Mary Hays's 'Female Biography' Mary Spongberg, Gina Luria Walker, 2020-06-04 The essays included in Mary Hays's Female Biography Collective Biography as Enlightenment Feminism emerge from the authors collaboration in producing the first modern edition of Hays's work in the Chawton House Library Edition 2013 2014 This book explores Hays's larger ambitions to lay the foundation for an encyclopaedic work by for and about women The scholars contributions to this volume engage with some of the multiple problems and possibilities that Female Biography presented Drawing on this effort individual scholars examine Hays's attempts to correct existing masculinist constructs which framed the universe of knowledge then and persist in our time Hays perceived that these had the cumulative effect of rendering women invisible She responded to such absence by providing examples of the extent of female worth across Western society Other contributions focus specifically on the subjects of Hays's entries looking at how she used source material and laid the groundwork for future biographical studies of women's lives Both Female Biography and Hays herself have continually presented difficulties in categorization not quite Enlightenment not quite Victorian either This book recontextualizes her work demonstrating the radicalism and originality of her feminism even in its post Wollstonecraftian phase as well as the longevity of her influence As such it will be of interest to those conducting research into Hays her subjects and the evolution of life writing by women This book was originally published as a special issue of Women's Writing

Writing Feminist Lives Malin Lidström Brock, 2017-05-05 This book draws attention to the controversy that surrounds Betty Friedan Germaine Greer Gloria Steinem and Simone de Beauvoir's lives and the important role that their life stories have played in their feminist writing Directly and indirectly the four women have contributed to battles over feminism's meaning through autobiographically informed political writing Inevitably therefore their biographers are also participants in these battles yet not always on the same side as their subjects Writing Feminist Lives introduces a further fold of nuance into considerations of biography and feminism by showing that the biographers of the four women have made methodological choices that reflect their loyalty to or their scepticism towards competing ideological definitions of the exemplary feminist life

Egyptian Revolutions Amal Treacher Kabesh, 2017-03-16 The socio political context of Egypt is full of the affectual burdens of history The revolutions of both 1952 and 2011 proclaimed that the oppressive colonial past had been overthrown decisively So why has the oppression perpetrated by previous regimes been repeated What impact has this had on the lives of ordinary citizens Egyptian Revolutions looks at the impact of the current events in Egypt on citizens in relation to matters of belonging identification and repetition It contests the tendency within postcolonial theory to understand these events as resistance to Western imperialism and the positioning of activists as agents of sustainable change Instead it pays close attention to the continuities from the past and the contradictions at work in relation to identification repetition and conflict Combining postcolonial theory with a psychosocial studies framework it explores the complexities of inhabiting a society in a state of conflict and offers a careful analysis of current theories of gender religion and secularism agency resistance and compliance in a society riven with divisions and conflicts

Provocations Cathryn McConaghy, 2006

Textbook Mourning Become... Liz Stanley, 2006-10-17 This work demonstrates that much of what we have traditionally understood about concentration camps run by the British during the South African War originates with the testimony solicited from Boer proto nationalist circles Using detailed archival evidence Stanley shows that much of the history of the camps results from a deliberate imposition of post memory a process by which memory shapes and supports a racialized nationalist framework
