Spoken Finnish:

Spoken Finnish Thomas Albert Sebeok, 1947 Ethnic Styles of Speaking in European Metropolitan Areas Friederike Kern, Margret Selting, 2011-12-22 In recent years ethnic ways of speaking by young people with migrant background have become an important research object in sociolinguistics work on these ways of speaking has been prospering in many European countries This work is continued in the present volume with the aim of bringing together various research designs which explore the phenomenon from different perspectives correlational methodology of sociolinguistic research conversation analytical and interactional linguistic methodology and an ethnographic perspective on language use and the construction of social identities and social relations The aim of the volume is to explore the scope of these different methodologies and to provide a basis for the discussion and evaluation of the theories of language variation associated with them All papers focus on the description of the linguistic characteristics that constitute the non standard structures of ethnic styles of speaking and look into their various functions in discourse Visualising Language Students and Teachers as Multilinguals Paula Kalaja, Sílvia Melo-Pfeifer, 2024-10-15 This book fosters an awareness of multilingualism as lived or as subjectively experienced from the perspective of those involved in language education and teacher education Responding to multilingual and visual turns it widens the repertoire of methodologies dominating the field of language teacher education from linguistic or verbal to visual The chapters written by practising language teachers and teacher educators explore aspects of multilingualism accessed through visual means in a wide range of contexts Using social justice as a transformative framework they highlight the biases inequalities and linguistic hierarchies within schools and teacher education and promote respect for linguistic plurality and cultural diversity in these settings They illustrate how visual methods can be used to reconstruct histories of individual multilingualism identify present language ideologies and support teachers professional development by means of envisioning the future self in action This book will be of interest to those involved in language education and language teacher education including researchers practising language teachers student or trainee teachers and teacher educators This book is Open Access under a CC BY NC ND license Up and Down the Cline--the Nature of Grammaticalization Olga Fischer, Muriel Norde, Harry Perridon, 2004-01-01 The basic idea behind this volume is to probe the nature of grammaticalization Its contributions focus on the following questions i In how far can grammaticalization be considered a universal diachronic process or mechanism of change and in how far is it conditioned by synchronic factors ii What is the role of the speaker in grammaticalization iii Does grammaticalization itself provide a cause for change or is it an epiphenomenon i e a conglomeration of causal factors mechanisms which elsewhere occur independently iv If it is epiphenominal how do we explain that similar pathways so often occur in known cases of grammaticalization v Is grammaticalization unidirectional vi What is the nature of the parameters guiding grammaticalization The overall aim of the book is to enrich our understanding of what grammaticalization does or does not entail via detailed case studies in combination with theoretical and methodological discussions The Crosslinguistic Study of Language Acquisition Dan Isaac Slobin, 2014-02-25 Continuing the tradition of this series which has become a standard reference work in language acquisition Volume 4 contains chapters on three additional languages language groups Finnish Greek and Korean The chapters are selective critical reviews rather than exhaustive summaries of the course of development of each language Authors approach the language in question as a case study in a potential crosslinguistic typology of acquisitional problems considering those data which contribute to issues of general theoretical concern in developmental psycholinguistics and linguistic theory Each chapter therefore provides the following Grammatical Sketch of Language Brief grammatical sketch of the language or language group presenting those linguistic facts which are relevant to the developmental analysis Sources of Evidence Summary of basic sources of evidence characterizing methods of gathering data and listing key references Overall Course of Development Brief summary of the overall course of development in the language or language group giving an idea of the general problems posed to the child in acquiring a language of this type summarizing typical errors domains of relatively error free acquisition and the timing of acquisition areas of the grammar that show relatively precocious or delayed development in crosslinguistic perspective Data Specific developmental aspects of the language examined in depth depending on each individual language and available acquisition data Conclusions An interpretive summary of theoretical points raised above attending to general principles of language development and linguistic organization suggested by the study of a language of this type plus comparisons with development of other languages Minority Languages from Western Europe and Russia Svetlana Moskvitcheva, Alain Viaut, 2019-11-11 This book offers a comparative approach within a general framework of studies on minority languages of Western Europe and Russia and former Soviet space focusing on linguistic legal and categorization aspects It is connected to a comparative study of the semantic contents of the terms referring to the different categories of these languages The volume features multidisciplinary approaches first linguistic sociolinguistic and semantic and legal and investigates the limits of country to country comparisons mirroring cases from France Spain and China with their counterparts from Soviet and later Russian configurations Special examples from a region as Ingria and a country as Tajikistan help to contextualize this approach In addition the notion of migration languages also minority languages is studied in bilingual contexts both from external German Greek Chinese and internal origins Chuvash linked to the urbanization in contemporary societies that has fostered the presence of these languages in major cities The Sociolinguistics of Urbanization Bengt Nordberg, 2011-05-02 No detailed description available for The Sociolinguistics of Urbanization Encyclopedia of Linguistics Philipp Strazny, 2013-02-01 Utilizing a historical and international approach this valuable two volume resource makes even the more complex linguistic issues understandable for the non specialized reader Containing over 500 alphabetically arranged entries and an expansive glossary by a team of international scholars the Encyclopedia of Linguistics explores the varied perspectives figures and methodologies that make up the field Levels of

Linguistic Adaptation Jef Verschueren, 1991-11-12 This volume comprises the second part of selected papers of the International Pragmatics Conference in Antwerp August 1987

Functional Descriptions Ruqaiya Hasan, Carmel Cloran, David Butt, 1996-01-01 This volume focuses on the relation between theory and description by examining aspects of transitivity in different languages Transitivity or case grammar to use the popular term has always occupied a centre stage position in linguistics not least because of its supposedly privileged relation to states of affairs in the real world Using a systemic functional perspective the ten papers in this volume make a contribution to this scholarship by focusing on the transitivity patterns in language as the expression of the experiential metafunction Through a study of different languages English Dutch German Finnish Chinese and Pitjantjatjara the contributors provide functional descriptions of the various categories of process their participants and circumstances including phenomena such as di transitivity causativity the get passive etc With the relation between theories and descriptions running through the ten chapters of this volume as sometimes an overt and sometimes a covert theme the chapters point to the nature of the linguistic fact which is linked ineluctably on the one hand to the nature of the theory and on the other to the speakers experience of the world in which they live The majority of papers included in the volume derive from the 19th International Systemic Functional Congress at Macquarie University

Split Possession Thomas Stolz, Sonja Kettler, Cornelia Stroh, Aina Urdze, 2008-05-21 This book is a functional typological study of possession splits in European languages It shows that genetically and structurally diverse languages such as Icelandic Welsh and Maltese display possessive systems which are sensitive to semantically based distinctions reminiscent of the alienability correlation These distinctions are grammatically relevant in many European languages because they require dedicated constructions What makes these split possessive systems interesting for the linguist is the interaction of semantic criteria with pragmatics and syntax Neutralisation of distinctions occurs under focus The same happens if one of the constituents of a possessive construction is syntactically heavy These effects can be observed in the majority of the 50 sample languages Possessive splits are strong in those languages which are outside the Standard Average European group The bulk of the European languages do not behave much differently from those non European languages for which possession splits are reported The book reveals interesting new facts about European languages and possession to typologists universals researchers and areal linguists

Handbook of Orthography and Literacy R. Malatesha Joshi, P.G. Aaron, 2013-05-13 Until about two decades ago the study of writing systems and their relationship to literacy acquisition was sparse and generally modeled after studies of English language learners This situation is now changing As the worldwide demand for literacy continues to grow researchers from different countries with different language backgrounds have begun examining the connection between their writing systems and literacy acquisition This text which derives from a NATO sponsored conference on orthography and literacy brings together the research of 70 scholars from across the world the largest assemblage of such experts to date Their findings are grouped into three parts as follows

Part I Literacy Acquisition in Different Writing Systems describes the relationship between orthography and literacy in twenty five orthographic systems This section serves as a handy reference source for understanding the orthographies of languages as diverse as Arabic Chinese English Icelandic Kannada and Kishwahili Part II Literacy Acquisition From a Cross Linguistic Perspective makes direct comparisons of literacy acquisition in English and other orthographic systems The overall conclusion that emerges from these eight chapters is that the depth of an orthographic system does influence literacy acquisition primarily by slowing down the acquisition of reading skills Even so studies show that dyslexic readers can be found across all orthographic systems whether shallow or deep which shows that dyslexia also has internal cognitive and biological components Part III Literacy Acquisition Instructional Perspectives explores literacy acquisition from developmental and instructional perspectives and ends with a look into the future of literacy research This Handbook is appropriate for scholars researchers and graduate students in such diverse fields as cognitive psychology psycholinguistics literacy education English as a second language and communication disorders

Catalog United States Armed Forces Institute,1971 Approaches to Cognition through Text and Discourse Tuija Virtanen,2011-05-03 The purpose of this book is to explore the overlapping area of study that discourse linguists and cognitive linguists are interested in In doing so the volume contributes to bridging the gap between these two large groups of linguists who share an interest in discourse processing but approach the area from very different perspectives and frames of reference The starting point of this volume is text and discourse The book includes an overview section and a number of carefully selected contributions which highlight central issues in the study of text and discourse attempting to give them cognitive explanations In responding to the current interest in the area of discourse and cognition the volume has adopted a wide scope which allows its individual chapters to focus on textual and situational contexts as well as the context of culture and society at large The volume also provides its readership with a useful selection of methods used in the studies which form the basis of its chapters The contributions all by established linguists with highest qualifications present new findings which have important theoretical implications They offer unique and fresh analyses of central discourse phenomena in cognitive light and revealing discussions of the avenues opened to us at this stage of the development of the study of discourse and cognition This accessible research volume will be essential reading for scholars and advanced students of linguistics and languages

Text Messaging and Literacy - The Evidence Clare Wood,Nenagh Kemp,Beverly Plester,2013-08-22 Well thought out and timely This is the leading group in the world working on texting and literacy and they have a strong track record of publications It would also be the first book as they say to deal with the subject at an academic level The focus on education is important as this is where most of the anxieties lie It will be a major st

DOD Pam United States. Office of Armed Forces Information and Education, New Perspectives on Translanguaging and Education BethAnne Paulsrud, Jenny Rosén, Boglárka Straszer, Åsa Wedin, 2017-05-16 This edited collection explores the immense potential of translanguaging in educational settings and highlights teachers and students negotiating language ideologies in their everyday communicative practices It makes a significant contribution to scholarship on translanguaging and considers the need for pedagogy to reflect and embrace diversity The chapters provide rich empirical research and document translanguaging in varied educational contexts with studies from pre school to adult education in different mainly European countries where English is not the dominant language Together they expand our understanding of translanguaging and how it can be applied to a variety of settings This book will be of interest to students and researchers especially in education language education and applied linguistics as well as to professionals and policymakers

Fixed Expressions Ritva Laury, Tsuyoshi Ono, 2020-11-15 This volume concerns the structure and use of fixed expressions in a range of typologically genetically and areally distinct languages The chapters consider the use contexts of fixed expressions at the same time taking seriously the need to account for their structural aspects Formulaicity is taken here as a central feature of everyday language use and fixed expressions as a basic utterance building resource for interaction Our crosslinguistic investigation suggests that humans have the propensity to automatize ways to handle various discourse level needs for specific sequential contexts by creating semi fixed expressions based on frequent patterns The chapters examine topics such as the degrees and types of fixedness the emergence of fixed expressions their connection to social action the new understanding of traditional linguistic categories in light of fixedness crosslinguistic variation in types of fixed expressions as well as their non verbal aspects The volume situates the notion of units of language at the intersection of interaction and formal structure as part of a larger effort to replace rule based conceptions of language with a more dynamic realistic and pragmatically based model of language The articles are based on naturally occurring data mostly everyday conversation in English Estonian Finnish Japanese and Mandarin with some crosslinguistic comparison
