Fincham, J. Hawthorn, J. Lothe, 2008-07-10 This book explores the varied ways in which modernist and postcolonial innovations in fiction are motivated by crises and revolutions in the human perception and appropriation of space Space for the writers concerned has its political historical cultural and gender dimensions as well as The Place of Landscape Jeff Malpas, 2011 Interdisciplinary perspectives on landscape from the its geographical identity philosophical to the geographical with an emphasis on the overarching concept of place This volume explores the conceptual topography of landscape It examines the character of landscape as itself a mode of place as well as the modes of place that appear in relation to landscape Leading scholars from a range of disciplines explore the concept of landscape including its supposed relation to the spectatorial its character as time space its relation to indigenous notions of country and its liminality They examine landscape as it appears within a variety of contexts from geography through photography and garden history to theology and more specific studies look at the forms of landscape in medieval landscape painting film and television and in relation to national identity. The essays demonstrate that the study of landscape cannot be restricted to any one genre cannot be taken as the exclusive province of any one discipline and cannot be exhausted by any single form of analysis What the place of landscape now evokes is itself a wide ranging terrain encompassing issues concerning the nature of place of human being in place and of the structures that shape such being and are shaped by it Aspiring to the Landscape Petra Halkes, 2006-01-01 The idea of nature as a cultural construction has been discussed extensively in postmodern theory Less attention however has been paid to the underlying motivations shaping the ideologies of nature in particular the desire to submit to some larger order outside of oneself Aspiring to the Landscape examines this persistent desire and how it is made manifest in contemporary landscape art Four installations of large scale paintings by Canadian artists Eleanor Bond Susan

Feindel Stephen Hutchings and Wanda Koop are the focus of Petra Halkes's study. The works vary widely in style and iconography but are drawn together by the way they invite a reflection on the troubled relationship between culture and nature and our contradictory and simultaneous longing to conguer and to succumb to nature It is the tension between modern and postmodern interpretations of the subject of nature that makes the theory and the artwork discussed in Aspiring to the Landscape so important to contemporary Canadian culture Landscapes of Dread in Classical Antiquity Debbie Felton, 2018-04-27 Over the last two decades research in cultural geography and landscape studies has influenced many humanities fields including Classics and has increasingly drawn our attention to the importance of spaces and their contexts both geographical and social how spaces are described by language what spaces are used for by individuals and communities and how language use and the passage of time invest spaces with meaning In addition to this spatial turn in scholarship recent years have also seen an emotive turn an increased interest in the study of emotion in literature Many works on landscape in classical antiquity focus on themes such as the sacred and the pastoral and the emotions such spaces evoke such as respectively feelings of awe or tranquillity in settings both urban and rural Far less scholarship has been generated by the locus terribilis the space associated with negative emotions because of the bad things that happen there In short the recent emotive turn in humanities studies has so far largely neglected several of the more negative emotions including anxiety fear terror and dread The papers in this volume focus on those neglected negative emotions especially dread and they do so while treating many types of space including domestic suburban rural and virtual and while covering many genres and authors including the epic poems of Homer Greek tragedy Roman poetry and historiography medical writing paradoxography and the short story Unveiling the Enigma: Edvard Munch's Journey Beyond The Scream Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-16 In the realm of art few names evoke such strong emotions and profound contemplation as Edvard Munch His paintings characterized by bold lines vibrant colors and distorted forms have the uncanny ability to pierce through the veil of reality and touch the deepest recesses of the human soul This book invites readers on an enthralling journey into the enigmatic world of Edvard Munch exploring the depths of his artistic genius and the complexities of his personal life Beyond his iconic masterpiece The Scream Munch's body of work is a testament to his unwavering commitment to expressing the human condition in all its raw and unvarnished glory Through his art he laid bare the universal emotions of love loss despair and longing capturing the essence of the human experience with startling clarity This book delves into the influences that shaped Munch's unique style from his Norwegian heritage to his exposure to Symbolism and Post Impressionism It also examines his tumultuous personal life marked by mental illness and emotional turmoil which served as both a source of inspiration and a profound challenge More than a mere biography this book offers a comprehensive analysis of Munch s major works providing readers with a deeper understanding of his creative process and the profound impact he had on the art world It explores the controversies that surrounded his work particularly his exploration of taboo subjects and his bold use of expressionistic techniques Additionally the book examines Munch's legacy as an artist who challenged traditional notions of beauty and representation paving the way for future generations to embrace a more subjective and emotionally charged approach to art This book is a captivating exploration of Edvard Munch's life and art offering readers a unique perspective on the man behind the masterpiece Through a blend of historical context psychological insights and a deep appreciation for Munch's artistic genius this book sheds new light on one of the most influential and enigmatic figures in the history of art Whether you are an art enthusiast a psychology buff or simply someone seeking a deeper connection to the human experience this book promises an enriching and thought provoking journey into the world of Edvard Munch If you like this book write a review on google books Silko Brewster E. Fitz, 2005-07-30 Leslie Marmon Silko a Laguna Pueblo Native American was raised in a culture with a strong oral tradition She also grew up in a household where books were cherished and reading at the dinner table was not deemed rude but instead was encouraged In his examination of Silko's literature the author explores the complex dynamic between the spoken story and the written word revealing how it carries over from Silko s upbringing and plays out in her writings Focusing on critical essays by and interviews with Silko the author argues that Silko s storytelling is informed not so much by oral Laguna culture as by the Marmon family tradition in which writing was internalized long before her birth In Silko s writings this conflicted desire between the oral and the written evolves into a yearning for a paradoxical written orality that would conceivably function as a perfect nonmediated language The critical focus on orality in Native literature has kept the equally important tradition of Native writing from being honored By offering close readings of stories from Storyteller and Ceremony as well as passages from Almanac of the Dead and Gardens in the Dunes the author shows how Silko weaves the oral and the written the spirit and the flesh into a new vision of Pueblo culture As he asserts Silko s written word rather than obscuring or destroying her culture s oral tradition serves instead to sharpen it landscapes are not merely backdrops but active forces. The book examines how landscapes serve as symbolic canvases imbued with cultural meanings reflecting identity and memory It also delves into how encounters with diverse terrains spark philosophical inquiries about humanity s place in the universe existentialism and consciousness The book unfolds in three parts beginning with key concepts like environmental determinism and cultural landscape theory. It then presents case studies from various regions and historical periods such as the pastoral landscape s impact on Romantic poetry and the urban environment's influence on modernist literature Finally it synthesizes these arguments discussing the implications of landscape history for environmental conservation cultural preservation and national identity This interdisciplinary approach drawing from literature history geography philosophy and art history seeks to bridge scholarly research with general readership providing a comprehensive understanding of our relationship with the environment Roots in the Air Nadežda Rumjanceva, 2015 Anglophone Israeli Literature has co existed with the Hebrew writing tradition in Israel since the 1970s Consisting mainly of immigrants from Anglophone countries it is characterized by a search for personal and poetic identity in a highly transcultural environment challenging settled identities and opting instead for flexibility Creators on Creating Frank Barron, 1997-04-14 This collection of over three dozen essays ponders the essence of creativity Includes selections from Henry Miller Federico Fellini Rainer Maria Rilke Isadora Duncan Frank Zappa and Mary Shelley A New Consciousness Faulkner and Welty and the Southern Literary Tradition Noel Polk, 2008 As one of the preeminent scholars of Reader southern literature Noel Polk has delivered lectures written journal articles and essays and discussed the rich legacy of the South s literary heritage around the world for over three decades His work on William Faulkner Eudora Welty Walker Percy and other writers is incisive and groundbreaking His essays in Faulkner and Welty and the Southern Literary Tradition maintain an abiding interest in Polk s major area of literary study the relationship between the smaller units of construction in a literary work and the work's larger themes The analysis

Manuel Gómez, 2024-02-19 Ibero American Ecocriticism Cultural and Social Explorations presents a distinct view of the diverse social and physical geographies of the Americas their political and cultural connections to the Iberian Peninsula and their relationship to the environment in its diverse representations. The topics ranging from myths and legends poetics young adult literature arts and performance to cinematography by women dialogue across chapters reveal a persistent usage of nature and environment as recurrent themes Through visual and plastic arts as well as poetic narratives of social utopias dystopias the contributors provide original readings on the effects of societal views and struggles to protect and consciously exploit the natural world The uniqueness of this book relies therefore on the geographical and cultural approach to the poetics of nature and its metaphorical and physical embodiment place and geography through utopian and dystopian world recreation and representation and finally the nexus with ecology and social actors Australian Music and Modernism, 1960-1975 Michael Hooper, 2019-10-31 Drawing on newly available archival material key works and correspondence of the era Australian Music and Modernism defines Australian Music as an idea that emerged through the lens of the modernist discourse of the 1960s and 70s At the same time that the new Australian Music was distinctive of the nation it was also thoroughly connected to practices from Europe and shaped by a new engagement with the music of Southeast Asia This book examines the intersection of nationalism and modernism at this formative time During the early stages of Australian Music there was disagreement about what the idea itself ought to represent and indeed whether the idea ought to apply at all Michael Hooper considers various perspectives offered by such composers as Peter Sculthorpe Richard Meale and Nigel Butterley and analyzes some of the era's significant works to articulate a complex understanding of Australian Music at its inception

Placing Property Amanda Byer, 2023-06-14 This open access book presents a legal geography of property rights in land through the lenses of landscape and critical spatial justice. It seeks to reassert the importance of landscape and place in property as an alternative to abstract concepts of property which dominate contemporary thinking. It investigates property s origins and uptake in the common law through the lenses of landscape and spatial justice providing a genealogy of property from its early origins in pre-feudal Scandinavia to its development as a cornerstone concept in English common law It offers a new perspective and analytical tools to reconsider many accepted approaches to land in the law today. This book also contributes both to the decolonization of property law and critiques of property s unsustainability as well as the examination of the role of law itself in facilitating large scale land changes that destroy place and the ramifications of this process As such it should be of interest to inter disciplinary scholars working in the socio legal environmental and property law fields

Landscapes of Abandonment Roger A. Salerno, 2012-02-01 Using social theory and cultural analysis Roger A Salerno explores the relationship of abandonment to the construction of contemporary capitalistic cultures Beginning with an array of narratives on the emergence of capitalism in the West and its undermining of traditional social institutions and structures he provides an overview of both the definition of and reactions to abandonment analyzing its historical social and psychological dimensions. The author contends that abandonment anxiety and feelings of estrangement not only have deep psychological roots but also important social causes and cultural manifestations such as a quest for security or a hunger for commodities. Salerno surveys important contributions of writers artists philosophers and social scientists and how their work expresses this sense of modern abandonment. He also examines how and why this phenomenon has become a central motif in renderings of community the environment and the process of globalization and presents a richer understanding of our modern social condition. France's Memorial Landscape Sophie Fuggle, 2023-09-15 During August 1942 several women jumped to their deaths from a second story window at the tile factory in the small town of Milles near Aix en Provence Between 1939 and 1942 the factory assumed various roles as internment camp transit camp and ultimately deportation camp. This book is about the view from the suicide window as it is presented within the Camp des Milles memorial museum which opened in 2012 It explores how this view might help us to understand and imagine the world of internment and deportation camps operating in France during the Second World War and their memorial today The book uses the views framed by the window to think critically about the museography of the memorial within the wider context of France's relatively late acknowledgment of its role in the persecution of the Jews during the Second World War
