Popular Antiquities of Great Britain John Brand, Sir Henry Ellis, William Carew Hazlitt,1905 Charles I. Jacob Abbott,1876 English Historical Documents Andrew Browning,2024-11-01 English Historical Documents is the most ambitious impressive and comprehensive collection of documents on English history ever published An authoritative work of primary evidence each volume presents material with exemplary scholarly accuracy Editorial comment is directed towards making sources intelligible rather than drawing conclusions from them Full account has been taken of modern textual criticism A general introduction to each volume portrays the character of the period under review and critical bibliographies have been added to assist further investigation Documents collected include treaties personal letters statutes military dispatches diaries declarations newspaper articles government and cabinet proceedings orders acts sermons pamphlets agricultural instructions charters grants guild regulations and voting records Volumes are furnished with lavish extra apparatus including genealogical tables lists of officials chronologies diagrams graphs and maps History, Buddhism, and New Religious Movements in Cambodia John Marston,2004-06-30 This volume showcases some of the most current and exciting research being done on Cambodian religious ideas and practices by a new generation of scholars from a variety of disciplines The different contributors examine in some manner the relationship between religion and the ideas and institutions that have given shape to Cambodia as a social and political body or nation Although they do not share the same

approach to the idea of nation all are concerned with the processes of religion that give meaning to social interaction which in some way includes Cambodian identity Chapters touch on such far reaching theoretical issues as the relation to religion of Southeast Asian polity the nature of colonial religious transformation syncretism in Southeast Asian Buddhism the relation of religious icon to national identity religion and gender transnationalism and social movements and identity among diaspora communities While much has been published on Cambodia s recent civil war and the Pol Pot period and its aftermath few English language works are available on Cambodian religion This book takes a major step in filling that gap offering a broad overview of the subject that is relevant not only for the field of Cambodian studies but also for students and scholars of Southeast Asian history Buddhism comparative religion and anthropology Contributors Didier Bertrand Penny Edwards Elizabeth Guthrie Hang Chan Sophea Anne Hansen John Marston Kathryn Poethig Ashley Thompson Teri Shaffer Yamada
