1. Examinations – Good or Bad?

It was the first day of our summer vacation. Unlike my school days, I woke up early since I had to make plans for spending the vacation in a fruitful manner.

Before I could start, my mobile phone rang and Jyoti, my friend called up to invite me to her place to spend the evening with her. She had also asked other friends to come, so that we could enjoy some time together, without worrying about homework or unit tests.

I reached her place at 4 pm and later Raghav, Meena, Jaya and the other joined in. We watched the movie 'Kung fu Panda' and enjoyed it thoroughly. Aunty, Jyoti's mother, served snacks and other refreshments. She herself had made all the food, which was simply delicious.

After the movie got over and we were about to leave, Jyoti stopped us and said that she had a surprise for us. Little did we know that Jyoti had got ten passes for the cricket match between Royal Challengers and Delhi Dare Devils and she would be taking us to watch the match that evening at 8 pm.

When she ultimately revealed the surprise, all of us shouted with joy and thanked Jyoti for the passes.

We reached the Feroz Shah Kotla Stadium, the venue of the match, at 7:30 pm. We painted our faces with colours of different teams and bought flags to cheer the players. The match was enthralling and I managed to get the autograph of my favourite player Virat Kohli. He was declared the Man of the Match since he helped the Royal Challengers, the team I supported, to win the match.

When we left the venue it was around 11 pm, but our parents did not mind since we had informed them earlier and moreover, Jyoti's elder brother accompanied us.

It was a memorable evening. I could not thank Jyoti enough for the surprise that she had given us. I personally enjoyed it very much since I got the opportunity to see my favourite sportsperson play his best and even meet him face to face. What more could I have asked for!
