The King In Every Man Evolutionary Trends In Onitsha Ibo Society And Culture:

The King in Every Man Richard N. Henderson, 1972-01-01 Different Faces of Attachment Hiltrud Otto, Heidi Keller, 2014-07-17 This groundbreaking reconceptualization of attachment theory brings together leading scholars from psychology anthropology and related fields to reformulate the theory to fit the cultural realities of our world It will be of particular interest to scholars and graduate students interested in developmental psychology developmental anthropology evolutionary biology and cross cultural psychology The Forging of Israel Paula M. McNutt, 1990-01-01 Africa and the Americas José C. Curto, Renée Soulodre-LaFrance, 2005 A collection of essays reflecting an important structural feature of the slave trade its circularity Starting with the removal from Africa the collection then carries into discussions of ethnic identity religion and creolisation Comparative essays develop the theme of root experience in Africa against the facts of life for disenfranchised slaves painting a picture of a cohesive worldview shaped by the slave voyage and African beliefs The collection returns to Africa with analyses of the impact on Africa of formerly slaveholding nations The World They Made Together Mechal Sobel, 2021-06-08 In the recent past enormous creative energy has gone into the study of American slavery with major explorations of the extent to which African culture affected the culture of black Americans and with an almost totally new assessment of slave culture as Afro American Accompanying this new awareness of the African values brought into America however is an automatic assumption that white traditions influenced black ones In this view although the institution of slavery is seen as important blacks are not generally treated as actors nor is their divergent culture seen as having had a wide ranging effect on whites Historians working in this area generally assume two social systems in America one black and one white and cultural divergence between slaves and masters It is the thesis of this book that blacks Africans and Afro Americans deeply influenced white s perceptions values and identity and that although two world views existed there was a deep symbiotic relatedness that must be explored if we are to understand either or both of them This exploration raises many questions and suggests many possibilities and probabilities but it also establishes how thoroughly whites and blacks intermixed within the system of slavery and how extensive was the resulting cultural interaction Interface Between Igbo Theology and Christianity Akuma-Kalu Njoku, Elochukwu Uzukwu, 2014-10-21 Interface between Igbo Theology and Christianity is a timely book that provides new scholarly thinking concerning the convergence of Christianity and Igbo Traditional Religion taking place in the Igbo culture area This book a fruit of multidisciplinary conversation among Igbo scholars and Igbophiles offers concepts themes issues and case studies with deep ethnographic details some of which do not exist anywhere else in print It is a major statement of how modern Igbo scholars social scientists philosophers theologians liturgists and active pastors and parish priests understand the intersection of Igbo Traditional Religion and Christianity in postcolonial Nigeria The editors and authors of the chapters of this book draw from their wealth of experience to offer to students scholars researchers community based organizations and NGOs and practitioners in interfaith dialogue a must have manual to engage in and develop mutual respect and trust among Christian denominations and between them and Igbo Traditional Religion This book will serve as a blueprint for a deep dialogue among the Igbo in both city and rural settings in the context of clan and community life context and in the Christian parish setting The book will certainly appeal to numerous communities in Africa wishing to share similar local experiences and collective memories but which do not have the channels to talk about themselves in scholarly writing

Fighting the Slave Trade Sylviane Anna Diouf, 2003-10-24 Annotation Explores in a systematic manner the strategies Africans used to protect and defend themselves and their communities from the onslaught of the Atlantic slave trade and how they assaulted it

Captives and Voyagers Alexander X. Byrd, 2010-09 Jamestown and Plymouth serve as iconic images of British migration to the New World A century later however when British migration was at its peak the vast majority of men women and children crisscrossing the Atlantic on English ships were of

African not English descent Captives and Voyagers a compelling study from Alexander X Byrd traces the departures voyages and landings of enslaved and free blacks who left their homelands in the eighteenth century for British colonies and examines how displacement and resettlement shaped migrant society and in turn Britain's Atlantic empire Captives and Voyagers breaks away from the conventional image of transatlantic migration and illustrates how black men and women enslaved and free came to populate the edges of an Anglo Atlantic world Whether as settlers in Sierra Leone or as slaves in Jamaica these migrants brought a deep and affecting experience of being in motion to their new homelands and as they became firmly ensconced in the particulars of their new local circumstances they both shaped and were themselves molded by the demands of the British Atlantic world of which they were an essential part Byrd focuses on the two largest and most significant streams of black dislocation the forced immigration of Africans from the Biafran interior of present day southeastern Nigeria to Jamaica as part of the British slave trade and the emigration of free blacks from Great Britain and British North America to Sierra Leone in West Africa By paying particular attention to the social and cultural effects of transatlantic migration on the groups themselves and focusing as well on their place in the British Empire Byrd illuminates the meaning and experience of slavery and liberty for people whose journeys were similarly beset by extreme violence and catastrophe By following the movement of this representative population Captives and Voyagers provides a vitally important view of the British colonial world its intersection with the African diaspora Captives and Voyagers traces the departures voyages and landings of enslaved and free blacks who left their homelands in the eighteenth century for British colonies and examines how displacement and resettlement shaped migrant society and in turn Britain's Atlantic empire Alexander X Byrd focuses on the two largest and most significant streams of black dislocation the forced migration of Africans from the Biafran interior of present day southeastern Nigeria to Jamaica as part of the British slave trade and the journeys of free blacks from Great Britain and British North America to Sierra Leone in West Africa By paying particular attention to the social and cultural effects of transatlantic migration on the groups themselves and focusing as well on their place in the British Empire Byrd illuminates the meaning and experience of slavery and liberty for people whose movements were similarly beset by extreme violence and catastrophe

The Women's War of 1929 Marc Matera, Misty L. Bastian, S. Kingsley Kent, Susan Kingsley Kent, 2011-10-27 In 1929 tens of thousands of south eastern Nigerian women rose up against British authority in what is known as the Women's War This book brings together for the first time the multiple perspectives of the war's colonized and colonial participants and examines its various actions within a single gendered analytical frame Worship as Body

Language E. Elochukwu Uzukwu, 1997 The body language or gestures of praise adoration contemplation ritual dance and care of the neighbor are meaningful to the ethnic group African Christians tune into these body motions to express the one Christian faith In Worship as Body Language Father Uzukwu details how the patterns of the African ritual assemblies and sacred narratives have merged with Jewish Gospel and early Church traditions to create living Christian communities and liturgies Game Over? Christophe Chalamet, Andreas Dettwiler, Mariel Mazzocco, Ghislain Waterlot, 2017-09-11 Modern science informs us about the end of the universe game over is the message which lies ahead of our world Christian theology on the other hand sees in the end not the cessation of all life but rather an invitation to play again in God's presence Is there a way to articulate together such vastly different claims Eschatology is a theological topic which merits being considered from several different angles This book seeks to do this by gathering contributions from esteemed and fresh voices from the fields of biblical exegesis history systematic theology philosophy and ethics How can we make sense today of Jesus and the New Testament's eschatological message How did he his early disciples and the Christian tradition envision the end of the world Is there a way for us to articulate together what modern science tells us about the end of the universe with the biblical and Christian claims about God who judges and who will wipe every tear Eschatology has been at the heart of Christian theology for 100 years in the West What should we do with this legacy Are there ways to move our reflection forward in our century Scholars and other interested readers will find here a wealth of insights Emergence of African Capitalism

John Iliffe, 2015-12-31 African Intellectuals and the State of the Continent Olayiwola Abegunrin, Sabella Abidde, 2018-07-26 This festschrift is composed in honor of a distinguished scholar and Pan Africanist Professor Sulayman S Nyang whose career and intellectual pursuits spans more than 45 years much of it at Howard University Nyang's contributions to African affairs transcend the scope of the academic world as he served as First Secretary and Head of Chancery of the Gambian Embassy in Saudi Arabia from 1975 to 1977 and consultant to the World Bank and United Nations agencies In addition Professor Nyang served as the President of the Interfaith Conference of Metropolitan Washington DC and a member of the boards of many academic journals and organizations of Islamic Studies in the USA He has published copiously on a variety of issues affecting continental Africans Africans in the Diaspora and beyond He has published and collaborated on dozens of books and book chapters and more than 100 articles in referred journals Women, State, and Ideology Haleh Afshar, 1987-01-01 Women State and Ideology examines the underlying ideologies that make female subordination a universal experience It analyzes government policies directed at women in African and Asian countries It argues too that ideologies which oppress women are removed only by prolonged struggle and then only after fundamental political and social changes have been made The authors evaluate different policies aimed at women in Nigeria Zimbabwe Ghana Iran Malaysia China India Israel and Vietnam Despite different political social and economic conditions there exists a general assumption that women should be responsible for domestic duties Drawing on new research the authors indicate that these different national contexts require separate emphases and tactics One common factor is clear however that despite many setbacks a growing consciousness exists among women as well as increased opposition to oppressive measures

Europe and the People Without History Eric R. Wolf, 2010-08-22 The intention of this work is to show that European expansion not only transformed the historical trajectory of non European societies but also reconstituted the historical accounts of these societies before European intervention It asserts that anthropology must pay more attention to history AMAZON The Igbo Intellectual Tradition G. Chuku,2016-04-27 In this groundbreaking collection leading historians Africanists and other scholars document the life and work of twelve Igbo intellectuals who educated within European traditions came to terms with the dominance of European thought while making significant contributions to African intellectual traditions
