son of a mighty monarch of the East had been stolen and a fairy baby left in its place and King Oberon wanted the changeling to be one of the knights of his train while Queen Titania insisted on keeping him as one of her pages Long and bitter was the quarrel but neither king nor queen would give way and at length they parted and half the fairies marched off under the banner of the king and half under the banner of the queen Now you know of course that it was the fairies that looked after all things the flowers and the trees the streams and lakes the little birds and beasts and even though they might not be aware of it after the doings of many men and women thus when it befel that their king and queen quarrelled and all the fairies rallied to their separate courts everything was neglected the corn died unripened the grass withered in the fields so that the flocks and herds starved the summers were cold and wet the winters were sickly and mild and many good men women and children lost their tempers and became troublesome and unhappy they knew not why and certainly never imagined that it was all because of a quarrel between the rulers of the world wide kingdom of Fairy
