Last Living Room of the Lebensraum Brigitte Rahman, 2001-11-18 Under the guise of short stories and poetry of Rahman Brigitte Arlette you will discover the vitriolic words that separates humanity into belligerent groups and the warming language that may melt the ice of hatred Read closely The Last Living Room of the Lebensraum Brigitte Rahman, 2001-11-18 The Jewish Veteran, 1938 Auschwitz - SS Death Camp S. M. Janes, 2016-05-20 In a race against time Nazi Germany must at any cost be prevented from accomplishing its goal European domination through the might of the Atomic Bomb It is June 1942 when Josef Mortkowicz one of America's pre eminent scientists volunteers to infiltrate and sabotage the Reich's parallel nuclear research programme Events however do not go according to plan Arrested for a minor offence identified as a Jew and deported to Auschwitz at a time the world knows nothing of the atrocities being perpetrated in the East the Final Solution a still unknown concept the Allies have but a few weeks at most to convince the Nazis they have unwittingly captured an absconded key physicist from Washington's top secret Manhattan Project Lieutenant Miller and his team are sent deep into enemy territory with the urgent brief to rescue and return But to succeed they must fail Mortkowicz has to be brought to the attention of the Nazis with cover intact and so Miller is hindered with orders to take rookie W T operator Christa Lynton A combination of insubordination and sheer bad luck results in the team's imprisonment in Hitler's most infamous concentration camp where young Christa is subjected to the horrors of physical abuse mental torture and sexual degradation by her Nazi assailant SS Untersturmführer Kramer Cruelly exploited by both Miller and Kramer we see how this vulnerable girl's decisions and actions as she fights for survival in an unimaginably inhumane world influence the outcome of this most crucial of missions Auschwitz SS Death Camp skilfully blends fact with fiction taking the reader into the very heart of the camp's SS hierarchy a nightmare realm with no rules West German Industry and the Challenge of the Nazi Past, 1945-1955 S. Jonathan Wiesen, 2003-01-14 In the aftermath of World War II and the Holocaust West German industrialists faced a major crisis in their public image With mounting revelations about the use of forced and slave labor the Aryanization of Jewish property and corporate profiteering under National Socialism industrialists emerged from the war with their national and international reputations in tatters In this groundbreaking study Jonathan Wiesen explores how West German business leaders remade and marketed their public image between 1945 and 1955 He challenges assumptions that West Germans and industrialists in particular were silent about the recent past during the years of denazification and reconstruction Drawing on sources that include private correspondence popular literature and a wealth of unpublished materials from corporate archives Wiesen reveals how German business leaders attempted to absolve themselves of responsibility for Nazi crimes while recasting themselves as socially and culturally engaged public figures Through case studies of individual firms such as Siemens and Krupp Wiesen depicts corporate publicity as a telling example of postwar selective memory In his introduction and conclusion Wiesen considers the recent establishment of a multibillion dollar fund to provide financial compensation to the victims of industrial exploitation during World War II This acknowledgment by German industry of its ongoing responsibility for its past crimes underscores the contemporary relevance of Wiesen s study
