Subsaharan Africa In The 1990s Challenges To Democracy And Development:

Africa Beyond the Post-Colonial Alfred B. Zack-Williams, 2017-07-05 Drawing together contributions from academics based in Africa and its diaspora this work is unique in considering the situation and status of Africans globally It explores a broad range of contemporary issues from development and culture to linguistics within the socio political framework of Africa in the 21st century Human Rights Dilemmas in the Developing World E. Ike Udogu, Sambuddha Ghatak, 2017-12-13 This book brings the quandaries that many minority groups confront in Latin America Asia and Africa into the limelight The chapters in this volume written by experts on this subject matter examine and provide invaluable solutions to the human rights infractions in Argentina Brazil Colombia Guatemala Mexico India Indonesia Malaysia Burundi Central African Republic Congo Brazzaville Angola Cameroon Gabon Nigeria and South Africa Subsaharan Africa in the 1990s Rukhsana A. Siddiqui, 1997-06-25 The economic performance of African countries south of the Sahara generally has been poor during the past two decades External factors such as high oil prices deteriorating terms of trade and wars and formidable internal factors such as corruption chauvinism authoritarianism and violence have continued to plague the region Whereas in the 1980s the Sub Sahara was overwhelmed by drought devaluation and debt the 1990s have brought the paradox of civil strife and a complex transition to democracy This volume surveys the major political economic social ecological and gender related aspects of Subsaharan Africa s struggle toward democracy Its essays pose two fundamental sets of ideas that the internal equilibrium can be restored only through institutional changes with these countries and that the political and economic dilemmas in the region are closely related to issues of gender and the environment The volume will be of interest to scholars and students of comparative politics developmental economics and African studies Leading Issues in Black Political Economy Thomas D. Boston, 2018-01-16 Leading Issues in Black Political Economy brings together the foremost experts on issues ranging from employment training and education of African Americans It also emphasizes macro economic concerns of business development with special emphasis on long term trends of black owned businesses The work emphasizes welfare considerations in an anti welfare epoch and the role of affirmative action now that it is under attack Attention is given to the role of race in the continuing disparity of income distribution in American society The highlights of Leading Issues include An Employment and Business Strategy for the Next Century A Comment by Thomas D Boston Long Term Trends and Prospects for Black owned Business by Andrew F Brimmer Is the U S Small Business Administration a Racist Institution by Timothy Bates Worker Re Training and Labor Market Outcomes A New Focus for Labor Research by James B Stewart Race Cognitive Skills Psychological Capital and Wages by Arthur H Goldsmith William Darity Jr and Jonathan R Veum and Reparations and Public Policy by Richard F America The overall findings suggest that empirical wage equation specifications do matter The role of psychological capital is critical in the marketplace Race is indeed an important determinant of wages especially when the influence of both cognitive skills and psychological capital are included in the wage equation This volume will be of crucial interest to economists political scientists sociologists and policy analysts studying African American life Thomas D Boston is editor of the Review of Black Political Economy and professor of economics at the Georgia Institute of Technology He is the co editor with Catherine L Ross of The Inner City Urban Poverty and Economic Development in the Next Century also available from Transaction

Civil Society and Democracy in Africa Nelson Kasfir, 2013-04-03 This work critically reviews the conventional uses of the concept of civil society in promoting democratization in Africa and suggests omissions and modifications are needed for more accurate analyses

Ghana in Search of Development Dan-Bright Dzorgbo, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2001 When Ghana became independent in 1957 becoming the first country in Sub Saharan Africa to banish colonialism there was a general optimism that irreversible socio economic development was about to unfold But by the end of the 1970s Ghana paradoxically became the first country in Twentieth Century Africa to have experienced socio economic decline What failed Ghana This book seeks to answer this question By combining sociological economic political and institutional perspectives this book focuses on the interplay between state politics and socio economic development It provides a model which suggests that Ghana s postcolonial development has suffered mainly as a result of the failure or inability of governing elites to develop consensual politics and a clearly specified long term development objective that could be widely understood accepted and have relevance for policy making This book presents a much needed self assessment of the post colonial development experience which contends that governance economic management and institution building are basic challenges without which the search for development is likely to falter

Oppositional Discourses and Democracies Michael Huspek, 2009-09-10 When citizens take to the streets pack assembly halls or share their ideas through the press they give voice to truths and logic that have otherwise been given little or no airing through available institutional channels This collection explores the tensions between democratic states and the dynamics of citizen voice

Escape from Domination in Africa Bruce Baker, 2001 The Making, Unmaking and Remaking of Africa's Independence and Post-Independence Constitutions Nicodemus Fru Awasom, Hlengiwe Portia Dlamini, 2024-10-09 This book provides a collection of chapters that critically explore the making and development of Africa s independence constitutions through the different phases in their full generality Since independence various constitutions from African countries have undergone a succession of changes triggered by either the domestic or international environment or both These processes constitute autonomous epochal waves or phases of constitution making which need to be unpacked historicised and explored in a systematic manner This work intended as a distinctive object of positive analysis historicizes the independence constitutions of selected African states on either a country specific or a comparative basis A historical approach to the continental study of constitutions is rare meaning the continental coverage of the book is justified by Africa s rich diversity reflected in its multiple monarchical and colonial backgrounds The book is of interest to academics interested in having a panoramic view of Africa s constitutional development from a historical perspective

African

Renaissance in the Millennium Emmanuel Ike Udogu, 2007-01-01 The book brings into sharp focus some of the major political social and economic issues that might impede Africa's development project in the 21st century. It debates and suggests ways that policy makers might tackle these issues in order to promote the vision of the continent's transformation in the millennium.
