drama troupes caught between the party and their audiences did their best to resist the ever growing reach of the PRC state

Mass Mobilization in the Democratic Republic of Vietnam, 1945-1960 Alec Holcombe, 2020-08-31 Immediately after its founding by H Ch Minh in September 1945 the Democratic Republic of Vietnam DRV faced challenges from rival Vietnamese political organizations and from a France determined to rebuild her empire after the humiliations of WWII H with strategic genius courageous maneuver and good fortune was able to delay full scale war with France for sixteen months in the northern half of the country This was enough time for his Communist Party under the cover of its Vietminh front organization to neutralize domestic rivals and install the rough framework of an independent state That fledgling state became a weapon of war when the DRV and France finally came to blows in Hanoi during December of 1946 marking the official beginning of the First Indochina War With few economic resources at their disposal H and his comrades needed to mobilize an enormous and free contribution in manpower and rice from DRV controlled regions Extracting that contribution during the war s early days was primarily a matter of patriotic exhortation By the early 1950s however the infusion of weapons from the United States the Soviet Union and China had turned the Indochina conflict into a total war Hunger exhaustion and violence along with the conflict s growing political complexity challenged the DRV leaders mobilization efforts forcing patriotic appeals to be supplemented with coercion and terror This trend reached its revolutionary climax in late 1952 when H under strong pressure from Stalin and Mao agreed to carry out radical land reform in DRV controlled areas of northern Vietnam The regime s 1954 victory over the French at i n Bi n Ph the return of peace and the division of the country into North and South did not slow this process of socialist transformation Over the next six years 1954 1960 the DRV s Communist leaders raced through land reform and agricultural collectivization with a relentless sense of urgency Mass Mobilization in the Democratic Republic of Vietnam 1945 1960 explores the way the exigencies of war the dreams of Marxist Leninist ideology and the pressures of the Cold War environment combined with pride and patriotism to drive totalitarian state formation in northern Vietnam Supreme Court , Sharecropping and Sharecroppers T. J. Byres,2005-08-02 First Published in 1983 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Fanshen William Hinton,Fred Magdoff,2008-04 More than forty years after its initial publication William Hinton s Fanshen continues to be the essential volume for those fascinated with China s revolutionary process of rural reform and social change A pioneering work Fanshan is a marvelous and revealing look into life in the Chinese countryside where tradition and modernity have had both a complimentary and caustic relationship in the years since the Chinese Communist Party first came to power It is a rare concrete record of social struggle and transformation as witnessed by a participant Fanshen continues to offer profound insight into the lives of peasants and China s complex social processes Rediscover this classic volume which includes a new preface by Fred Magdoff The Scottish Law Review and Sheriff Court Reports ,1909 Vols 29 47 1913 1931 and v 72 79 1956 1963 include Scottish Land Court reports v 1 19 and v 44 51 The Sino-Japanese War and Youth Literature Minjie Chen,2016-01-22 The Sino Japanese War 1937 1945 was fought in the Asia Pacific theatre between Imperial Japan and China with the United States as the latter s major military ally An important line of investigation remains questioning how the history of this war has been passed on to post war generations consciousness and how information sources particularly those exposed to young people in their formative years shape their knowledge and bias of the conflict as well as World War II more generally This book is the first to focus on how the Sino Japanese War has been represented in non English and English sources for children and young adults As a cross cultural study and an interdisciplinary endeavour it not only examines youth orientated publications in China and the United States but also draws upon popular culture novelists memoirs and family oral narratives to make comparisons between fiction and history Chinese and American sources and published materials and private memories of the war Through quantitative narrative analysis literary and visual analysis and socio political critique it shows the dominant pattern of war stories traces chronological changes over the seven decades from 1937 to 2007 and teases out the ways in which the history of the Sino Japanese War has been constructed censored and utilized to serve shifting agendas Providing a much needed examination of public memory literary representation and popular imagination of the Sino Japanese War this book will have huge interdisciplinary appeal particularly for students and scholars of Asian history literature society and education
