Subject Of Philosophy:

Philosophical Skepticism as the Subject of Art David Carrier, 2022-12-01 The artwork of Maria Bussmann a trained academic German philosopher and a significant visual artist provides an ideal test case for a philosophical study of visual art Bussmann has internalized the relationship between art and philosophy In this exploration of the history of German aesthetics through Bussmann's work David Carrier places the philosophical tradition in the context of contemporary visual culture Each chapter focuses on the arguments of a major philosopher whose concerns Bussmann has dealt with as an artist Kant Hegel Merleau Ponty Wittgenstein and Arendt Offering comparative accounts of artists and philosophers whose work is of especial relevance Carrier shows how Bussmann responds visually to writings of philosophers in art that has an elusive but essential relationship to theorizing Tackling the question of whether philosophical subjects can be presented visually Carrier offers a fresh perspective on the German idealist position through the visual art of 21st century artist steeped in the tradition and continually challenging it through her work

Fundamental Philosophy Jaime Luciano Balmes, 1871

Philosophy in a Meaningless Life James Tartaglia, 2015-12-17 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Philosophy in a Meaningless Life provides an account of the nature of philosophy which is rooted in the question of the meaning of life It makes a powerful and vivid case for believing that this question is neither obscure nor obsolete but reflects a quintessentially human concern to which other traditional philosophical problems can be readily related allowing them to be reconnected with natural interest and providing a diagnosis of the typical lines of opposition across philosophy's debates James Tartaglia looks at the various ways philosophers have tried to avoid the conclusion that life is meaningless and in the process have distanced philosophy from the concept of transcendence Rejecting all of this Tartaglia embraces nihilism we are here with nothing to do and uses transcendence both to provide a new solution to the problem of consciousness and to explain away perplexities about time and universals He concludes that with more self awareness philosophy can attain higher status within a culture increasingly in need of it
