The Land And People Of Bolivia:

The Land and People of Bolivia David Nelson Blair,1990 Introduces the history geography people culture government and economy of Bolivia The Land and People of Bolivia Leslie F. Warren,1974 An introduction to the geography history resources people and major cities of South America s fifth largest country Bolivia Olen Earl Leonard,1970 The Gospel in All Lands ,1890 Other Lands, Other Peoples National Education Association of the United States. Committee on International Relations,Elizabeth M. Thompson,1961 Bolivia and the Making of the Global Indigenous Movement Juanita Roca-Sánchez,2024-10-30 This book investigates how western anthropological trends development discourse and transnational activism came to create and define the global indigenous movement Using Bolivia as a case study the author demonstrates through a historical research how international ideas of what it means and does not mean to be indigenous have played out at the national level Tracing these trends from pre revolutionary Bolivia the Inter American indigenismo in the 1940s up to Evo Morales downfall the book reflects on Bolivia s national level policy discourse and constitutional changes but also asks to what extent these principles have been transmitted to the country s grassroots organisations and movements such as Indianismo Katarismo CSUTCB and CIDOB Overall the book argues that indigeneity can only be adequately understood as a longue dur e anthropological political and legal construction crafted within broader geopolitical contexts Within this context the classical dichotomy between indigenous and whites should be challenged in favour of a more nuanced understanding of plural indigeneities This book will be of interest to researchers from across the fields of global studies political anthropology history of anthropology international development socio legal studies Latin American history and indigenous studies Peacebuilding and the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Heather Devere,Kelli Te Maihāroa,John P. Synott,2016-10-25 This book analyses efforts to advance the rights of Indigenous People within peace building frameworks Section I critically explores key issues concerning Indigenous Peoples Rights struggles for land human cultural civil legal and constitutional rights in connection with key approaches in peace building such as nonviolence non violent strategic action peace education sustainability gender equality cultures of peace and environmental protection Section II examines indigenous leaders and movements using peace and non violent strategies while Section III presents case studies on the successes and failures of peace perspectives regarding contributions to developments in advancement of barriers to the rights of Indigenous Peoples Lastly Section IV investigates what advances have been achieved in Universal Indigenous Peoples Rights in the 21st century within the context of sustainable peace Revolution Rosemary H. T. O'Kane,2000 All of the major work on the subject of revolutions is collected in this useful set Including work from seminal figures such as Hatto and Gottschalk in the 1940s as well as the most important literature all the way through 1998 the articles reprinted here consider the concept theory and causes of revolution revolutionary state building and the outcomes of revolutions case studies of great revolutions and much more Community Development Review ,1963 Community
