The Land Called Holy Palestine In Christian History And Thought:

The Land Called Holy Robert Louis Wilken, 1992-01-01 Drawing on both primary texts and archaeology Wilken traces the Christian conception of a Holy Land from its origins in the Hebrew Bible to the Muslim conquest of Jerusalem in the seventh century

The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2020-12-15 This work represents the current and most relevant content on the studies of how Christianity has fared in the ancient home of its founder and birth Much has been written about Christianity and how it has survived since its migration out of its homeland but this comprehensive reference work reassesses the geographic and demographic impact of the dramatic changes in this perennially combustible world region The Rowman Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East also spans the historical socio political and contemporary settings of the region and importantly describes the interactions that Christianity has had with other major minor religions in the region

The Land, the Bible, and History Alain Marchadour, David Neuhaus, Cardinal Carlo Maria Martini, 2009-08-25 This unique book offers a Catholic view of the Holy Land in the debate that rages among Jews Christians and Muslims Alain Marchadour and David Neuhaus two biblical scholars and priests living in Jerusalem clearly analyze the Promised Land as concept history and contested terrain in Catholic teaching and doctrine They offer an analytical reading of the entire Christian Bible Old and New Testaments with reference to the idea of the Land promised by God They explore early and medieval attitudes especially with regard to the Holy Places and the Jewish people Moving carefully to the present day they focus on anti-Semitism the tragedy of the Shoah Western colonialism in the Middle East the creation of the State of Israel and the birth of the Palestinian refugee problem as they examine Catholic reactions to the tumultuous events of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries particularly the renewal of Catholic thought in the aftermath of the Second Vatican Council Studying the most recent Church documents Marchadour and Neuhaus confront the ongoing struggle for peace justice and reconciliation in the Middle East This illuminating book is an essential tool for all those struggling to understand the links between the Bible the Church and contemporary Middle Eastern realities especially in Israel and Palestine

Religious Conversion Ira Katznelson, Miri Rubin, 2016-04-08 Religious conversion a shift in membership from one community of faith to another can take diverse forms in radically different circumstances As the essays in this volume demonstrate conversion can be protracted or sudden voluntary or coerced small scale or large It may be the result of active missionary efforts instrumental decisions or intellectual or spiritual attraction to a different doctrine and practices In order to investigate these multiple meanings and how they may differ across time and space this collection ranges far and wide across medieval and early modern Europe and beyond From early Christian pilgrims to fifteenth century Ethiopia from the Islamisation of the eastern Mediterranean to Reformation Germany the volume highlights salient features and key concepts that define religious conversion particular the Jewish Muslim and Christian experiences By probing similarities and variations continuities and fissures the volume also extends the range of conversion to focus on matters less commonly examined such as competition for the meaning of sacred space changes to bodies patterns of gender and the ways conversion has been understood and narrated by actors and observers In so doing it promotes a layered approach that deepens inquiry by identifying and suggesting constellations of elements that both compose particular instances of conversion and help make systematic comparisons possible by indicating how to ask comparable questions of often vastly different situations

From Nicaea to Chalcedon Frances M. Young, 2013-01-26
 Created as a companion guide to a Patristics textbook From Nicaea to Chalcedon surveys a variety of writings to have occurred during one of the most significant periods in the formation of the Church from 265-466 It does not aim to cover the subject as a textbook would but aims to delve deeper into some of the characters who were involved with the Church or the Councils during this period Beginning with Eusebius of Caesarea and the first council of the Church at Nicaea and ending with Theodoret of Cyrrhus who is thought to have changed his view of Christology after the watershed Council of Chalcedon this unique text surveys some of the most influential characters to have shaped Church history and the formation of doctrine Surveying a mixture of significant literary figures laymen bishops and heretics this book presents biographical literary critical and theological information about each They are chosen either because they are important to the history of doctrine or because new material about them has thrown light upon their work or because they will broaden the reader's understanding of the culture and history of the period or of live issues in the church at the time Structured in five parts each part deals with a period of time and a sequence of characters so the book is easily followed in chronological order Added to this is the double bibliography which in this edition is fully updated Bibliography A details those texts in English of the original texts of antiquity whilst Bibliography B provides details of publications in English French and German which have appeared since 1960 2004 on or about the characters discussed in the body of the text

The Saint's Saints Susan Weingarten, 2018-12-10 The Saint's Saints presents Jerome's world picture as seen through his saints Lives It analyses both his rhetoric and his descriptions of realia and the way he combines classical Christian and Jewish sources to re-write the biblical Holy Land as a new and Christian world for his readers Susan Weingarten looks at how Jerome dovetails his literary sources with his experience of the material world of the fourth century to write the Lives of the saints Paul Hilarion Malchus and Paula effectively using them to write the Life of Saint Jerome This is the first full length study of Jerome's saints Lives It widens the on going debate about mutual influences in Jewish and Christian literature in the fourth century and revises our picture of the historical geography of Palestine

City of Gods: The New Jerusalem of John's Revelation in Early Christianity Nathan Betz, 2025-02-03 This is the story of the great and final city of John's Revelation Plumbing the first three centuries of Christian literature this careful narrative highlights the early significance of one of the most influential evocative and controversial images in Christian scripture Chronicling how dozens of early writers from Justin and Irenaeus to Origen and Methodius and from the Montanists to Tertullian Victorinus and Lactantius imagined and applied the coming New Jerusalem the study demonstrates how the city regardless of its myriad and often competing interpretations always pointed to the highest possible union of God and humanity both here and now and in the age to come From Martyr to Mystic Ra'anan S. Boustan, 2005 This study provides a critical analysis of Nurcholish Madjid's attempt to interpret Islam within the framework of modern Indonesia Special attention is paid to his ideas and activities during the years leading to the 1998 downfall of President Soeharto and the development towards democracy that followed Although many of these ideas have been embraced by significant sectors of official Indonesia they have also received harsh criticism from the representatives of more conservative interpretations of Islam and more recently from secular Muslims as well BOOK JACKET Conversion in Late Antiquity: Christianity, Islam, and Beyond Arietta Papaconstantinou, Daniel L. Schwartz, 2016-03-03 The papers in this volume were presented at a Mellon Sawyer Seminar held at the University of Oxford in 2009-2010 which sought to investigate side by side the two important movements of conversion that frame late antiquity to Christianity at its start and to Islam at the other end Challenging the opposition between the two stereotypes of Islamic conversion as an intrinsically violent process and Christian conversion as a fundamentally spiritual one the papers seek to isolate the behaviours and circumstances that made conversion both such a common and such a contested phenomenon The spread of Buddhism in Asia in broadly the same period serves as an external comparator that was not caught in the net of the Abrahamic religions The volume is organised around several themes reflecting the concerns of the initial project with the articulation between norm and practice the role of authorities and institutions and the social and individual fluidity on the ground Debates discussions and the expression of norms and principles about conversion conversion are not rare in societies experiencing religious change and the first section of the book examines some of the main issues brought up by surviving sources This is followed by three sections examining different aspects of how those principles were or were not put into practice how conversion was handled by the state how it was continuously redefined by individual ambivalence and cultural fluidity and how it was enshrined through different forms of institutionalization Finally a topographical coda examines the effects of religious change on the iconic holy city of Jerusalem This Holy Place Steven Fine, 2016-10-17 Steven Fine's This Holy Place is a comprehensive treatment of the synagogue as a place of sanctity in Late Antiquity This book is essential for an understanding of how the synagogue became the central Jewish communal institution and how it served as a substitute for the destroyed Jerusalem Temple during the long period of Jewish exile from the Land of Israel Fine's mastery of both archaeological evidence and a wide variety of literary sources makes this a major contribution to the field Lawrence H Schiffman New York University Fine has mastered an unusually wide range of disciplines rabbinical sources archaeology art and epigraphy His book is thoroughly researched well written and engagingly presented It should be required reading for anyone interested in how this most central institution of Jewish life was perceived and presented Lee I Levine Hebrew University of Jerusalem I read This Holy Place with the greatest profit and enjoyment It is an important contribution to the entire nature of late antique civilization and not only to Jewish studies Peter Brown Princeton University Steven Fine is the Dean Pinkhos Churgin Professor of Jewish History at Yeshiva University Identity and Territory Eyal Ben-Eliyahu, 2019-04-30 Throughout history the relationship between Jews and their land has been a vibrant much debated topic within the Jewish world and in international political discourse Identity and Territory explores how ancient conceptions of Israel of both the land itself and its shifting frontiers and borders have played a decisive role in forming national and religious identities across the millennia Through the works of Second Temple period Jews and rabbinic literature Eyal Ben Eliyahu examines the role of territorial status boundaries mental maps and holy sites drawing comparisons to popular Jewish and Christian perceptions of space Showing how space defines nationhood and how Jewish identity influences perceptions of space Ben Eliyahu uncovers varied understandings of the land that resonate with contemporary views of the relationship between territory and ideology In the Shadow of the Temple Oskar Skarsaune, 2008-10-28 Oskar Skarsaune gives us a new look into the development of the early church and its practice by showing us the evidence of interaction between the early Christians and rabbinic Judaism He offers numerous fascinating episodes and glimpses into this untold story The Global Edwards Rhys S. Bezzant, 2017-10-20 In a globalized world networks are key whether they are networks of people ideas or interests In this volume of essays on the texts and teachings of Jonathan Edwards contributors from each continent ask questions about how the world of Edwards explains or illuminates the world of today whether in the area of systematics missions historiography politics church planting or biblical studies Such diverse discourses enrich the networks of scholarship that the contributors represent and provide a global snapshot of contemporary research in Edwards studies These papers were presented in August 2015 at the Jonathan Edwards Congress held at Ridley College in Melbourne Australia where personal engagement with the topics at hand made the worldwide network of Edwards aficionados and scholars not merely a virtual aspiration but an experience in time and space This book will not only inform its readers but surprise them as well as they track the power of eighteenth century theological ideas in the late modern world Damqatum - Number 17 (2021) Jorge Cano Moreno, 2021-12-31 Damqatum is a journal dedicated to the history and archaeology of the Near East oriented to the general public Holy War in Judaism Reuven Firestone, 2012-07-02 Holy War in Judaism is the first book to consider how the concept of holy war disappeared from Jewish thought for almost 2000 years only to reemerge with renewed vigor in modern times Jerome and the Jews William L. Krewson, 2017-05-31 Jerome rocked the boat in which the early church had been comfortably settled for two hundred years He upset Christian tradition by arguing for the priority of the Hebrew Old Testament over the supposedly inspired Greek Septuagint He learned Hebrew from a Jewish teacher and translated the Old Testament directly from Hebrew into Latin Not only did his new Latin translation create turmoil but the inclusion of Jewish interpretations in his commentaries furthered the controversy Unlike his contemporaries Jerome viewed the Jews and their homeland as a source of information and inspiration However at the same time Jerome freely admitted his hatred of the Jews and their religion His caustic rhetoric reinforced the Christian church's displacement of the Jews but it seems to oppose his move toward appreciating Jewish resources This book illuminates Jerome's contradictory personality proposes a solution and explores avenues for current Christian and Jewish relations in light of Jerome's model The Cult of Stephen in Jerusalem Hugo Méndez, 2023-02-03 This study traces the rise of the cult of St Stephen in Jerusalem in the fifth century exploring such episodes as the fabrication of his relics the construction of a grand basilica in his honour and the multiplication of feast days as a conscious attempt to position Stephen as their patron saint and embodiment of Christian identity and power The Struggle for Jerusalem's Holy Places Wendy Pullan, Maximilian Sternberg, Lefkos Kyriacou, Craig Larkin, Michael Dumper, 2013-11-20 The Struggle for Jerusalem's Holy Places investigates the role of architecture and urban identity in relation to the political economy of the city and its wider state context seen through the lens of the holy places Reflecting the broad disciplinary backgrounds of the authors this book provides perspectives from architecture urbanism and politics and provides in depth investigations of historical ethnographic and policy related case studies The research is substantiated by fieldwork carried out in Jerusalem over the past ten years as part of the ESRC Large Grants project Conflict in Cities By analysing new dynamics of radicalisation through land seizure the politicisation of parklands and tourism the strategic manipulation of archaeological and historical narratives and material culture and through examination of general appropriation of Jerusalem's varied rituals memories and symbolism for factional uses the book reveals how possibilities of coexistence are seriously threatened in Jerusalem Shedding new light on the key role played by everyday urban life and its spatial settings for any future political agreements about the city and its religious sites this book is a useful reference work for students and scholars of Middle East Studies Architecture Religion and Urban Studies History and Memory in the Carolingian World Rosamond McKitterick, 2004-07-29 The writing and reading of history in the early Middle Ages form the key themes of this 2004 book The primary focus is on the remarkable manifestations of historical writing in relation to historical memory in the Frankish kingdoms of the eighth and ninth centuries It considers the audiences for history in the Frankish kingdoms the recording of memory in new genres including narrative histories cartularies and Libri memoriales and thus particular perceptions of the Frankish and Christian past It analyses both original manuscript material and key historical texts from the Carolingian period a remarkably creative period in the history of European culture Presentations of the past developed in this period were crucial in forming an historical understanding of the Greco Roman and Judaeo Christian past and in subsequent centuries of early medieval Europe They also played an extraordinarily influential role in the formation of political ideologies and senses of identity within Europe Imagining the Holy Land Burke O. Long, 2003 At the Chautauqua Institution in New York visitors could walk down Palestine Avenue to Palestine and a model of Jerusalem or along Morris Avenue to a scale model of the Jewish Tabernacle At the St Louis World's Fair of 1904 a replica of Ottoman Jerusalem covered eleven acres while today 300 miles to the southeast a seven story high Christ of the Ozarks stands above a
