Change Susie J. Tharu, 1998 Texts And Their Worlds - I Literature Of India An Introduction Anna

Kurian, 2006-10-05 Texts and Their Worlds I Literatures of India An Introduction attempts to introduce students to literatures of India. The selections provide a sampling of diverse texts which open windows into the worlds in which they were created. They bid the reader to think to understand and most importantly to deploy those ideas beyond the classroom. The book integrates Indian writing in English with Indian literatures written in English in India alongside all other literatures produced in India, providing tremendous scope for discussions of commonalities and differences. Key features: A brief introduction to each author and his/her popular works; A critical write-up on each literary piece to prepare students to read the full text; A glossary of words and phrases to facilitate proficiency in reading; Discussion questions to encourage literary and critical analysis.

The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Literary Studies Neil Lazarus, 2004-07-15 Offers a lucid introduction to postcolonial studies, one of the most important strands in recent literary theory and cultural studies. A Companion to Postcolonial Studies Henry Schwarz, Sangeeta Ray, 2008-04-15 This volume examines the tumultuous changes that have occurred and are still occurring in the aftermath of European colonization of the globe from 1492 to 1947. Ranges widely over the major themes, regions, theories, and practices of postcolonial study. Presents original essays by the leading proponents of postcolonial study in the Americas, Europe, India, Africa, East and West Asia. Provides clear introductions to the major social and political movements underlying colonization and decolonization; accessible histories of the literature and culture and separate regions affected by European colonization. Features introductory essays on the major thinkers and intellectual schools that have informed strategies of national liberation worldwide. Offers an incisive summary of the long history and theory of modern European colonization in local detail and global scale. Genres of Modernity Dirk

Wiemann, 2008 Genres of Modernity maps the conjunctures of critical theory and literary production in contemporary India. The volume situates a sample of representative novels in the discursive environment of the ongoing critical debate on modernity in India and offers for the first time a rigorous attempt to hold together the stimulating impulses of postcolonial theory, subaltern studies, and the boom of Indian fiction in English. Combining close readings of literary texts from Salman Rushdie to Kiran Nagarkar with a wide range of philosophical, sociological, and historiographic reflections, Genres of Modernity is of interest not only for students of postcolonial literatures but for academics in the fields of Cultural Studies at large. BOOK JACKET The Mahatma Misunderstood Snehal Shingavi, 2014-11-01 The Mahatma Misunderstood studies the relationship between the production of novels in late colonial India and nationalist agitation promoted by the Indian

National Congress The volume examines the process by which novelists who were critically engaged with Gandhian nationalism and who saw both the potentials and the pitfalls of Gandhian political strategies came to be seen as the Mahatma's standard bearers rather than his loyal opposition DALIT ISSUES AND CHALLENGES Thummapudi Bharathi, 2019-06-06
