Subject To Change Reading Feminist Writing Gender Culture Hardcover:

Subject to Change Nancy K. Miller, 1988 What can reading for the gender of signature tell us about the act of reading as a poetics and politics In Subject to Change Miller demonstrates the textual effects of female authorship in the production reception and circulation of women's writing In the wake of Roland Barthes's famously Dead Author Miller argues for the cultural vitality of feminist writing subjects The Poetics of Gender Nancy K. Miller, 1986 Does gender have a poetics What difference does gender make How does it affect writing reading and the functions of text in society The Poetics of Gender is a brilliant assembly of leading feminist critics whose collective effort presents the most up to date research on these important issues The range of techniques and theories represented here are applied across a broad spectrum of texts and cultural forms extending from women's writing of the Renaissance and the fiction of George Sand to the relation between quilting and nineteenth century literary forms the pornography of Georges Bataille and the theories of Julia Kristeva But Enough about Me Nancy K. Miller, 2002 Through the memoirs of contemporaries and pieces of her autobiography Miller explores the unexpected ways that the stories of other people's lives give meaning to our own But Enough About Me is a group biography or even an ethnography of women primarily middle class and urban now in their fifties and sixties The book also mounts a defense of the memoir against accusations of terminal narcissism by showing how the forms of life writing memoirs diaries essays are as much about others as they are about their authors Men of Their Words Nigel Harkness, 2007 Whereas the centrality of femininity to nineteenth century French fiction has been the focus of widespread critical attention masculinity has until recently received little sustained treatment in either the literary or socio historical domains In this book Nigel Harkness uses the fiction of George Sand 1804-1876 the pre eminent woman writer of the period to explore questions of masculinity as they pertain to the nineteenth century French novel and to map out new approaches to the study of literary masculinity Drawing on contemporary theories of gender and narrative Harkness reveals how Sand's novels repeatedly focus on a nexus of language masculinity and power in which narrative is both a vehicle for the expression of manhood and a site where masculinity is discursively performed Masculinity is thus reconfigured in Sand's fiction as an identity constituted as much through words as through actions Analysis of the performances of masculinity staged in Sand's novels opens onto an exploration of gendered processes of literary representation the links between masculinity and the doxa the equation of writing and power the homosocial function of acts of narration and the masculinity of authorship and authority Feminist Studies, 1989 Choice, 1999 The Publishers Weekly, 1987 Idol of Suburbia Annette Federico, 2000 Despite the ridicule of reviewers Marie Corelli 1855-1924 was the most popular novelist of her time Federico English James Madison University points out the creative combative and contradictory nature of Corelli's participation in the culture and argues that her attempts to create her own image illuminate continuing debates about literary value class hegemony and gender politics Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR GLQ, 1996 Resources in Education, 1998-07
