The Landlocked Man Alfred Coppel, 1975      Dead Man's Hammer Christina Engela,      The Fisherman's Guide to Maine Earle Doucette, 2013-04-26 This is a vintage guide to fishing in and around Maine America It contains entertaining and informative anecdotes of the authors extensive person experiences as well as detailed descriptions and helpful advice complete with full page maps of the area Contents Include Part One What to Catch and How to Catch Them In General The Brook Trout The Landlocked Salmon Atlantic Salmon Bass Pickerel and Perch Salt Water Fishing Part Two Where to Catch Them The St John River Fish River Lakes Region The Moosehead Lake Katahdin Region The Rangeley Region The Washington County Region etc Many vintage books such as this are increasingly scarce and expensive It is with this in mind that we are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern high quality edition complete with a specially commissioned new introduction on the history of fishing      The Landlocked Salmon (Salmo Salar) Keith A. Havey, Kendall Warner, 1970      The Transit Regime for Landlocked States Kishor Uprety, 2006-01-01 The Transit Regime for Landlocked States assesses the strengths and limits of existing international law related to the free access of landlocked states to and from the sea The book analyzes whether the provisions of international law satisfy the economic demands of landlocked states the majority of which are among the world s poorest nations The book reviews the several principles of international law that dominated the evolution of the rights of access It discusses both general and specific conventions as well as treaty regimes emanating therefrom and examines some restrict      Forest and Stream , 1899      The Human Shore John R. Gillis, 2022-12-22 Since before recorded history people have congregated near water But as growing populations around the globe continue to flow toward the coasts on an unprecedented scale and climate change raises water levels our relationship to the sea has begun to take on new and potentially catastrophic dimensions The latest generation of coastal dwellers lives largely in ignorance of the history of those who came before them the natural environment and the need to live sustainably on the world s shores Humanity has forgotten how to live with the oceans In The Human Shore a magisterial account of 100 000 years of seaside civilization John R Gillis recovers the coastal experience from its origins among the people who dwelled along the African shore to the bustle and glitz of today s megacities and beach resorts He takes readers from discussion of the possible coastal location of the Garden of Eden to the ancient communities that have existed along beaches bays and bayous since the beginning of human society to the crucial role played by coasts during the age of discovery and empire An account of the mass movement of whole populations to the coasts in the last half century brings the story of coastal life into the present Along the way Gillis addresses humankind s changing relationship to the sea from an environmental perspective laying out the history of the making and remaking of coastal landscapes the creation of ports the draining of wetlands the introduction and extinction of marine animals and the invention of the beach while giving us a global understanding of our relationship to the water Learned and deeply personal The Human Shore is more than a history it is the story of a space that has been central to the attitudes plans and existence of those who live and dream at land s end The Novels of Charles Lever: Davenport Dunn, a man of our day; with illus. by Phiz Charles Lever, 1895

Male Suicide Phenomena in Zimbabwe: Drivers, Obstacles and Strategic Interventions Munyaradzi

Chidarikire, 2025-08-08 The catalyst for this book Male Suicide Phenomena in Zimbabwe Drivers Barriers and Strategic Interventions emerges from a combination of pertinent observations and extensive engagements with the emerging narrative around male suicides in Zimbabwe The understanding measuring and response to pertinent dialogue on male suicides have changed considerably over time in relation to varying local imperatives international evolutions and the greater decolonisation effort in education This paper seeks to critique these changes providing both a reflective and forward looking perspective on how we can re imagine suicide and mental health in Zimbabwe In my work as a senior lecturer at Great Zimbabwe University a Research Fellow at the University of Stellenbosch and a postdoctoral research fellow at the University of KwaZulu Natal South Africa not to mention as a university counsellor at Midlands State University Zimbabwe I have had the unique experience of encountering the vast challenges surrounding the teaching and learning of male suicides as well as the fluctuating opportunities for male learners in connecting with the complexities of their lives The breadth of my professional experience developing curriculum supervising students and conducting academic research has revealed to me a profound disconnect between the best intentions of policy and the hard realities of practice It is written from an earnest need to fill those gaps by providing a contextually relevant situated approach to the context driven decolonisation and revitalisation of male mental health education in Zimbabwe The book tracks the historical and contemporary trends of male suicides and mental health curricula in Zimbabwean learning institutions and communities vis vis the wider Africa and the world within these pages It examines the theoretical foundations of these educational modules the organizational and pedagogical barriers that prevent them from being effective and outlines practical solutions Drawing on comparisons with other Southern African countries this book emphasises key tenets for designing new curricula and school curricula policy initiatives and pedagogic activities that can help inform curriculum reform policy development and classroom practice My own odyssey in this field spanning roles as a senior lecturer university counsellor researcher and examiner has deepened my understanding of the intricate intersections between Health Life Skills inclusive education educational psychology and pressing societal issues such as male suicides HIV AIDS substance abuse and mental health Having supervised diploma honours and master s students as well as serving as an internal and external examiner in both Zimbabwe and South Africa I bring a blend of scholarly rigor and practical insights to this discourse My previous publications on gender educational psychology and psychosocial challenges further enrich the perspectives shared in this book This publication is designed to empower a diverse audience practitioners administrators teacher educators curriculum developers policymakers and students by equipping them with both theoretical and practical tools to mitigate male suicides and enhance mental well being education It is my earnest hope that this book will stimulate critical dialogue inspire pedagogical innovation and contribute meaningfully to the ongoing decolonization of education in Zimbabwe and beyond Finally I extend my deepest gratitude to the scholars students and institutions whose invaluable contributions have shaped this work The journey of re envisioning education is a collective endeavor and this book represents but one step toward a more inclusive responsive and transformative pedagogical future
