The Lands Between:

The Land between Two Rivers Tom Sleigh, 2018-02-06 Essays on the urgency of our global refugee crisis and our capacity as artists and citizens to confront it Tom Sleigh describes himself donning a flak jacket and helmet working as a journalist inside militarized war zones and refugee camps as a sort of Rambo Jr With self deprecation and empathetic humor these essays recount his experiences during several tours in Africa and in the Middle Eastern region once called Mesopotamia the land between two rivers Sleigh asks three central questions What did I see How could I write about it Why did I write about it The first essays in The Land between Two Rivers focus on the lives of refugees in Syria Lebanon Jordan Kenya Somalia and Iraq Under the conditions of military occupation famine and war their stories can be harrowing even desperate but they are also laced with wily humor and an undeluded hopefulness their lives having little to do with their depictions in mass media The second part of the book explores how writing might be capable of honoring the texture of these individuals experiences while remaining faithful to political emotions rather than political convictions Sleigh examines the works of Anna Akhmatova Mahmoud Darwish Ashur Etwebi David Jones Tomas Tranströmer and others as guiding spirits The final essays meditate on youth restlessness illness and Sleigh's motivations for writing his own experiences in order to move out into the world concluding with a beautiful remembrance of Sleigh's friendship with Seamus Heaney Elden Ring: The lands between
