The Lady's Tutor Robin Schone,2000 The Lady's Magazine Or Entertaining Companion for the Fair Sex ,1783
the ladys magazine or entretaing companion for the fair sex The Lady's Magazine VOL.XII for the year 1781,1781

The Ladys Magazine and Mesume Anonymous,2025-09-27 Reprint of the original first published in 1836 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Young Mathematician's Companion, being a compleat Tutor to the Mathematicks, etc Charles LEADBETTER,1748 Songs Without Words Sandra Mangsen,2016 Keyboard arrangements of vocal music flourished in England between1560 and 1760 Songs without Words by noted harpsichordist and early music authority Sandra Mangsen is the first in depth study of this topic uncovering a body of material that is remarkably varied musically interesting and indicative of major trends in musical and social life at the time Mangsen s Songs without Words argues that the pieces upon which these keyboard arrangements were based constituted a shared repertoire akin to the jazz standards of the twentieth century In Restoration England the ballad tradition saw tunes and texts move between oral manuscript and printed transmission and from street to playhouse and back again During the eighteenth century printed keyboard arrangements were aimed particularly at female amateur keyboardists and helped opera to become a widely popular genre Songs without Words considers a wide range of model pieces including songs of many kinds and arias and other numbers from operas and oratorios The resulting keyboard versions range from simple and pedagogically oriented to highly virtuosic Two central issues the relationship between an arrangement and its model and the reception and aesthetics of arrangements are explored in the framing chapters The result is a study that will be of great interest to scholars performers and anyone who loves the music of the late Renaissance Baroque and early Classic eras Sandra Mangsen is professor emerita of music at the University of Western Ontario The life and letters of Lady Sarah Lennox Sarah Bunbury Napier,1902 Transformations of Love Frances Harris,2003-01-30 The most controversial episode in the life of the seventeenth century virtuoso and diarist John Evelyn has always been his passionate complex friendship with the Restoration maid of honour Margaret Blagge afterwards Mrs Godolphin His Life of Mrs Godolphin written after her early death in childbirth exalted the friendship and represented her as effectively a saint They saw their intense friendship as platonic spiritual mentoring Yet it is sometimes argued that what took place between them was actually a kind of seduction on Evelyn s part that far from trying to overcome her religious scruples about marriage to a young man she deeply loved as he afterwards claimed he secretly encouraged them in order to keep her in his power and even falsified some documents to conceal this from her husband whose patronage he sought Was Evelyn in his way as much a sexual predator as the Restoration rakes he professed to despise or does the episode provide a window on an unexplored aspect of early modern spirituality Undoubtedly there was more to the friendship than Evelyn publicly admitted but it remains a puzzle still to be interpreted This new study is based on Evelyn s papers now fully accessible for the first time and on important and hitherto unknown correspondence between Margaret Blagge and her future husband It situates the episode fully within the pre and post Reformation debates concerning marriage and friendship the latter seen by some as more a sacrament than marriage and the long traditions of platonic love and intense friendships between men and women in religious contexts Its diverse and vividly realized settings include the glamorous disreputable public household of the Restoration court and the great gardens of the day at once little worlds in microcosm and recreations of paradise on earth The Life and Letters of Lady Sarah Lennox, 1745-1826, Daughter of Charles, 2nd Duke of Richmond, and Successively the Wife of Sir Thomas Charles Bunbury, Bart., and of the Hon.
