National and International Conflicts, 1945-1995 Frank R. Pfetsch, Christoph Rohloff, 2013-10-11 The information flow about crises and conflicts is highly selective the media only focus on a few major conflicts at a time Many conflicts are neglected others soon forgotten after the fighting ends This book fills the gaps and offers a systematic overview of all crises and conflicts in and among states since 1945 and traces the global trends of conflict development Based on the broad empirical basis of the Conflict Simulation Model KOSIMO Pfetsch and Rohloff use an integrated approach to cover many forms and types of political conflicts both peaceful and violent      The Atlantic Realists Matthew Specter, 2022-02-08 In The Atlantic Realists intellectual historian Matthew Specter offers a boldly revisionist interpretation of realism a prevalent stance in post WWII US foreign policy and public discourse and the dominant international relations theory during the Cold War Challenging the common view of realism as a set of universally binding truths about international affairs Specter argues that its major features emerged from a century long dialogue between American and German intellectuals beginning in the late nineteenth century Specter uncovers an Atlantic realist tradition of reflection on the prerogatives of empire and the nature of power politics conditioned by fin de si cle imperial competition two world wars the Holocaust and the Cold War Focusing on key figures in the evolution of realist thought including Carl Schmitt Hans Morgenthau and Wilhelm Grewe this book traces the development of the realist worldview over a century dismantling myths about the national interest Realpolitik and the art of statesmanship      The Doctrines of US Security Policy Heiko Meierts, 2010-06-10 The practise of outlining principles for the conduct of US security policy in so called doctrines is a characteristic feature of US foreign policy From an international lawyer s point of view two aspects of these doctrines are of particular interest First to what degree are the criteria for the use of force as laid down in these doctrines consistent with the limitations for the use of force in international law Second which law creating effects do these doctrines have Furthermore the legal nature of these doctrines remains uncertain These matters are examined beginning with the Monroe Doctrine of 1823 and taking into account the Stimson Doctrine of 1932 the doctrines of the Cold War period and the Bush Doctrine of 2002 The Bush Doctrine in particular has generated controversies concerning its compatibility with Article 51 of the UN Charter due to its principle of preventive self defence      NATO and the Nuclear Revolution Helga Haftendorn, 1996 This is a critical analysis of the NATO crises of 1966 67 a period when a number of issues which had been developing for some time within NATO came to a head It sets out the diplomacy of the period in a broad historical context and provides detailed related case studies      The Epochs of International Law Wilhelm

G. Grewe, 2013-02-06 Wilhelm G Grewe's Epochen der Völkerrechtsgeschichte published in 1984 is widely regarded as one of the classic twentieth century works of international law. This revised translation by Michael Byers of Duke University Durham North Carolina makes this important book available to non German readers for the first time. The Epochs of International Law provides a theoretical overview and detailed analysis of the history of international law from the Middle Ages to the Age of Discovery and the Thirty Years War from Napoleon Bonaparte to the Treaty of Versailles, the Cold War and the Age of the Single Superpower and does so in a way that reflects Grewe's own experience as one of Germany's leading diplomats and professors of international law. A new chapter written by Wilhelm G Grewe and Michael Byers updates the book to October 1998 making the revised translation of interest to German international lawyers, international relations scholars and historians as well. Wilhelm G Grewe was one of Germany's leading diplomats serving as West German ambassador to Washington, Tokyo and NATO and was a member of the International Court of Arbitration in The Hague. Subsequently professor of International Law at the University of Freiburg, he remains one of Germany's most famous academic lawyers. Wilhelm G Grewe died in January 2000. Professor Dr Michael Byers, Duke University School of Law Durham North Carolina, formerly a Fellow of Jesus College Oxford and a visiting Fellow of the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law Heidelberg.

August 1968 erschockte die Nachricht vom Truppeneinmarsch in Prag die Weltöffentlichkeit Mit der größten Militärfaktion in Europa nach dem Zweiten Weltkrieg beendeten die Sowjetunion und ihre Verbündeten den tschechoslowakischen Sozialismus mit menschlichem Antlitz Die Regierungen des Westens protestierten gegen den völkerrechtswidrigen Akt Man fürchtete ein bergreifen der Krise Westdeutschland wurde beschuldigt die Intervention provoziert zu haben Ein Vorwurf den der französische Präsident de
