FATHER HART He may be dressed as a friar There is food and drink upon the table MARY BRUIN stands by the door reading a book If she looks up she can see through the door into the wood BRIDGET Because I bid her clean the pots for supper She took that old book down out of the thatch She has been doubled over it ever since We should be deafened by her groans and moans Had she to work as some do Father Hart Get up at dawn like me and mend and scour Or ride abroad in the boisterous night like you The pyx and blessed bread under your arm SHAWN Mother you are too cross BRIDGET You've married her And fear to vex her and so take her part MAURTEEN to FATHER HART It is but right that youth should side with youth She quarrels with my wife a bit at times And is too deep just now in the old book But do not blame her greatly she will grow As quiet as a puff ball in a tree When but the moons of marriage dawn and die For half a score of times We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
