Subversion As Foreign Policy The Secret Eisenhower And Dulles Debacle In Indonesia:

Subversion as Foreign Policy Audrey Kahin, George McTurnan Kahin, 1997 Based on access to secret documents and interviews with many of the participants Subversion as Foreign Policy is an extraordinary account of civil war in Indonesia provoked by President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and resulting in the killing of thousands of Indonesians and the destruction of much of the country's air force and navy This startling new book reveals a covert intervention by the United States in Indonesia in the late 1950s involving among other things the supply of thousands of weapons the creation and deployment of a secret CIA air force and logistical support from the Seventh Fleet The intervention occurred on such a massive scale that it is difficult to believe it has been kept almost totally secret from the American public for nearly 40 years And this CIA operation proved to be even more disastrous than the Bay of Pigs San Francisco Chronicle An exemplary study of an ignominious chapter of the Cold War in Southeast Asia Journal of Asian Studies Subversion as Foreign Policy is a remarkable book The Kahins have provided a rare insight into the workings of U S policy towards Indonesia both clandestine and official London Times Literary Supplement Subversion as Foreign Policy Audrey Kahin, 1995 Subversion As Foreign Policy Audrey R. Kahin, George M. Kahin, 2015-08-17 United States Policy Towards Indonesia in the Truman and Eisenhower Years A. Roadnight, 2002-06-19 This analysis of US policy towards Indonesian nationalism concludes that Truman's support for independence was based on his Cold War priorities and not principled backing for self determination It reveals how Eisenhower's New Look led to a disastrous CIA backed intervention in 1957-58 and propelled Indonesia towards the Soviet bloc Exposing the extent of Australian influence on US policy this account reveals how the personal prejudices of Eisenhower and John Foster Dulles undermined the notion of rational policymaking The Killing Season Geoffrey B. Robinson, 2018-02-13 The Killing Season explores one of the largest and swiftest yet least examined instances of mass killing and incarceration in the twentieth century the shocking antileftist purge that gripped Indonesia in 1965-66 leaving some five hundred thousand people dead and more than a million others in detention An expert in modern Indonesian history genocide and human rights Geoffrey Robinson sets out to account for this violence and to end the troubling silence surrounding it In doing so he sheds new light on broad and enduring historical questions How do we account for instances of systematic mass killing and detention Why are some of these crimes remembered and punished while others are forgotten What are the social and political ramifications of such acts and such silence Challenging conventional narratives of the mass violence of 1965-66 as arising spontaneously from religious and social conflicts Robinson argues convincingly that it was instead the product of a deliberate campaign led by the Indonesian Army He also details the critical role played by the United States Britain and other major powers in facilitating mass murder and incarceration Robinson concludes by probing the disturbing long term consequences of the violence for millions of survivors and Indonesian society as a whole Based on a rich body of primary and secondary sources The Killing Season is the definitive account of a pivotal period in Indonesian history It also makes a powerful contribution to wider debates about the dynamics and legacies of mass killing incarceration and genocide Dirty Hands and Vicious Deeds Samuel

Totten,2018-01-10 These original essays show how the US government repeatedly aided certain regimes as they planned and then carried out crimes against humanity and genocide What makes the collection unique and chilling is the inclusion of declassified documents generated by the US government at the time memoranda telegrams letters talking points cables discussion papers and situation reports In his introduction Totten offers a critical assessment of US foreign policy as it pertains to genocide and crimes against humanity and discusses the differences between those two terms In the chapters that follow each author presents a detailed analysis of a particular case of crimes against humanity or genocide by a foreign government against its own citizens and discusses why and how the United States government was complicit The Pacific
