Sufism And Its Impact On Muslim Society In South Asia:

Sufism and Society John Curry, Erik Ohlander, 2012-06-12 This book examines the relationship between Sufism and society in the later medieval and early modern Islamic world Thematically organized it includes case studies drawn from the Middle Eastern Turkic Persian and South Asian regions It looks to reconceptualize the study of Sufism during an under researched period of its history

Sufi Women of South Asia Tahera Aftab, 2022-05-16 In Sufi Women of South Asia Veiled Friends of God the first biographical compendium of hundred and forty one women from the eleventh to the twentieth century Tahera Aftab fills a serious gap in the existing scholarship regarding the historical presence of women in Islam and brings women to the centre of the expanding literature on Sufism The book s translated excerpts from the original Farsi and Urdu sources that were never put together create a much needed English language source base on Sufism and Muslim women The book questions the spurious religious and cultural traditions that patronise gender inequalities in Muslim societies and convincingly proves that these pious women were exemplars of Islamic piety who as true spiritual masters avoided its public display

Sufism in South Asia Riazul Islam, 2002 The Book Traces The Rise And Evolution Of Sufism In The Early Centuries And Concentrates On Its Impact On Muslim Society In 14Th Century India It Presents Both Sides Of The Sufi Picture Its Singular Achievement In Strengthening Moral Fibre And Its Ruinous Influence In Cultivating Credulousness And Superstition

Indian Sufism since the Seventeenth Century Nile Green, 2006-09-27 Sufism is often regarded as standing mystically aloof from its wider cultural settings By turning this perspective on its head Indian Sufism since the Seventeenth Century reveals the politics and poetry of Indian Sufism through the study of Islamic sainthood in the midst of a cosmopolitan Indian society comprising migrants soldiers litterateurs and princes Placing the mystical traditions of Indian Islam within their cultural contexts this interesting study focuses on the shrines of four Sufi saints in the neglected Deccan region and their changing roles under the rule of the Mughals the Nizams of Haydarabad and after 1948 the Indian nation In particular Green studies the city of Awrangabad examining the vibrant intellectual and cultural history of this city as part of the independent state of Haydarabad He employs a combination of historical texts and anthropological fieldwork which provide a fresh perspective on developments of devotional Islam in South Asia over the past three centuries giving a fuller understanding of Sufism and Muslim saints in South Asia

Islamic Sufism Unbound R. Rozeahnal, 2016-04-30 Robert Rozeahnal traces the ritual practices and identity politics of a contemporary Sufi order in Pakistan the Chishti Sabris He takes multiple perspectives from the rich Urdu writings of Twentieth Century Sufi masters to the complex spiritual life of contemporary disciples and the order s growing transnational networks

Sufism in India and Central Asia Nasir Raza Khan, 2022-10-06 Sufism in India and Central Asia is an attempt to put into perspective the relevance of Sufism the concept and teaching and to provide a realistic assessment of its role in India and Central Asia The people of these regions with different ethnic backgrounds cultures and languages have been intermingling for many centuries as seen in the cross current exchanges of religious ideas and belief The word Sufism popularly known as mysticism is most likely derived from the Arabic word suf meaning wool more specifically it means the person wearing ascetic woollen garments Sufism is deeply rooted in Islam and its development began in the late 7th and 8th centuries The present volume is an attempt to look for answers to questions in relation to Sufism in India and Central Asia and to evaluate its relevance in the contemporary period A group of distinguished scholars from India and Central Asia have contributed papers to this volume This volume will be useful to students and researchers working on social and cultural aspects of India and Central Asia

Perceptions of Christianity Among South Asian Muslims in America Paul S. Biswas, 2020-07-13 This book explores and articulates perceptions of Christianity among South Asian Muslims in America The South Asian Muslim population in America includes many immigrants and their families This book analyzes the perceptions of Christianity held by South Asian Muslims in three areas theological sociocultural and ethical moral This book addresses both positive and negative perceptions of Christianity although it mainly focuses on the misperceptions that give rise to conflicting views between Muslim and Christian The primary goal of this book is to consider how flawed perceptions hinder the effective communication of the Christian gospel in efforts to witness to Muslims in America This book further explores the sociocultural and ethnic differences among South Asian Muslims and the ways in which their perceptions of Christianity differ More specifically this book identifies the factors most likely to influence both positive and negative perceptions of Christianity among South Asian Muslims in America This book also briefly explores the multi faceted historical background of Islam in South Asia and the impact Islam has had on the assumptions and perceptions of Christianity of South Asian people in general and specifically on the thinking and perceptions of South Asian Muslims in America This book includes qualitative research using an ethnographic case study approach Data presented in this book are collected from two different sources scholarly literature related to the focal group and structured interviews with a representative sample of South Asian Muslims in America The anticipated result is to provide useful information and insights so Christian practitioners can develop useful tools for building harmonious relationships with South Asian Muslims in America and effectively communicating the gospel to them
