Each of the volume's twelve dialogues consists of a republished essay by Fluck and a response by one of his interlocutors written specifically for this occasion. Contributors include field-defining scholars, long-time companions and colleagues whose intellectual trajectory has been impacted by Fluck's incisive metacriticism and his reception-oriented approach to literary and cultural history. The twelve dialogues reassess debates that have shaped literary studies in the late twentieth century and they inquire into the paradigmatic shifts that are currently reorganizing the field. The Massachusetts register, 2003 Research in Education
