Succasunna New Jersey:

The History of New Jersey Thomas Francis Gordon, 1834 The Industrial Directory of New Jersey, 1909 The Winds of Barclay Street John Ferris, 2013-10 John Ferris wrote The Winds of Barclay Street on behalf of the men and women who worked on the New York World Telegram and Sun. After the prestigious newspaper's demise in 1967, he often reminisced with his former colleagues fondly remembering the antics and tomfoolery of fellow journalists as well as their reportage of serious news. Their past seemed a wondrous experience that must be preserved before it faded completely, consigning their significant if often foolish history to oblivion. The Winds of Barclay Street recalls comical episodes of the reporters on daily assignment for news as well as the highly gifted staff writers and editors who enlivened their working hours by writing witty amusing articles not found in straight news. The book covers the heady days of the newspaper's prime through its sad but inevitable decline and eventual demise due to economic and social conditions in New York City of the 1960s. Today the old Barclay Street is unrecognizable as giant behemoths of architectural stone and granite cover the former location of a once great newspaper and the small businesses of lower Manhattan. The Winds of Barclay Street recalls a lost era and the individual men and women who wrote a newspaper read by thousands of commuters on subway, bus, train or ferry and by subscribers at home.
