Rural Geographies Richard Yarwood,2023-04-28 Rural Geographies provides a critical contemporary and accessible introduction to rural change by using geographical ideas to understand current issues affecting the countryside The book discusses how the countryside has been studied by geographers across a range of different scales from village community to the global countryside Each chapter provides a concise and well illustrated introduction to a key theme in rural geography using current literature and contemporary examples The book is divided into four sections that cover rural contexts changes contests and cultures The volume takes a global perspective but is largely centred on the Global North reflecting the tradition of scholarship in rural geography Rural Geographies is driven by thinking in human geography It reflects how major paradigmatic changes in the discipline have impacted and have been informed by the sub discipline of rural geography The aim is to introduce key ideas and concepts that will teach students the critical skills necessary to analyse rural issues themselves The text will be a valuable resource for undergraduate students studying rural geography and rural studies

Snapper....Confessions of a News of the World Photographer Paul Barker,2011 The day that the closure of the News of the World was announced will forever be regarded as the saddest in the entire history of journalism Paul Barker was one of the handful of freelance photographers used on a full time basis by the paper so when it came the news was a devastating bombshell After over 20 years working as a photojournalist with 12 of those on the News of the World he has been uniquely placed to give an insight into what it was like to work on a Sunday tabloid From photography tips to getting into events without a pass Snapper provides a fantastic and highly amusing window into the world of a national newspaper photographer Rather than an expose into the phone hacking scandal that finally engulfed the paper Snapper Confessions of a News of the World Photographer is a celebration of some of its finest moments Recounted in a personal and engaging style it is a series of often hilarious and sometimes heartbreaking anecdotes It chronicles some of the best known as well as some of the more obscure stories covered by what many have come to regard as the world s greatest newspaper

William Wordsworth and the Invention of Tourism, 1820-1900 Saeko Yoshikawa,2016-02-17 In her study of the opening of the English Lake District to mass tourism Saeko Yoshikawa examines William Wordsworth s role in the rise and development of the region as a popular destination For the middle classes on holiday guidebooks not only offered practical information but they also provided a fresh motive and a new model of appreciation by associating writers with places The nineteenth century saw the invention of Robert Burns s and Walter Scott s Borders Shakespeare s Stratford and the Bront Country as holiday locales for the middle classes Investigating the international cult of Wordsworthian tourism Yoshikawa shows both how Wordsworth's public celebrity was constructed through the tourist industry and how the cultural identity of the Lake District was influenced by the poet's presence and works Informed by extensive archival work her book provides an original case study of the contributions of Romantic writers to the invention of middle class tourism and the part guidebooks played in promoting the popular reputations of authors
