

A SPIDER PHAETON
and Other Stories by WILLIAM JOHN PICKARD

¶ A volume of stories ranging from good yarns with a laugh to serious tales of poignant pathos. Cross sections of life—yours and mine and some of the neighbors'. In other words, stories of regular folks—with some irregularities. At times the viewpoint is delightfully whimsical; again it is gravely concerned with seriously dramatic happenings.

¶ A book most amazingly good for summer reading—and then you will want to take it up again in the winter. One of those books you like to keep at hand for re-reading. Whatever your mood may be, one of these tales will fit.

¶ In short, a Good Book—to read, to own, to give to a friend.
