Watkins, 2019-08-15 Born in rural western Pennsylvania Harold LeClair Ickes 1874 1952 son of a gambler womanizer drunk father and of a strictly reared Presbyterian mother grew up desperately poor and desperately ambitious He became a Chicago newsman during its gilded era a key figure in the Progressive Party and in FDR s cabinet became America s longest serving and most influential Interior Secretary As Interior Secretary he helped change the face of America forging that department into the most powerful tool for the protection of our lands He was also a major force in reshaping the character and quality of American society often seeming to speak ex cathedra as the conscience of FDR s administration Opinionated vigorously outspoken as impassioned defending minorities as defending our wild places Ickes who happily styled himself the Old Curmudgeon was arguably the most controversial and most beloved figure in the New Deal When Ickes wrote his first column in the New Republic the editors of the magazine introduced him on May 2 1949 as old enough to be called an Elder Statesman but he is too salty for that label He himself has cheerfully accepted the epithet of Curmudgeon which likewise is insufficient to his case A more accurate description would be that he is America s most venerable progressive and one of the stoutest fighters at any age for justice and good government Righteous Pilgrim was a non fiction National Book Award finalist in 1990 and received the Los Angeles Times Book Prize for biography in 1991 and was a finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award an outstanding biography that is also a major work of social history spanning the first half of the 20th century Ickes was a courageous public servant who in Righteous Pilgrim receives long overdue recognition
