt and symptoms of disassociation She has turned away from God for His allowance of horrible things to happen to children and good people Her effort to temporarily take leave and re group and at the same time stand in for soon to be vacationing Constable Pete Hines in his peaceful little town sends her straight into a foreign and frightening environment of wild animals and poachers and to the aid of a rookie game warden who is in imminent danger of losing his life In her struggle to maintain her own equilibrium what she didnt count on is falling in love with Daniel and also with this in her mothers words poverty row town Daniel is a flawed and sacrificial hero Though agile and intuitive in the ways of the woods this PHD graduate in Wildlife Biology only became a game officer so he could be near his grieving foster mother as she endures the death of her biological son Daniels authority is put to the test because the previous game warden looked the other way on poaching and the poor people of this area liked it better that way Here in Kaskitesiw hunting is an equalizer and problems are resolved within the darkness of trees Gently and not so gently Emily encourages Daniel through physical healing Yet her guilt festers for the victims she wasnt in time to save and depression over what humankind can do at its worst threatens to take her from her career Daniel and even her own life Daniel must find trust in God once more before he can begin to help Emily But when he does it seems as if he is too late

Treaty No. 9 John Long, 2010. Restoring nearly forgotten perspectives to the historical record. John Long considers the methods used by the government of Canada to explain Treaty No 9 to Northern Ontario First Nations. He shows that many crucial details about the treaty's contents were omitted in the transmission of writing to speech while other promises were made orally but not included in the written treaty. Reproducing the three treaty commissioners' personal journals in their entirety, Long reveals the contradictions that suggest the treaty parchment was never fully explained to the First Nations who signed it. pub website Anthropological Linguistics, 2004 American Book Publishing Record, 2003 The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two George Melnyk, 1998. In this the companion to the landmark volume The Literary History of Alberta Volume One From Writing on Stone to World War Two, George Melnyk examines Alberta literature in the second half of the twentieth century. At last Melnyk argues Alberta writers have found their voice and their accomplishments have been remarkable. The contradictory landscape, the stereotypes of the Indian, the Mountie and the Cowboy and the language of the Other speaking from the margins, these elements all left their impressions on the consciousness of early Alberta. But writers in the last few decades have turned this inheritance to their advantage to create compelling stories about this place and its people Today Melnyk discovers Alberta writers can appreciate not only this achievement but also its essential source the symbolic communication of Writing on Stone The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two extends the study of Alberta s cultural history to the present day It is a vital text for anyone interested in Alberta s vibrant literary culture The Oxford Handbook of Evidentiality Alexandra Y. Aikhenvald, 2018-01-18 This volume offers a thorough systematic and crosslinguistic account of evidentiality the linguistic encoding of the source of information on which a statement is based In some languages the speaker always has to specify this source for example whether they saw the event heard it inferred it based on visual evidence or common sense or was told about it by someone else While not all languages have obligatory marking of this type every language has ways of referring to information source and associated epistemological meanings The continuum of epistemological expressions covers a range of devices from the lexical means in familiar European languages and in many languages of Aboriginal Australia to the highly grammaticalized systems in Amazonia or North America In this handbook experts from a variety of fields explore topics such as the relationship between evidentials and epistemic modality contact induced changes in evidential systems the acquisition of evidentials and formal semantic theories of evidentiality The book also contains detailed case studies of evidentiality in language families across the world including Algonquian Korean Nakh Dagestanian Nambikwara Turkic Uralic and Uto Aztecan The Oxford Handbook of Evidentiality Aleksandra IĭUĭr'evna Aĭkhenval'd, 2018 The first volume to offer a thorough and systematic account of evidentiality and the expression of information source Illustrated with extensive data from a range of typologically diverse languages Introductory chapter offers practical advice for fieldworkers investigating evidentially Interdisciplinary in nature with insights from typology semantics pragmatics language description anthropology cognitive psychology and psycholinguistics Book jacket

Eighteenth-Century Naturalists of Hudson Bay Clarence Stuart Houston, Stuart Houston, Tim Ball, Mary Houston, 2003 Where Peter Newman s best selling trilogy captured the essence of the Hudson s Bay Company HBC as a business empire Eighteenth Century Naturalists of Hudson Bay presents the scientific achievements of the company s early employees drawing largely on materials in the HBC Winnipeg archives C Stuart Houston Tim Ball and Mary Houston make amends for two centuries of neglect of these collector observers showing that fur traders in isolated trading posts on Hudson Bay were involved in some of the earliest stirrings of science on the continent and that the fur traders and Native people worked together in a remarkable symbiosis beneficial to both parties The authors show that meteorologic data and weather information recorded at the HBC trading posts over two centuries provide the largest and longest consecutive series available anywhere in North America one that can help us understand the mechanisms and amount of climate change They demonstrate that Hudson Bay is the second largest site of new bird species named by Linnaeus and reproduce some of George Edwards colour paintings of these new species Six informative appendices reveal how the invaluable HBC archives were transferred from London England to Winnipeg correct previous misinterpretations of the collaboration and relative contributions of Thomas Hutchins and Andrew Graham use two centuries of HBC fur returns to demonstrate the ten year hare and lynx cycles tell how the swan trade almost extirpated the Trumpeter Swan explain how the Canada Goose got its name before there was a Canada and offer an extensive list of eighteenth century Cree names for birds mammals and fish Informative tables list the eighteenth century surgeons at York Factory and give names and dates for the annual supply ships
